Apply now for '08 prairie chicken hunting permits

Hunters who wish to apply for one of 186 permits for the 2008 Minnesota prairie chicken season must do so by July 25. Applications are available wherever hunting and fishing licenses are sold, according to the Department of Natural Resources.

Application materials and maps of permit areas are available on the DNR Web site at www.mndnr.gov/hunting.

Successful applicants will be notified by mail after purchasing their permit at one of 1,800 Electronic License System agents across Minnesota.

Those applying for one of the permits will have about a one-in-three chance of success, depending upon the area they choose. In 2007, hunter success was 53 percent, with 122 prairie chickens harvested.

Five-day prairie chicken season, which will begin on Oct. 18, is open to Minnesota residents only. Hunters pay a $4 application fee and may apply individually or in groups up to four. Prairie chicken licenses cost $20.

The hunt will be conducted in 11 prairie chicken quota areas in west-central Minnesota between Warren in the north and Breckenridge in the south. Up to 20 percent of the permits in each area will be issued to landowners or tenants of 40 acres or more of prairie or grassland property in the areas to which they applied.

New regulations implemented this year allow residents younger than 12 to apply for a prairie chicken license.

The season bag limit is two prairie chickens per hunter. This year, licensed prairie chicken hunters also will be allowed to take sharp-tailed grouse while legally hunting prairie chickens. Sharptails and prairie chickens are similar-looking species. grouse

"Also honored were Kittson and Marshall counties for being designated Champion Communities by USDA Rural Development."

City to mull options on Minnesota Street bridge after state inspction report

Warren - "An inspection report calling the condition of the Minnesota Street bridge "serious" was reviewed and discussed by the Warren City Council at its meeting July 15, with a mayoral decision to research all options before responding.

"The inspection of the small, 94-year-old bridge over the Snake River near downtown Warren was conducted Oct. 3 as part of the Minnesota Department of Transportation program. The inspection was part of a check of all Minnesota bridges in the wake of the collapse of the I-35W bridge over the Mississippi River in Minneapolis on Aug. 1, 2007, which claimed 13 lives."

"In presenting the inspection report, Todd Hanson, Warren operations superintendent, recommended permanently closing the bridge (except for pedestrians and bikes) in light of the 'serious' condition noted in the state Inspection, the apparent unavailability of funds from the state for bridge replacement, and his estimate that replacing the bridge with adequately sized box culverts would cost $350,000.

"Approximately three years ago, after a few feet of the road surface on the west side of the north approach to the bridge subsided, the city ordered a closure of the bridge except for bikes and pedestrians. Most of the Minnesota Street residents north of the bridge protested the closure to the City Council, which reversed its earlier decision, instead ordering single-lane traffic across the bridge.

"After discussion at the July 15 meeting, Mayor Robert Kliner noted the bridge inspection recommends several repair actions for the bridge. The mayor said city staff needs to obtain contractor estimates before any decision can be made. Council member Deb Myrfield said options for financing such repairs should also be researched." - Warren Sheaf, July 23, 2008

Excel Dairy, which is located north of Thief River Falls, has been at the center of intense focus by local, state and federal officials lately because of complaints about its hydrogen sulfide emissions.

Smell issue is no small issue

EPA now issues notice of violation

by Scott DCamp
Reporter

The United States Environmental Protection Agency issued a notice of violation to the Dairy Dozen - Thief River Falls LLP, the managing partnership of Excel Dairy, last week for the dairy's violation of the Clean Air Act.

A July 18 letter written by Cheryl L. Newton, acting director of the Air and Radiation Division of the EPA, accompanied the notice of violation. It states, "We find that you are violating the Minnesota state implementation plan at your Thief River Falls, Minnesota, facility. We are concerned that in the month of June, the emissions from your facility resulted in nearby residents being advised to evacuate their homes."

Kevin Villeumier, an employee of the EPA's Air and Radiation Division, said the EPA is required under the Clean Air Act Section 113 to offer the Dairy Dozen an opportunity to discuss the allegations against them.

The EPA has several enforcement options it can consider, following the face-to-face conference with the Dairy Dozen. Those options include the issuance of an administrative compliance order; the issuance of an administrative penalty order, and bringing judicial, civil or criminal action against the Dairy Dozen.

Newton wrote that arrangements have been made for EPA representatives to meet with Rick Millner, CEO and other representatives from the Dairy Dozen at the United States Attorney's Office at the United States courthouse in Minneapolis Aug. 4 or Aug. 5.

The notice of violation cites Minnesota's hydrogen sulfide property line standards, which are not to exceed of 50 parts per billion for a half hour, not more than two times per year, and 30 parts per billion for a half hour average not to be exceeded over two times in any five consecutive days.

The notice of violation specifically states, "Emissions readings taken on numerous days in May, June and July 2008 demonstrate that Excel Dairy exceeded the hydrogen sulfide emission limit of 0.05 ppm (50 parts per billion) by volume for a half hour over two times per year."

It also states that, "Emissions readings taken on numerous days in

by Scott DCamp
Reporter

Prairie Ridge Management Chief Executive Officer Rick Millner feels that his company has not been given a fair chance to deal with odor problems that persist at Excel Dairy.

Millner said Excel Dairy's owners were unaware of previous problems with neighbors when they purchased the dairy in 2006. Millner said they thought they were starting up a business that would benefit the local economy.

"We come from a community where we are the local economy," Millner said.

Excel Dairy encountered opposition from day one, according to Millner. He said Marshall County residents living near the dairy tried to stop the dairy from obtaining a permit to expand to 1,850 milking cows. He said the dairy's neighbors requested that an Environmental Assessment Worksheet be completed; and he said one of the dairy's neighbors, Jeff Brouse, made allegations to the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency staff and Marshall County commissioners that manure storage basins weren't built to specifications and that manure was contaminating the area's groundwater.

Millner said Brouse's allegations led the MPCA to order Excel Dairy to clean and repair the original manure storage basin as a precautionary move.

"We argued against the full-blown clean-out because there was no scientific reason for cleaning it out," Millner said. "We were installing perimeter tile with an inspection port so that we would be able to tell if there was any leaching into the groundwater. However, we needed a permit to add new basins, so we agreed to the remediation process."

Millner said Excel Dairy negotiated an Individual Permit (as opposed to a general permit), which was issued in March 2007. Individual permits are site specific.

45 producers accept buyout

Cattle to be removed by Jan. 31

The Board of Animal Health has received 45 herd buyout contracts signed by cattle producers in the bovine tuberculosis (TB) Management Zone. The Board estimates that 6,800 cattle will be removed from the TB disease management area as a result of the buyout program. In total, 67 producers were eligible for the buyout.

Herd owners in the Management Zone who have chosen to participate in the buyout will be paid $500 per animal, plus $75 per animal per year until Minnesota regains TB-Free status. All animals that are part of the buyout must be removed from the zone or be slaughtered by Jan. 31, 2009. Cattle moving out of the zone must meet specific testing requirements. Producers taking part in the buyout program will not be allowed to keep livestock in the proposed Modified Accredited Zone.

"The removal of cattle from this area is a significant step toward eradicating bovine TB from northwest Minnesota," said Joe Martin, assistant commissioner of the Minnesota Department of Agriculture and state bovine TB coordinator. "However, it is a bittersweet step, knowing that many of these producers may not re-enter the cattle business."

Boy suffers gunshot wound

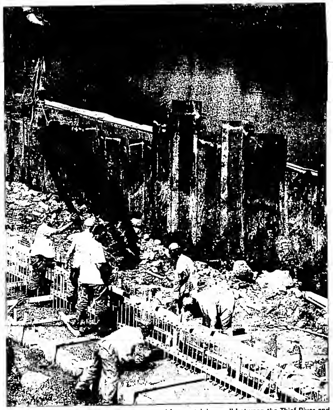
A 7-year-old Roseau County boy suffered a gunshot wound Tuesday morning at a home in rural Skime.

Gavin Skime of rural Skime was taken by ambulance to LifeCare Medical Center in Roseau. He was later airlifted to MeritCare Hospital in Fargo, N.D., according to the Roseau County Sheriff's Office. Skime was listed in critical but stable condition at MeritCare Hospital on Thursday afternoon, a MeritCare media relations staff member said. Skime's Caring Bridge Web site indicated that he suffered a severe brain injury and that he will have a long recovery ahead of him.

The sheriff's office received a call about Skime's injury at 9:46 a.m. Tuesday. "Our preliminary investigation indicates that it's an accidental shooting," Roseau County Sheriff Jule Hanson said in an interview with the Northern Watch on Thursday morning. He added that sheriff's deputies were still conducting interviews Wednesday afternoon. Hanson said Skime's 14-year-old cousin was showing Skime a gun when it discharged. As of Thursday morning, Hanson noted, it didn't appear that any charges would be filed unless something else came to the attention of the sheriff's office.

Gavin Skime

The Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension, Roseau ambulance and Wannaska First Responders also responded to the scene. The incident remains under investigation by the sheriff's office.



Thursday, over 90 yards of concrete was poured for a retaining wall between the Thief River and Dewey Avenue, which is being improved. Pennington County is anticipating completion of the project in September. This time of year is ideal for road construction and road construction projects are being undertaken in many communities throughout the region. Motorists are advised to check ahead and pay attention to road construction and detours.

Conway elected Legion commander

Tom Conway, an Argyle resident, was elected commander of the Minnesota American Legion at the recently concluded annual state convention in Bloomington.

Conway, 60, is a member of the American Legion Post in Warren. Conway, who served in the Army, is a veteran of the Vietnam War. He will lead the 104,000-member veterans service organization for the next year.

Conway is a retired law enforcement officer. He served 16 years as the Argyle police chief and 16 years as a Marshall County sheriff's deputy. Conway has been active in the American Legion for more than 34 years.

"The American Legion is Minnesota's most active service organization, and I look forward to a great year of helping our veterans, our youth and our families," said Conway. "It's critical that we continue to provide support for all veterans, especially those being deployed from Minnesota to Iraq and Afghanistan."

Conway was elected at the 90th annual state convention of the American Legion. More than 1,100 Legionnaires and Auxiliary members attended the convention.

I used my favorite old cookbook for today's recipes. It has no covers and is tattered, torn, and the yellowed pages have notes written all over them. I still use it. It is from a 1969 cookbook from Grace Evangelical Ladies Aid of Strathcona.

Those Ladies Aid gals were great cooks. Here is one of the good recipes, I'm sure. The good recipes have several contributors and this one has four. Beans are a wonderful dish to pass around at a picnic or backyard barbecue. Be sure to start these by soaking the beans the night before you plan to serve the dish:

BAKED BEANS

Mrs. Bertran Jevne
Mrs. Alice Hamness
Mrs. Chrest Hamness
Mrs. Henry Jackson

1/2 cup bacon, cut fine
2 tablespoons onion, chopped
2 cups tomato juice or soup
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 cups beans, soaked overnight
3/4 cup sugar, white or brown
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon mustard

Soak beans the night before dish is to be made. The next morning, cook beans with a little soda added to them. (I cook until the beans skins curl up when I blow on them - SL.)

Drain beans and add remaining ingredients. Put in pressure cooker and cook 1/2 hour or bake in oven 5 hours. (Watch the liquid in the oven and add water if needed -SL.)

These muffins will be perfect to have with our bean meal:

MOLASSES MUFFINS

Mrs. Alice Hamness

1/4 cup shortening
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups flour
1 egg
1 teaspoon soda
2 tablespoons molasses
Sour milk or buttermilk

- Place molasses in a cup and add sour milk to make 3/4 cup.

Mix shortening and sugar. Add egg and molasses and milk mixture.

Mix together the flour, salt and soda, and then add to molasses mixture. Place in muffin cups and bake at 350 degrees for 20-25 minutes. Mrs. Hamness says this is quick to make in place of Boston brown bread (which, as you know, is wonderful with baked beans).

You can't go wrong with a tasty slaw as a side dish to this meal:

CABBAGE SLAW

Mrs. Ed Folden
Former Pastor's Wife

4 cups cabbage
1 bunch carrots, ground
1 green pepper, chopped
1 small onion, chopped
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup salad oil
1 cup vinegar
1 cup sugar (yes, this is the second sugar used)
1 cup water
Salt and pepper

Sprinkle the half cup of sugar and the salad oil over the cabbage and carrots, peppers and onion. Set aside.

Bring vinegar, water and 1 cup sugar to a boil. Immediately pour over cabbage mixture. Salt and pepper to taste and place in refrigerator overnight.. Mrs. Folden says this "keeps indefinitely."

This dressing sounds so good and I think it would be good on the vegetable salad above:

CELERY SEED SALAD DRESSING

Mrs. Dick Novacek

1 1/2 cups sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 cup vinegar
1 teaspoon celery seed

Combine ingredients and bring to a boil. Remove from heat and cool. This keeps indefinitely in the refrigerator too. Serve with chopped cabbage.

Easy drop cookies for dessert will hit the spot, and they'll be good for you too. Have lots of cold milk ready:

CARROT COOKIES

Mrs. Charles Crabtree
Former Pastor's Wife

1 cup cooked carrots, mashed
3/4 cup sugar
1 cup shortening
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 egg
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon baking powder
2 cups flour

Cook and mash carrots. Cool. Cream shortening and sugar. Add egg and vanilla. Add cooled carrots, flour, salt and baking powder. Mix.

Drop on ungreased cookie sheets (I use parchment paper). Bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes. Frost with orange frosting while still warm.

Orange Frosting

1 tablespoon softened butter
Orange juice
Powdered sugar

Mix to spreading consistency. Orange zest may be added.

Central Boiler recognized for support of military employees

Minnesota Governor Tim Pawlenty recognized 28 outstanding employers of Minnesota Guard and Reserve members at the Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve Annual Employer Awards Banquet on Monday, May 12, 2008.

This year's event was held at the Golden Valley Country Club. More than 600 top business and elected officials turned out to recognize the award recipients for exceptional support of our nation's military. Nearly 800 employers were nominated by staff who were deployed with the Minnesota National Guard and Reserves.

Out of these, two employers were honored with the "Pro Patria" Award, the highest that can be given at the state level. Target Corporation of Minneapolis was nominated by MCPO Michael Korman, USNR, for the large employer category (greater than 500 employees). Central Boiler of Greenbush, Minnesota was nominated by CPL Monty Johnson for the small employer category (fewer than 500 employees).

Specialist Monty Johnson, was deployed twice while employed at Central Boiler; once to Bosnia and once to Iraq. During his leave, employees took Monty's kids fishing and camping and helped out at the Johnson farm. Central Boiler provided care packages and continued to include Monty in the bonus distributions, pay raises, promotions along with numerous other support efforts.

Upon Monty's return, Central Boiler took aerial video footage of his bus trip home and decorated billboards with "Welcome Home Monty" signs. A DVD of the video footage was made for each member of the National Guard that returned home with Monty and was given to the Thief River Falls Armory for distribution.

Central Boiler also recognizes and supports their employees and their family members who have served our Country in the Military by displaying their names on a star on a special board in Central Boiler's cafeteria. Central Boiler and Target Corporation are also the Minnesota nominees for the National Freedom Award. The Secretary of Defense Employer Support Freedom Award is the highest recognition given to employers for their exceptional support of their employees who also serve in the National Guard and Reserve. The award is the highest in a series of ESGR awards that include the Patriot Award, the Above and Beyond Award and the Pro Patria Award.

The award process takes into consideration specific support provided by an employer, including pay policies, benefits and leave policies, previous ESGR awards, supervisor training, ESGR advocacy, service member recognition, family support, deployed member support, hiring preferences and general military support.

Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR) is a Department of Defense organization. It is a staff group within the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Reserve Affairs (OASD/RA), which is in itself a part of the Office of the Secretary of Defense. ESGR was established in 1972 to promote cooperation and understanding between Reserve component members and their civilian employers.

Two injured after accident Sunday

Two people were injured after a motorcycle accident west of Hallock on Sunday.

Scott A. Carriere, 47, and Diana L. Anderson, 51, both of Hallock, were transported by ambulance to Kittson Memorial Healthcare Center in Hallock, according to the Kittson County Sheriff's Office. Carriere and Anderson were later taken to Altru Hospital in Grand Forks, N.D. Carriere was listed in critical condition Thursday afternoon, and Anderson was listed in satisfactory condition at that time, an Altru nursing staff member said.

At the time of the accident, Carriere and Anderson were riding on an eastbound motorcycle on County State Aid Highway 1 west of Hallock. A passer-by later came upon the accident scene and called for help at 6:46 p.m. Sunday.

"We're not exactly sure [what happened]. It appears no other vehicles were involved," said Steve Porter, chief deputy with the Kittson County Sheriff's Office.

The accident remains under investigation by the sheriff's office.

"Letter to Dave"

Dear Dave,

Sorry I missed you at the family reunion. I was working nights last weekend, which doesn't mix well with socialization. I would have made an appearance, but nighttime work makes me a daytime zombie

This week marked the death of Estelle Getty, who played Sophia on the television comedy "The Golden Girls." I think this television show was important because it mixed comedy and worthwhile sentiment into something most couples could agree to watch together. Getty's character was sweet and funny and always made me laugh with stories of Italy or one-liners delivered from the hip, yet with a sharpshooter's accuracy.

Things have been going good at the farm. The cattle are doing well as I move them through our little network of pasture paddocks. Our cattle never truly come into port because they're always at sail in search of new grass. I allow them in a paddock for about a week, then move them onto fresh pasture so that they always get the best part of the plant. I never let the cattle mow the grass down to nothing and so it recovers more quickly. There's always enough greenery left to absorb the benefits of whatever sunshine we have and re-grow in time for the next grazing. I also planted a mixture of corn and soybeans for late August grazing, as my cool season grasses dislike the dog days as much as I do.

Lyle Swanson was over to cut hay again last week. I kept my water line out of the way of his mower this time, but we still found a good topic for conversation: bull thistle. My fence line had started a pretty nice crop of this awful weed, and Lyle gave me a little advice on how to handle it. Lyle's son, Chris, is an agronomist and said that Bull Thistle is a crop best dealt with harshly. I spent one afternoon on the four-wheeler spraying the thistle liberally with "Curtail" herbicide, which gave these weeds a very bad case of death.

Our corn keeps growing up as the price continues a slow fall. You know what? I really don't care. We sell some corn in the fall, but we also keep some to heat our house. The part of me that feels bad about falling prices is consoled by the half that burns corn. We bought another corn stove for the living room and I can hardly wait for the snow to fall. There is nothing more comforting than watching our cats curl up in front of a corn fire and sleep. It also makes me feel that we're more in control of how we live when we know where our heat comes from - just like knowing our beef before we eat it.

I hope everyone is doing well in Carrington. Lisa and I are doing well, the cats are quite lazy and the cattle are inside the fence. I guess you could say things are just as I like.

Your little bro'

Cable interrupt system appears to be fixed

It seems that the cable interrupt system has been fixed. The cable interrupt system malfunctioned during a July 16 tornado warning in Pennington County.

"Fingers are crossed, and we'll just see what happens," said Mike Hruby, Pennington County sheriff and emergency management director.

The cable interrupt system notifies residents about such things as tornado warnings. A line amplifier was used to correct the problem with the cable interrupt system. It was believed that digital signals from the cell phone system were too weak.

Residents were still able to learn about the tornado warning through radio stations, television stations, the Internet and weather radios. Outdoor warning signals are also located in the city of Thief River Falls. Hruby decided not to activate the sirens that evening because two on-duty sheriff's deputies shadowing the storm indicated that it appeared the storm was staying in Marshall County. If the outdoor warning sirens had been activated, Hruby believed that there still would have been a 10- to 15-minute warning for city residents.

and they have language and rules written for the intended site only.

In the case of Excel Dairy, Millner said the permit specifically mentions the addition of new manure management basins, the remediation of the original basin and odor monitoring process. Negotiations between the MPCA and Excel Dairy that began in summer 2006 lasted until March 8, 2007, when the permit was approved.

"During negotiations and discussions, we were concerned that cleaning out the basin was going to cause extra odor," Millner said. "MPCA staff even suggested that we could possibly extend our odor exceedence days to cover us in the case of odor issues. Another staff member said it wouldn't be necessary because he had doubts it would smell. So extra exceedence days were not added."

Millner said there was a sequence of events that needed to happen for Excel Dairy to comply with the permit. Excel Dairy's permit approved the construction of two additional basins and required the clean-out and remediation of the first basin. The new basins would provide several additional months of storage since the existing basin had only a nine-month storage capacity. The three basins would create a three-stage solid separation system, which Millner said, was approved with the permit.

The MPCA gave a deadline for remediation and new construction of Nov. 1, 2007. Millner said the second and third storage basins needed to be constructed first and approved for use before work could begin on the original basin.

"By early September, MPCA still hadn't approved the additional basins," Millner said. "We knew then that we might not be able to complete the remediation before freeze up, so we asked for an extension until June 30, to perform remediation in the spring."

The deadline was extended to June 30, but a continuous air monitoring (CAM) device was installed in accordance with the Nov. 1, 2007, deadline, Millner said. He added that the MPCA originally asked to install the CAM to monitor and gather information on sand bedded systems, which he says is becoming a more common practice in Minnesota.

"They went public saying these CAMs were placed because of the complaints, but they were negotiated in 2006," Millner said. "The CAMs were never meant to be used for enforcement purposes during remediation because remediation should have been complete and the system should have been operating with all three basins for many months prior to the 2008 monitoring season (April 1 through Oct. 31).

"MPCA then specifically added language that stated 'Within 30 days following notification by the MPCA that the facility has the potential to exceed, they should prepare and submit to the commissioner, for approval, a manure storage system operation and management plan. The operation management plan shall describe how the permittee will manage the manure storage system to assure compliance with the state ambient hydrogen sulfide standards.'"

Millner said the MPCA was "holding our hands" and helping Excel Dairy through the remediation that was taking place. He said the relationship fell apart in mid-June, when MPCA ceased communication with Excel Dairy.

Excel Dairy faces nuisance charges

Millner described a timeline of events that led to Excel Dairy's current status. Gaylen Reetz, a regional director with MPCA, was quoted in a June 10 Minnesota Public Radio article as saying "the problem at Excel Dairy is worse this year because the company is doing some work to comply with a permit the MPCA granted a year ago."

A day later, on June 11, the MPCA's deputy commissioner, Leo Raudys, sent a letter to Excel Dairy ordering the dairy to: immediately add chopped straw to promote the formation of a crust; begin depositing manure via sub-surface transfer in order to reduce surface disruption; complete the clean-out and repair of basin one by June 30; and inform the MPCA of each date in 2008 in which it is claiming an exemption from Minnesota's hydrogen sulfide standard. The MPCA letter required a response from Excel Dairy within 10 days.

Millner said Excel Dairy would have responded that crust formation is improbable on basins that large. In addition, Excel Dairy was still in the process of cleaning the first basin. He said the only reason Excel Dairy was using over-ground transfer was because the underground transfer went to basin one and liquid couldn't be pumped into basin one because of remediation. Basin two was used instead. Millner added that Excel Dairy was still on schedule to complete the clean-out and repair.

Millner said, after receiving the June 11 letter, Excel Dairy "frantically" tried to get a meeting with MPCA to explain: that Excel Dairy had a plan in place; that it is impossible for second and third stage lagoons the size of Excel Dairy's to crust, with or without added straw; and added straw is not an option due to the aerobic system that was in place in the second and third storage basins.

Millner said the meeting request was denied. On June 20, nine days after the MPCA letter was sent, the MPCA and Minnesota Attorney General Lori Swanson filed a lawsuit against Excel Dairy. The lawsuit alleged that the dairy violated its permit, because it failed to apply chopped straw to its manure storage basins.

Millner said that Excel Dairy's permit, which was issued March 8, 2007, does not require the storage lagoons to be crusted. Instead, it calls for the separation of solids and liquids as a primary means of odor management.

The air emissions and odor management plan, dated Sept. 11, 2006, states that permanent odor management techniques to be employed at the facility include: immediate incorporation of land-applied manure; manure composting; the management of mortalities as required by the Minnesota Board of Animal Health; and the separating of solids with a settling basin or the use of a liquid/solid separator.

Still, the June 11 letter sent by the MPCA, specifically stated that Excel Dairy's feedlot permit required the maintenance of a thick crust on the manure storage basins. Millner believes that MPCA officials based the order on old construction plans that were submitted to the MPCA Aug. 30, 2006 – rather than construction plans dated Sept. 9 that were incorporated into the permit.

Millner said the Aug. 30 plan, submitted by an engineer, contained a cut and paste mistake, which called for the maintenance of a thick crust on manure storage basins and the application of chopped straw when matting does not occur naturally.

Millner said the MPCA has delayed or denied several actions that would have allowed the remediation of basin one to be completed much faster. Millner said the MPCA denied an August 2007 request made by Excel Dairy to transfer all liquid from basin one to basin two in order to inspect the liner in basin one. He said the MPCA didn't approve a permit for the two new lagoon basins until October 2007, which didn't allow the dairy adequate time to transfer water, remove solids and repair the first basin before the Nov. 1, 2007 deadline.

Millner said Excel Dairy began pumping out basin one and applying the manure to land on May 4. Pumping of liquid from the first basin was completed May 10. On May 21, Excel Dairy began pumping excess water from basin one into basin two via subsurface transfer, using a four-inch trash pump. Road restrictions ended June 2, allowing the dairy to move in equipment to complete the clean-out of basin one. June 3, Excel Dairy began hauling manure/sand to a field south of the lagoons, hauling up to 75 loads per day.

Millner said all solids that are able to be hauled out using the dairy's spreaders was complete June 20. Larson Engineering inspected the lagoon June 23. Millner said Larson Engineering "gave the OK" to start hauling in new clay into the first basin.

Millner said, over the next three days, clay was hauled into the first basin and reconstruction was completed. On June 26, additional concrete splash pads were poured, per MPCA request during a June 19 meeting. Millner said the lagoon was completed June 30, with the installation of pond markers by Larson Engineering.

"Excel Dairy met the deadline for everything that needed to be completed in basin one," Millner said.

On July 23, the MPCA inspected and approved the remediation plan for the first manure storage basin. Now Excel Dairy will transfer solids from basin two into basin one. Once that happens, the basins can begin to operate as intended with basin one containing the majority of solids and developing a crust.

Excel Dairy's Six-Step Plan

Millner said Excel Dairy has submitted the following six-step plan to the MPCA.

- Construction of basin one prior to June 30 was completed on time.
- Upon MPCA's inspection, Excel Dairy will immediately begin pumping manure into basin one instead of bypassing it using the manure hose.
- As soon as there is enough liquid in basin one (approximately four feet), the dairy will immediately add straw to assist in the formation of a crust. Millner said straw cannot be added now, because everything left in basin one is dried up and the straw would serve no purpose.
- Excel Dairy will continue to use aeration and microbial digestion in basins two and three.
- Excel Dairy will regularly monitor the chemistry of all three basins. Substances monitored include soluble phosphorus, total kjeldahl nitrogen, dissolved sulfides, biological oxygen demand, chemical oxygen demand, total volatile solids and total soluble solids.
- "Excel Dairy agrees to regularly schedule meetings to assess the success of this alternative odor management plan, with the expressed understanding that it will take additional odor management steps."

Millner said if the six-step plan doesn't solve odor issues, Excel Dairy will construct a synthetic cover for basins two and three.

May, June and July 2008 demonstrate that Excel Dairy exceeded the hydrogen sulfide emission limit of 0.03 ppm (30 parts per billion) by volume for a half hour over two times during a consecutive five-day period."

Millner said the EPA's notice of violation is "an example of piling on" and "heavy-handedness" by the attorney general. Despite the EPA's notice of violation, Millner feels that Excel Dairy is very close to an agreement with the MPCA.

"I'm not denying the odor, but it's because of remediation," Millner said. "We just got the first lagoon inspected yesterday (July 23). If we didn't have to go through remediation, there wouldn't be exceedences."

MPCA, residents report exceedences

Residents living near Excel Dairy are waiting for a ruling from Ninth District Judge Jeffrey Remick, who presided over a July 1 motion hearing between the state of Minnesota and Excel Dairy.

The hearing was the result of a lawsuit filed against Excel Dairy by the state of Minnesota, which requested that the court issue orders declaring the Excel Dairy feedlot a public nuisance. It also asked Remick to order Excel Dairy to comply with state air standards; to comply with its permits by establishing and maintaining a straw cover and ceasing to aerate the manure basin; and to pay an appropriate civil penalty.

Remick gave both sides a July 8 deadline to file additional testimony, but he did not say when he would announce his decision. In the meantime, residents say the dairy is still emitting a strong odor; and hydrogen sulfide readings taken by Minnesota Pollution Control Agency Continuous Air Monitoring (CAM) systems taken at Excel Dairy's property line continue to show exceedences.

Daniel Olson, public information officer with the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency, said Monday that there were nine 30-minute hydrogen sulfide average exceedences that occurred at Excel Dairy from July 11 through July 14 and an additional 42 hydrogen sulfide exceedences were recorded from July 15 through 21.

"In two instances, the exceedences reached the upper limit of the equipment's measurement range, which is 90 parts per billion," Olson said.

The residents have continued to take their own hydrogen sulfide concentration readings on a second Jerome Toxic Gas Analyzer (Jerome Meter). Jeff Brouse, a Marshall County landowner who resides near Excel Dairy, said he and other residents recorded several hydrogen sulfide concentration readings of more than 150 parts per billion and some over 300 parts per billion July 17.

Brouse said readings taken July 21 on the property of Paul and Mona Loe, were as high as 600 parts per billion. The average reading during the 90-minute span, in which readings were taken every two minutes from 9:09 p.m. to 10:29 p.m., was over 306 parts per billion.

"There's not one reading that's under (30 parts per billion) and they are averaging over 300 [parts per billion]," Brouse said.

Prairie Ridge Management CEO Rick Millner responded Tuesday, July 22, by saying that his company is working to correct the odor problem at Excel Dairy.

"We are not condoning exceedences; it is not our position [to do so]," Millner said. "We're not disputing that there's a smell, we're not disputing the fact that it needs to be fixed and we're not disputing the fact that it needs to be fixed as fast as possible."

Educating others on the impact of bovine tuberculosis

The bovine tuberculosis problem in northwestern Minnesota may be old news to area residents, but there is evidence its impact is a new experience elsewhere. When Sisseton Livestock Auction Co. in Sisseton, S.D., bought some area cows for slaughter, it made news in Aberdeen, S.D.

The state's veterinarian, Sam Holland, reassured producers in that state that safeguards are in place to ensure that the cattle coming into South Dakota do not have tuberculosis. It was also pointed out that the cattle were slaughter ready, and that breeding stock and feeder cattle were not coming to the facility. The story went on to explain how all the animals are accounted for and that they would go directly to slaughter from the auction market.

After what happened in northwestern Minnesota, one cannot blame producers in South Dakota for being a little nervous. Bovine TB can destroy a livelihood.

Of course, northwestern Minnesota is not alone in its problems with bovine TB. We've heard of bovine TB in parts of Michigan, New Mexico and California. It was discovered recently in three California dairy herds.

South Dakota has been free of bovine TB since 1982. Since then, it was said in the story, producers may have become complacent, and forgotten the rules and regulations on the disease because they haven't had to deal with it. Someday, I hope we can once again be anxiety free, but it will be a long time, if ever, before producers in northwest Minnesota become complacent.

Have fun boating this summer

As summer drifts lazily into August and the desire to escape the summer heat builds, there's the potential of becoming a bit too careless about water safety. Last week, the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources sent out a reminder to all residents about personal flotation devices in watercraft.

"It just amazes me as I go through the officers' reports, how many people forget their life jackets or don't have enough on board," said Tim Smalley, Minnesota DNR boating safety specialist. "This law isn't new; it's been in effect for just about forever, but some boaters just 'space out' when it comes to their safety equipment."

It's not just about picking on people or creating laws just to annoy people, personal flotation devices save lives. It's just common sense. Imagine the effect of cold water on a hot summer day. It literally takes your breath way. It's hard to swim when you can't breath, and some of you can't swim anyway.

In case the heat has gotten to you and you've forgotten, the law, according to this news release, says boats that are 16 feet or longer (except canoes and kayaks) must carry a Coast Guard approved boat cushion or ring buoy as a throwable device.

Have fun boating this summer.

A bomb detection dog unit from the Grand Forks Air Force Base and the Grand Forks Regional Bomb Squad were called out to Winger Implement Monday after a bomb threat was telephoned into the business. In this photo, a member of the bomb squad approaches a vehicle suspected of having a bomb inside. The inspection was made after initial attempts with a remote-controlled robot (also pictured) proved inconclusive. Bomb threat closes Winger Implement on Monday

by Dan Kindall
Editor of The 13 Towns, Fosston

Winger Implement was forced to close on Monday, July 21 after an anonymous caller claimed a bomb was placed on the property. The Polk County Sheriff's Office received a call from the dealership at 9:48 a.m. Deputies, along with the Winger Fire Department, First Care Ambulance Service and state troopers, were dispatched to the scene. The property was evacuated and then blocked off.

The threat was serious enough that authorities contacted the Grand Forks Air Force Base and requested the use of one of their bomb detection dog units. The canine and its handler arrived at 1 p.m. During a search of the property, the dog was alerted to something in one of the vehicles toward the front of the property, which is along Highway 59. A half-mile stretch of highway was then sealed off and the perimeter was expanded another block from Dakota Avenue to the junction of County Road 1. Traffic was detoured around Winger.

Due to the dog's 95 percent success rate in detecting explosives, sheriff's deputies called in the Grand Forks Regional Bomb Squad. The unit arrived at 4 p.m. and initially used a remote-controlled robot to search the suspect vehicle. An officer, dressed in explosive ordnance disposal gear, eventually approached it and, after a brief inspection, declared it clean. Authorities then reopened Highway 59 to traffic.

Investigators and members of the Bomb Squad then began searching other portions of the property. However, no explosives were found.

Anyone with information relating to the bomb threat is asked to call the Polk County Sheriff's Office at (218) 281-4821.

Sean Sorteberg was met at home plate by his Thief River Falls teammates after hitting a three-run first inning home run to begin the scoring in the opening game of a July 18 American Legion baseball doubleheader against Fergus Falls. The Bandits won both games, 11-7 and 9-7, played at Northland Community and Technical College.

Conners, Johnson blank EGF

Few would argue that Thief River Falls has the best 1-2 pitching combination in the Ninth District. Tuesday put an exclamation point to that claim when Cody Conners and Spencer Johnson threw 14 innings of scoreless, three-hit baseball as the Bandits took a key 4-0, 9-0 American Legion doubleheader from East Grand Forks at Stauss Park.

"These were huge games for us," acknowledged Thief River Falls coach Courtney Skjerven. "They decided the No. 1 seed in the (Ninth District) North Half."

Conners was up first. He struck out seven and allowed only four base runners – giving up two hits while walking one and hitting a batter.

Johnson did him one better by allowing only three runners with a one-hit, two-walk performance that included 13 strike-outs.

The Bandits backed their pitchers with 21 base hits and two error-free games as they ran their record to 22-9.

"We got a great game out of Cody," pointed out Skjerven. "It was very evident early East Grand Forks was going to have trouble scoring runs off him. We made some nice defensive plays to help him out."

A 3-for-4 plate performance by Zach Sorenson led the Thief River Falls Game 1 offense. Sean Sorteberg had two doubles.

"Zach came up big for us again," mentioned Skjerven. "He quietly gets two or three hits almost every game. He has shown a lot of patience at the plate this summer. Sorty (Sorteberg) is starting to heat up, too."

The winners scored one run at a time from the third through the sixth inning.

"The only improvement we could have made was doing more with our 11 hits," said Skjerven. "We didn't run the bases very well and ran ourselves out of quite a few scoring chances. But all in all, it was nice to play well in the first game and get it out of the way."

There was no Game 2 letdown for the visitors, who had their nine-run lead on the board by the fourth inning.

"We got on them early and the game was over quickly," confirmed Skjerven. "Any time we get nine runs and have Spence (Johnson) on the mound, I like our chances. In his last two starts, he has been at the top of his game. I have never seen him throw as hard as he did tonight. The East Grand Forks' hitters never got anything going against him."

Johnson and Conners also showed their offensive prowess with two hits each in the nightcap.

"Offensively, we spread it around," said Skjerven. "Eight guys got hits."

Thief River Falls is scheduled to close out the 2008 regular season today (Saturday) at Detroit Lakes. The Ninth District tournament starts Tuesday at Fergus Falls.

Jordan Anderson stretched out as the Thief River Falls left-hander delivered a pitch during July 18 American Legion baseball action against Fergus Falls. Anderson went five innings and was the first-game winner as the Bandits came up with an 11-7, 9-7 Ninth District sweep.

Back-to-back 20-win seasons for Bandits

A 2-1 Game 1 victory in a Monday doubleheader match-up with Bemidji lifted the Thief River Falls American Legion baseball team to the 20-win plateau for the second straight season – a feat that hadn't been accomplished since 1992/1993.

Coached by Howard Dalager, Post 117 went 29-13 en route to a Ninth District Class AA title in 1992 and came back with a 31-10 campaign in 1993.

But the program produced just one 20-win season over the next 13 years before the Courtney Skjerven-coached Bandits went 23-16 last summer and were 20-9 after finishing their 2008 home schedule with a split against Bemidji.

Four Thief River Falls pitchers combined on a two-hit performance in the opener.

The starter was Ben Espeseth, who gave up one hit and a fourth inning run. Nick Gagner, Spencer Johnson and Cody Conners all worked one inning in relief. A tie-breaking Thief River Falls run in the bottom of the sixth gave Johnson the win.

With a key Ninth District Division I twinbill scheduled the following night at East Grand Forks, Skjerven didn't hesitate to share the pitching load in the non-district meeting with Bemidji.

"My main goal today was to keep the kids fresh for district games in East Grand Forks," explained Skjerven. "Ben did a great job keeping his pitch count down and giving us four innings. I used Nick, Spencer and Cody an inning each as a tune-up, and they all got it done."

A first inning home run by Johnson gave Thief River Falls an early 1-0 lead and a sixth inning Jordan Espeseth double drove in the winning run.

"Offensively, our lack of scoring against lefty's is definitely an area of concern," offered Skjerven. "We scored just enough to win. Jordan came up with a big hit with Briar (Verbout) on base."

With district doubleheaders scheduled Tuesday at East Grand Forks and Saturday at Detroit Lakes to close out the regular season, Skjerven went to his bench in the second half of the home finale, won by Bemidji 7-5.

"The way our schedule is set up, we needed to rest our starters and let the young guys get some work in Game 2," pointed out Skjerven. "I was happy with the way they played."

Thief River Falls second-game starter Derek Lunde battled through a four-run Bemidji second inning to pitch a complete game. A three-run Thief River Falls rally in the bottom of the seventh closed the gap, but couldn't complete a sweep.

"I needed Derek to pitch deep into the game and give our other guys some rest," noted Skjerven. "He was able to go all seven, which was great. He got into a little trouble in the second, but other than that, he pitched well."

Zach Sorenson had a 3-for-4 game at the plate to lead the Bandits' nightcap offense. Joey Dondelinger and Jordan Anderson were both 2-for-4.

"Zach has hit well all year. Ando (Anderson) and Joey are big, strong kids who are starting to get it going with the bat."

Bemidji ended the regular season at 12-16.

- Questions/Answers from Minnesota DNR -

Q: Fireflies should start lighting up the night sky within the next week or two. What makes them glow? And is it ok to catch them?

A: Fireflies produce light through a chemical reaction similar to the way chemical lightsticks light up. Light is produced without heat through reactions of chemicals called luciferin and luciferase. If you watch fireflies closely, you may see that some fireflies make one short flash, while others make a long flash or a series of short flashes. Each pattern of flashes indicates a different species. Flashes by male fireflies attract females of the same species. Catching fireflies in order to get a close look at them can be fun and educational. But letting them go again afterward is best. That way they can then return to their home habitat to mate and begin a new generation of fireflies to light up the night sky.

"Celebrate. Remember. & Fight Back"

The 2008 Roseau County American Cancer Society "Relay For Life" will be held on Friday, Aug. 8, at the Roseau City Park. The planning for the 12th Annual Roseau County "Celebrate. Remember. & Fight Back" Relay For Life is well under way. Teams are organized, food planned, luminaries are being sold and decorated, the entertainment is planned and campsites are still available.

The Relay For Life celebrates life by honoring those who are cancer survivors for their courage and spirit in their fight against cancer. Ensuring that these survivors, their caregivers, former caregivers - and all those who are witness to this momentous occasion – experience healing. The Relay For Life celebrates life by honoring the memory of those who have died – losing their battle against cancer. The people of Roseau County are encouraged to purchase luminaries in honor or in memory of family or friends who have been touched by cancer. The luminaries, that line the walking track, are lit during a special lighting ceremony. Luminaries are available at the Citizen State Bank of Roseau and Badger; Border State Bank of Roseau, Greenbush and Badger; Greenbush Nursing Home; Doug's of Roseau and Warroad; and the Warroad and Roseau Altru Clinics.

The Relay will begin on Friday, Aug. 8, with survivor registration at 5 p.m. and the team registration following at 5:30 p.m. The Knights of Columbus will serve a plate dinner between 5 and 6:30 p.m. in the main shelter for a small fee. The Highway 11 Ramblers will be playing during dinner. The opening ceremony will begin at 7 p.m. with Doug Johnson, as the emcee, and the introduction of the cancer survivors. The cancer survivors will lead the first lap of the Relay following the opening ceremony.

A Service of Hope and Healing will be held at 9 p.m. followed by the lighting of the luminaries. Reserved sitting is available for the cancer survivors. Bring a lawn chair and plan to stay for awhile. This is a family, community and county event. There will be family fun with music, entertainment and games throughout the night with numerous prizes to be given away. Everyone is invited to the Relay For Life festivities.

The HOUR of HOPE is returning this year. For $100 donation, an individual may have an hour of the Relay dedicated in honor of or in memory of a loved one.

The purpose of the American Cancer Society Relay For Life is to raise money through donations to help fight cancer. This event also gives everyone an opportunity to honor cancer survivors and remember those who have given their lives to cancer. Two-thirds of the donations from the Roseau County Relay For Life stay in Roseau County. The donations received are used in three areas: cancer research, patient services in Roseau County, and cancer education in Roseau County.

There have been between 10 and 23 teams participating in the Relay For Life walk since the first Relay in Roseau County in 1997. Citizen State Bank and the Altru Clinic have had a team for each of the past 12 years with the Roseau Community School Staff (C.A.K.E.) having a team for 10 years. The commitment of all the teams throughout the past 12 years has been outstanding.

The donations over the past 12 years have grown along with Roseau County's commitment to be a part of this fight against cancer. The total accumulated donations from 1997 – 2007 are $414,441. Outstanding! Every person in Roseau County should be very proud.

The 2008 Roseau County Relay For Life committee members are: Co-Chairmen Natali Anderson and Amanda Zimmerman, Logistics – Janet Johnson, Finances – Kathy Hagen and Shirley Mitterling, Sponsorship – Julie Pahlen and Bridget Linder, Survivors – Barb Erickson, Teams – Kaydell Majer, Food Mary Ross, Advocacy – Pam Solberg, Publicity – Bonnie Weispfenning, and Event Coordinator Patty Champaign.

Make the "2008 Celebrate. Remember. & Fight Back" Relay For Life a successful Roseau County event.

Bring reappointed to term on Minn. Board on Aging

On Friday, July 18, Minnesota Gov. Tim Pawlenty announced the appointment of Joseph Grunt, Larry Juhl and Tracy Keibler, and the reappointment of R.D. Brown, Sharon Bring, Kenneth Moritz and Donald Tomsche to the Minnesota Board on Aging.

Bring, a Strandquist resident, is a grain farmer and county commissioner in Marshall County. She is the past chair of the Lutheran Social Services Senior Nutrition Program. Bring is reappointed to a four-year term that expires January 2, 2012.

The Minnesota Board on Aging develops, coordinates, evaluates and administers federal and state funds for programs for the aging; makes grants to 14 area agencies on aging and nonprofit agencies; and serves as an advocate for older persons. The board consists of 25 members appointed by the governor.

Fair Meadow Nursing Home gets $60,000 grant from Dakota Medical Foundation

Fair Meadow Nursing Home in Fertile, has received a grant in the amount of $60,000 from Dakota Medical Foundation to support the training of employees in a Lean Healthcare initiative. Through the cooperation of Dakota Medical Foundation, Fair Meadow Nursing Home, Northland Community and Technical College, Villa St. Vincent and Minnesota Jobs Skills Partnership Program (MJSP), Fair Meadow has entered into a three-year grant project to bring the lean tools to long-term care nursing centers.

Fair Meadow Nursing Home is a nonprofit skilled nursing facility in Fertile. Like many independent long-term nursing care facilities, Fair Meadow is facing financial challenges. According to the Minnesota Health and Housing Alliance, "Reimbursement for long-term care facilities in Minnesota has declined over the last several years and profit margins for skilled nursing home facilities have dropped. Today, the majority of the states skilled nursing homes are losing money and 26 percent are at risk of closing." Many have already applied traditional cost cutting measures, only to "stop the bleeding" for a short time. This initiative will enable Fair Meadow to look at a new "mode of operation," giving them the tools for a new way of thinking.

The Dakota Medical Foundation grant will be used in conjunction with a three-year grant from MJSP to bring the tools of lean to long-term care. Employees will embark on this journey through classroom training, experiential learning, project completions, and group activities. Modules will include the Fundamentals of Lean, in which the employees become aware of what their strengths are, and how to use them for the good of the facility, and in their personal life. Workplace Organization, a hands-on module will show the employees how to "work smarter, not harder." And Value Stream Mapping gives them the tools to allow them to always be looking to continually improve the workplace. Other modules will tie the entire lean journey together, so that Fair Meadow can sustain the successes they realize.

Dakota Medical Foundation, Fargo, N.D., focuses its efforts on improving health and access to medical and dental care in the region, with a special emphasis on children. Since 1996, the foundation has invested over $33 million to 300 nonprofit organizations in the region. For more information, see www.dakmed.org.

Resurfacing of Hwy. 11 begins July 28

The Minnesota Department of Transportation will resurface two sections of Highway 11 beginning Monday, July 28. The first section will be from the east city limits of Warroad to approximately three miles west of the city. The second section will be from the west city limits of Williams to approximately eight miles east of the city.

The project, a mill and overlay, will include resurfacing the shoulders and building in a turn lane at Williams.

The project is expected to be complete by the end of August, weather permitting.

Work will be done under traffic with the use of flaggers and a pilot car. Motorists need to prepare for lane closures and intermittent delays.

Zetor TRACTORS

The Forterra "Seven" Series combines a variety of state-of-the-art features with the traditional Zetor ruggedness and ease of servicing. The series includes four models, all as four-wheel-drive, in a horsepower range from 96 to 132.

The Forterra "Seven" Series represents the third generation of the popular and proven Zetor Range 3 and Forterra tractors, first introduced on the market in 1991. It has been designed with no compromises, to meet the requirements of modern farming.

The Forterra Series tractors reflect more than 60 years of Zetor's design and manufacturing expertise. And, like all Zetors, they deliver exceptional value for the money.

Models In Stock
13241 - 132HP

All Forterra models feature heavy cast iron chassis. This is one of Zetor traditions; a chassis designed beyond the needs of the most powerfull engine, and used throughout the whole range of models. Zetor's design philosophy is to add weight where it is needed most - in tractor housings themselves. Therefore, Zetor housings are exceptionally strong, to ensure long-term structural stability.

Two RLCC students attend Girls State

Brittany Waldal and Janita Ramirez were the Plummer American Legion Auxiliary Post 623 delegates to the 2008 session of the American Legion Auxiliary Girls State. Waldal and Ramirez will be seniors this fall at Red Lake County Central High School in Oklee. Waldal is the daughter of John and Lori Waldal of Thief River Falls, and Ramirez is the daughter of Juan and Marlene Rodriguez of Thief River Falls.

Girls State was held June 8 to 14 at Bethel College in Arden Hills. Girls State is a practical learning experience in local and state government. Its citizens apply knowledge already gained through their school experiences, and receive additional knowledge provided through instruction by competent individuals from selected governmental areas to organize and operate their own city, county and state governments.

Scholars to Girls State must have completed their junior year in high school. They are named through cooperation of the post and high school faculty based on their outstanding qualifications.

Both Waldal and Ramirez have been members of the band, chorus, Knowledge Bowl and National Honor Society throughout their high school years.

Waldal has been a member of the Student Senate and has played volleyball, basketball and softball as well. She has also volunteered her time to help at Cub Scout day camp.

Ramirez is a member of River of Life Youth Group where she has been involved with The Puppet Team. She also has volunteered to help with a Cub Scouts summer program.

Randeen Church celebration planned for August 3

The Randeen Church, located on Randeen Ridge, Linsell Township, Marshall County, will be celebrating it's many years of existence on Aug. 3. The building now known as Randeen Church was first built and used for the school house.

When the School District merged with another school, the building was bought from the school district and it became the church. In 1990 the church received a much-needed face-lift with lots of donated time and money from the community and it's people.

Today the church is used for the Linsell Township Hall. With the doors always open, there are many people that stop by and sign the guest book while driving down the beautiful Randeen Ridge where trees form an arch over the road. Past residents and people of the community will be getting together on Aug. 3 to celebrate the church's existence. At 11 a.m. there will be registration and visiting followed by a noon pot luck meal.

Sometime after the meal ,there will be a time of singing a few old favorite hymns, special music and story telling. People of the area are invited to come for the fun and visiting. Please bring your lawn chairs and any pictures you might have of the Randeen Church and the Randeen Community. Cups, plates, flatware, coffee, lemonade and napkins will be provided.

A freewill offering will be taken so people wanting to help with the expenses of putting the celebration together can do so. Any funds received in excess of the expenses will be donated to help maintain this old church and the church grounds. If there are any questions, you may contact Merle or Karen Lorenson at 218-781-2670 or e-mail mandk@wiktel com.

Bead Gypsy to donate 25% of sales

As a way of expressing her own creativity, Rebecca Rosenkrans of Roseau, started creating beautiful unique pieces of jewelry for friends and family in the privacy of her own home located in northwestern Minnesota.

It was clear to those who wore and enjoyed Rosenkrans' beaded creations that she should be marketing her products on a national scale. Today, the Bead Gypsy product line for women sells handcrafted, one-of-a-kind jewelry pieces throughout the U.S.A. and Canada "In honor of strong, creative, and beautiful women everywhere," said Rosenkrans.

The special, customized service Rosenkrans enjoys involves taking a customer's heirloom jewelry or sentimental piece to recreate a new treasure that includes a blend of new and existing beads.

Bead Gypsy has advised Ardell Larson President of Kick'n Up Kountry, Inc. that the company will be donating 25 percent of all sales to the Hopes, Dreams and Smiles Fund, which was established through the Northwest Minnesota Foundation. Its purpose is to "provide children from Minnesota and North Dakota who have a life threatening illness or other disabilities, the opportunity to enjoy a special event or other activity that will have a positive impact on their lives."

During the fun-filled, VIP, all exclusive paid, three-day event, in Thief River Falls, children and their families get the opportunity to enjoy country music, get autographs, and have photographs taken with their favorite county music artist.

Polk County commissioners receive Blue Ribbon Award

Crookston - "The Polk County commissioners received a Blue Ribbon Award at their July 22 meeting from Prevent Child Abuse Minnesota. Joan Johnson, northeast program coordinator from Prevent Child Abuse Minnesota, presented the award to honor Polk County's efforts for child abuse awareness and prevention throughout the year.

"Polk County has a 22-member child abuse prevention council, which coordinates the Parents Helping Parents Support Group and focuses on child abuse awareness and prevention activities throughout the entire county." - McIntosh Times, July 30, 2008

Heggedal participates in "High-Heel-A-Thon"

New York City - "It all started with a phone call ... A friend of Kara Heggedal was in a clinic waiting room when she saw an announcement on the television about the 'Live with Regis & Kelly High-Heel-A-Thon. She called Kara, a Greenbush resident, and left a message about it on Kara's phone.

"Kara said that she wears high heels all the time and it was one of those crazy, wild ideas that one would have to try once. She threw her high heels in a bag and boarded a plane to Fargo, N.D., with her sister Gretchen Berg and her friend Janet Hetteen. Gretchen and Janet did not race but were more like Kara's 'race team.'"

The race was held July 9. "The race had 400 registered runners and 200 additional by lottery. Five hundred eighty-seven actually ran. There were 24 preliminary heats, which each consisted of a 50-yard run. After the preliminaries, the remaining contestants were lined up by their times. Kara was placed in the second row. Two hundred eight women actually ran in the finals for the 150-yard dash. Kara finished in 29th place with a time of 26.85 seconds. Kelly Ripa raced and ended up in, Kara thought, 63rd place with a time of 31.90 seconds."

"More than $60,000 was raised by the High-Heel-A-Thon to benefit the March of Dimes, the leading nonprofit organization for pregnancy and baby health. With chapters nationwide and its premier event, March for Babies, the March of Dimes works to improve the health of babies by preventing birth defects, premature birth and infant mortality." - The Middle River Honker, July 26, 2008

Warroad Area Boy Scouts host Fish Fest

Warroad - "Ten teams competed, many sponsors were involved and more than 400 people sampled.

"But when it was all over, the real winners of Fish Fest 2008 were the Warroad Area Boy Scouts. $2,200 was raised at this fun and fishy fundraiser held on the banks of the Warroad River on July 26."

"Ten teams cut, battered and fried fish like crazy to supply samples of their best walleye recipes to more than 400 people in attendance."

"The teams each prepared 30 to 60 pounds of walleye as they vied for the cash, prizes and trophies on the line. But that's not all; many teams took it upon themselves to serve side dishes with their fish. Tasters were also treated to free root beer floats." - Warroad Pioneer, July 30, 2008, by Rob Crowe

Passport cards

New U.S. Passport Cards in full production

The U.S. Department of State and the Department of Homeland Security has announced that the new U.S. Passport Card is in full production and is now being distributed. The Passport Card is a convenient, wallet-sized document for land and sea travel between the United States and Mexico, Canada, the Caribbean and Bermuda. It is not valid for international travel by air.

Beginning in June 2009, travelers will be required to present a single Western Hemisphere Travel Initiative (WHTI) compliant document denoting both citizenship and identity when entering the United States through a land or sea border.

More than 350,000 Americans pre-ordered the U.S. Passport Cards since the State Department began taking orders on Feb. 1. Over 7,600 cards have already been mailed to advance customers, and all pre-orders are expected to be filled by Sept. 30, 2008. After that initial distribution, officials expect the processing time for passport cards to be the same as for passport books - less than four weeks. Customers will be able to track the progress of their passport card application online beginning in mid-August.

The passport card will facilitate the frequent travel of Americans living in border communities by utilizing a vicinity-read radio frequency identification (RFID) chip. With this

Minnesota's "Nashville Star"

Ashlee Hewitt unfazed by elimination from "Nashville Star"

by Scott DCamp
Reporter

"Nashville Star" contestants Ashlee Hewitt and Shawn Mayer stood side by side on the "Nashville Star" stage July 21, as they waited for host Billy Ray Cyrus to announce who would be moving on to the top four and who would be going home.

Hewitt, a Lancaster native, and Mayer, a native of May City, Iowa, had grown close over the previous seven weeks because of their similar backgrounds, growing up in small communities. Only one of them could move on.

"We were up there telling each other, whatever happens, happens for a reason," Hewitt said. "Who ever goes on, will go on tour and will have a blast. Whoever doesn't go on tour will be having a blast because she will be recording her own music."

After an agonizing wait, Cyrus announced that Hewitt had been eliminated.

Hewitt teared up as she accepted well wishes from the show's Judges, Jeffrey Steele, John Rich and Jewel. To her credit, she showcased the same smile and northern Minnesota charm that made her a fan-favorite for the first seven weeks of this year's show.

"It was so overwhelming," Hewitt said. "You are really thankful to make it that far. I wasn't upset that I got voted-off by any means and I definitely made some friends for life."

She added that surviving elimination and seeing friends leave the show was also tough in previous weeks.

"I think, in some ways, it's harder for the people who have to stay on the show because they lose a best friend and they have to stay sequestered," Hewitt said.

Ashlee Hewitt entertained a large crowd at the Evergreen Eating Emporium in Thief River Falls Tuesday. Hewitt appeared in seven episodes of the 2008 edition of "Nashville Star," before being eliminated July 21.

Housing agency gets large grant

The Northwest Minnesota Multi-County Housing and Redevelopment Authority was recently awarded $487,500 by the Federal Home Loan Bank of Des Moines for its commitment in helping individuals and families secure safe, affordable housing. Through a partnership with the Home Loan Bank, the HRA will be able to rehabilitate affordable housing units in the communities it serves.

The Home Loan Bank's Affordable Housing Program grants provide the HRA an added opportunity to help northwest Minnesota families that need their homes to be rehabilitated. The funds will provide rehabilitation cost assistance to rural homeowners in the HRA's eight-county area. Those counties include Kittson, Marshall, Norman, Pennington, Polk (except the cities of Crookston and East Grand Forks), Red Lake, Roseau and Lake of the Woods.

The AHP is a catalyst for community development and positively impacts the quality of life of individuals and families residing in the five-state Des Moines district and beyond. The program strengthens communities, transforms neighborhoods and provides housing opportunities for low- to moderate-income families.

Income and program guidelines need to be met for those who wish to have their homes rehabilitated. For more information, call the HRA at (218) 637-2435 or e-mail tina@nwmnhra.org. The HRA Web site is www.nwmnhra.org.

Gatzke resident interns at NASA

John Polansky, a University of North Dakota mechanical engineering student from Gatzke, is participating in a federally-sponsored internship at NASA's Marshall Space Flight Center in Huntsville, Ala.

Polansky has spent this summer working in the Environmental Control Life Support Systems division of the center.

"My personal project involves Atmosphere Revitalization (conditioning air for humans to breathe) for future lunar-outpost applications," said Polansky. "I've also received up-close and hands-on looks at the development of new rockets and technologies for NASA's return to the moon and eventually to

KSRQ receives broadcasting grant

The Corporation for Public Broadcasting has accepted Pioneer 90.1 (KSRQ-FM) into its Radio Community Service Grant program. The renewable grant is projected to be $65,000, which is equivalent to about half of the station's budget.

"I think it's a validation of what we've been working toward for a long time," said Travis Ryder, Pioneer 90.1 station manager.

A maximum of 15 community radio stations were accepted into the grant program for fiscal year 2009. In order to receive the grant, the station had to meet legal, managerial, staffing and operational criteria. Under the terms of the grant, Pioneer 90.1 is required to acquire or produce national programming. At this point in time, Ryder said that the station will acquire national programming that meets the station's needs.

Ryder cited community support as the reason why the station received the grant. He said that the station continues to set records every time that it holds pledge drives. This year, the one-week Spring Pledge Drive raised an all-time high of $4,554.

Ryder also credited his boss, Stacey Hron, with helping ensure that the grant application was

SOUPÇON

Sherry LaCoursiere

Today's recipes are from the cookbook "A+ Recipes" from Challenger Elementary School in Thief River Falls. It is a collection of recipes from both students and staff members.

I thought I would check the pages of recipes to see which categories had the most donated recipes. Yes, I bet you guessed the most popular category correctly: Cookies and Bars. But you will be are surprised to learn that the second most popular category was breakfast and main dishes. I wish I could say it was vegetables, but ... Here are some recipes from both of the favorite categories:

One of the most popular categories in the main dish recipes was "pizza." Finding just one recipe among the many pizza-this and pizza-that dishes was not easy. I finally chose this recipe from Toni Sorteberg for something really easy that sounds yummy. And I'm sure the kids will love it, judging by how many kids seem to love the pizza taste in everything from meatloaf to tortillas:

FRENCH BREAD PIZZA
Toni Sorteberg

1 long French bread
1 large bag shredded mozzarella cheese
2 pounds hamburger
1 large can of pizza sauce

Cut French bread in half the long way. Brown hamburger and drain. Spread pizza sauce on both halves of the French bread, all the way to the ends. Sprinkle on hamburger and cheese. Bake at 350 degrees for 15 minutes or until cheese is melted. Slice and serve. (I would like to top these pizzas with a few favorites, like black olives, green pepper, and mushrooms -SL.)

We've got to have a salad with that pizza. This one sounds cool and refreshing and so easy to make:

WESTERN SALAD
Mercedes Briggs

2 cups diced red apples, unpeeled
1 cup chopped celery
6 slices of bacon
1/2 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing (or Western dressing)
Lettuce

Combine apple and celery. Fry bacon crisp and dice. Drain well and add to apple/celery mixture. Add dressing or mayonnaise. Serve on lettuce.

OK, we have a meal. Now let's do some cookies and bars. This one sounds like something I would like - wouldn't you?

DEATH BY CHOCOLATE
Mrs. Kathy Olson

1 box chocolate cake mix
1 package caramels
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup milk
1 cup chocolate chips
1 cup crushed nuts (optional)

Topping

1 package instant chocolate pudding
8 ounce container frozen whipped topping (thawed)
1 cup milk
Chocolate candy bar

Make chocolate cake according to package directions. Pour 1/2 of the batter into a prepared 9x12 inch cake pan. Bake 20 minutes at 350 degrees. Cool.

Melt caramels, 1/2 cup milk and butter. Pour over baked cake. Add chocolate chips and nuts. Add remainder of cake batter and bake for 20 minutes at 350 degrees.

For topping, mix pudding with milk and fold in whipped topping. Top with shavings or curls from the chocolate candy bar.

I haven't tried these bars, but they certainly sound good to me. I think I might be trying them soon:

CARAMEL BARS
Miranda Tunheim

Crust

3/4 cup melted butter
1 cup flour
1 cup oatmeal
1 teaspoon soda
3/4 cup brown sugar

Caramel

36 caramels
3 tablespoons milk
3 tablespoons butter

Topping:

16 ounce package chocolate chips
1/2 cup chopped pecans

For crust, mix 3/4 cup of melted butter with flour, oatmeal, soda and brown sugar. Place 3/4 of the mixture in greased 9x13 inch pan. Press down with a fork and bake at 350 degrees for 10 minutes.

To make caramel mixture, melt caramels, milk and butter in a double boiler. Pour over baked crust. Sprinkle with topping of chocolate chips and nuts. Bake 15 minutes more at 350 degrees.

One more delicious recipe from the Challenger cookbook. this is for some tasty cookies that have a melty filling of chocolate, peanuts and caramel. How good is that?

SNICKER COOKIES
Shania Haugen

1 cup white sugar
1 cup brown sugar
1 cup butter, softened
1 cup peanut butter
2 teaspoons vanilla
2 eggs, beaten
3 cups flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon soda
Bag of Snickers candy bar miniatures

Cream sugar, brown sugar, butter and peanut butter. Add vanilla and eggs. Mix.

Mix together the flour, baking powder and soda. Add to sugar and egg mixture, and mix well.

To form, wrap dough around each candy bar, forming a ball. Place on ungreased cookie sheet. Cookies will flatten as they bake. Bake at 350 degrees for 12-18 minutes or until golden. Makes 2 1/2 dozen cookies.

Thank You...

Thank you so much for your support for the benefit held in my honor. Maybe you came to my benefit, maybe you donated towards it, maybe it was just kind words in person, via e-mail or on my website, maybe it was just a prayer, maybe you helped create my quilt, organized the benefit, sold tickets, worked at the benefit, ran around getting donations or anything else too numerous to say. Any & all things you did are more appreciated than I can say

Thank You!

Single-family homes must now have carbon monoxide detectors

The second phase of Minnesota's carbon monoxide alarm law takes effect Aug. 1, making carbon monoxide (CO) detectors mandatory in single-family homes. Phase one of the law affected new construction and multi-family dwellings in 2007. Phase three will require CO alarms in existing multi-unit dwellings by August 2009.

The law says the property owner is responsible for providing all single-family dwellings with a minimum of one approved and fully operational CO alarm installed within 10 feet of each room used for sleeping. The State Fire Marshal Division says it is important to follow manufacturer's installation instructions.

"CO alarms need to be placed where the gas is easily detectable," said Chief Deputy Fire Marshal Bob Dahm. "Avoid dead air pockets, corners of the ceiling, and spots too near a wall or within a yard of an air vent."

A CO alarm produces an audible warning when CO concentrations are high enough to be a health concern. "Remember that your smoke alarms detect smoke, so they will not warn you about carbon monoxide, which can be present in the complete absence of smoke," Dahm said.

The CO alarm law was enacted in 2006, after carbon monoxide buildup from a propane boiler caused the death of a 17-year-old in North Branch.

For more on the carbon monoxide law, find "Carbon Monoxide" under "What's New" on the State Fire Marshal Web site at www.fire.state.mn.us. The Minnesota Department of Health offers further explanation and advice at www.health.state.mn.us; search "Carbon Monoxide." Questions may also be e-mailed to firecode@ state.mn.us.

Tri-Valley bus driver wins award at contest

Alan Altepeter, Tri-Valley Heartland Express, Crookston, placed third in the small bus division of the statewide bus roadeo on July 19 in Bemidji.

The annual event enables transit drivers to compete in the roadeo, share their expertise and learn together in a number of settings.

This year's roadeo drew the largest number of participants in its 21-year history. A total of 63 drivers competed in the event.

Additional participants included those who served as judges, led training sessions or provided administrative support.

The roadeo course simulates many of the driving situations that challenge operators' skills in the everyday performance of their jobs.

On the course, St. Cloud's Metro Bus drivers placed first and third in the large bus division and first and second in the small bus category.

St. Cloud's Dunne Dufner placed first; his co-worker Chuck Olmschenk placed third in the large bus category. Darrell Hanson, Twin Cities Metro Transit; took second.

David Peacock and Todd DeZurik, St. Cloud, earned the top two rankings in the small bus division. Alan Altepeter, Tri-Valley Heartland Express, Crookston, placed third.

Peacock will represent Minnesota next year at the national bus roadeo in Rhode Island.

The roadeo course simulates many of the driving situations that test the operators' skills in the everyday performance of their jobs.

The participants honored Bob Arnold, Paul Bunyan Transit, Bemidji, with the Drivers' Choice Award. They cited his professionalism, concern for his customers and community and the camaraderie he displayed during the competition.

"With strongly increasing passenger demand on transit systems, the bus roadeo will help operators continue to provide safe, efficient service as ridership continues to climb," said Mike Schadauer, transit director, Minnesota Department of Transportation.

"The event also reminds Minnesotans of transit's rule in their communities and an alternative to commuting to work or school by driving alone," he said.

PENNINGTON COUNTY

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to Section 5.2 of the Pennington County Shoreland Ordinance, that Mike Noel, 14431 177th St NE, Thief River Falls, MN 56701, has applied for a Variance to the provisions of Section 5.2 - which govern Placement, Design & Height of Structures. A hearing was held June 26, 2008, it was requested by the Board to reconvene after Mr. Noel gets information regarding his property boundaries and floodplain elevations.

Notice is further given, that the Board of Adjustment will conduct a Public Hearing on the Variance request contingent upon the official recording of the new property description. The Hearing will begin at 5:00 P.M. (CDST) on Wednesday, August 13, 2008 at the Pennington Soil and Water Conservation District (SWCD) Office, 201 Sherwood Ave. S, Thief River Falls, MN. An important anniversary

The unniversary of the Interstate 35W bridge collapse was observed on Friday, Aug. 1. The event in the Twin Cities included a prayer service and an outdoor memorial ceremony. Rather than feeling like it took place only a year ago, it seems much longer.

The loud crack that signaled the collapse that killed 13 and injured more than 100 was heard far beyond the Twin Cities. Although the cause of the collapse has not yet been determined, several investigations have been undertaken, and the results of these investigations have had a nationwide impact on bridge safety.

News about the incident and subsequent investigations have been ever present in the media. Widespread investigations were immediately ordered, and the event resulted in numerous changes in policies. In Minnesota alone, more than 4,000 bridges across the state have been inspected.

With this anniversary, there is no doubt in my mind that citizens, government officials, journalists and pundits will be asking whether bridges are safer today than a year ago. The simple and straightforward answer is no. Unlike many problems, this problem can only be solved by putting billions of dollars and a lot of political clout behind the effort to make our bridges safer. The American Society of Civil Engineers estimates that it would cost $9.4 billion a year for 20 years to eliminate all bridge deficiencies in the United States. Obviously, we cannot immediately solve all of the bridge deficiencies in one or two years.

Here in Minnesota, a new $234 million bridge is on track to open in its predecessor's place as early as September. The state pushed an aggressive timetable to replace the bridge, which was a critical link to northern Minneapolis and its suburbs. According to the Minnesota Department of Transportation, the I-35W bridge carried more than 140,000 vehicles a day, and the loss of the bridge has been costing $400,000 per day in lost revenue, increased commuter expenses and burden on surrounding roads. The collapse of the bridge affected not only road transportation but also river, rail and air transit.

The new bridge will be larger than its predecessor. Each side will have five lanes for a total of 10 lanes of traffic. The combined bridge width will be 189 feet. The previous bridge had eight lanes of traffic and was about 80 feet narrower.

According to the state, Flatiron Constructors, Inc. and Manson Construction Co., in a joint venture, are the main contractors on the new bridge. The contract requires completion by Christmas Eve 2008. But by finishing sooner, which the firms appear to be on track to do by a stretch, the builders can earn multimillion-dollar bonuses.

In the years to come, it is hoped that the momentum behind an effort to improve our infrastructure will continue, and include more options. This crisis brought forth an opportunity to do more than strengthen and widen bridges. Other solutions to transportation issues must be examined.

For more information about the bridge collapse, what Minnesota is doing and has accomplished, or to find more information about the new bridge, log onto www.dot.state.mn.us.

For all that has happened since the bridge collapse, we must not forget the victims. As Gov. Tim Pawlenty stated in his resolution: "The hearts and prayers of all Minnesotans continue to go out to the families of those who lost their lives. We pray for the recovery of the injured and ask all Minnesotans to help comfort the families and friends of the victims who are suffering unimaginable pain."

A community's quick thinking

To the Editor:

This week, there was an incident at the Roseau County Fair that ended up bringing together community members and state officials to solve a problem. Apparently, some cattle from the split state status zone ended up at the County Fair and required some quick thinking an how to ensure Minnesota's bovine tuberculosis rules stayed in place. I want to thank the Roseau County Fair Board and county officials, the Minnesota Board of Animal Health, and all the 4-H and non-4-H animal exhibitors for coming together and finding a solution that works for our community.

Obviously, bovine TB is not easy but we will make our way back to a bovine TB free status by doing just what we did as a community at the Roseau County Fair.

Sincerely,
State Rep. Dave Olin

Hwy. 11 resurfacing delayed to Aug. 4

A resurfacing project on two sections of Highway 11, which was scheduled to start July 28, has been delayed to Aug. 4, according to Shawn Groven, project engineer for the Minnesota Department of Transportation.

The first section will be from the east limits of Warroad to approximately three miles west of the city limits. The second section will be from the west city limits of Williams to approximately eight miles east of the city. Weather permitting, the project is expected to be completed by Sept. 5

Work will be done under traffic with the use of flaggers and a pilot car. Motorists need to prepare for lane closures and intermittent delays.

The project, a mill and overlay, will include resurfacing the shoulders and building in a turn lane at Williams.

Marshall County names Emerging Leaders for the class of 2009

Brian and Betsy Jensen of Stephen have been chosen as the Marshall County representatives to the Red River Valley Emerging Leadership Program. They, along with participants from 18 other counties in northwest and west-central Minnesota, will attend four educational sessions between November 2008 and April 2009. Brian and Betsy will be challenged to come back to their community to take a positive role as leaders in this region.

Brian and Betsy farm with Brian's parents and raise small grains, soybeans, dry beans and sugar beets. Betsy is a Farm Business Management instructor for Northland Community and Technical College.

Brian has a Bachelor of Science degree in agricultural economics and agronomy from North Dakota State University, and Betsy has a Bachelor of Science degree in agricultural economics from NDSU. They, along with their children, Conner and Holly, are members of First Lutheran Church in Stephen. The family is involved in many activities in the community.

The RRVELP was developed in 1985 by a small group of people who felt there was a need to help individuals develop their leadership potential. The program was founded on the idea that effective leadership can be learned and those leaders grow into positions of leadership, motivated by a sense of responsibility for themselves and their communities.

The RRVELP is a program of the Northwest Minnesota Foundation and the University of Minnesota Extension Service. Major financial contributions for the program come from the Red River Valley Development Association and the West Central Initiative. Additional donations come from numerous producer groups, agribusiness in the participating counties and alumni of the program.

A good sweat

I like a good sweat. I am never better than when I'm hot, miserable and sweaty. This week, I want to talk about the leading indicator of a job well done: Sweat.

There are several kinds of sweat, some better than others. Recreational sweat is beneficial, and tells me I'm doing some good for my body. I use a stopwatch to time myself at the gym, and don't really consider my workout begun until I sweat; then I'm on the clock. I think a good sweat benefits my endocrine system as it releases excess water and salt directly into the air. I have never hurt myself in the gym when I am sweating, either; I think perspiration is a great indicator that everything is warm and ready to work. Sweat also helps me focus because it rewards me with the knowledge that my body is changing and adapting to the workout. I would suggest that the best way to start sweating during a workout is to avoid talking. Talking leads to leaning on the exercise equipment, which leads to less exertion and no sweat, and no workout.

I think sauna sweat is probably a good thing, but perspiring in mixed company on cedar boards creeps me out. I do know some Finlanders who use a sauna, and they seem very healthy. I guess I'd rather earn my sweat and see a little cause and effect that begins with my own effort. Additionally, the only place I feel comfortable wearing a towel is in the safety of our own bathroom. However, if a sauna works for you, then great, just consult your doctor first.

Flop sweat is what occupies the rooms of a schoolhouse during final exams. It's the fear of failure that makes the body operate at top speed while it sits quietly awaiting the brain to perform its work. The excess heat and energy created is useful for running from a bear but does little for the predations of modern man.

Working sweat is the king of perspiration. There is no more honest sweat than that which bursts from the skin of a person at labor. Most portrayals of the "working man" show a physically perfect person passionately wiping sweat from his or her forehead while operating a jackhammer. The truth is that most working people are too busy for perfection and wear a cap with a sweatband. Work sweat pools in the eyebrows then forms tiny rivers that trace the nose and fall to the earth from sharp angles based upon the shape of your face. Work sweat demands separate clothes washing cycles, separate clothes hampers and sometimes even separate washing machines. If there's nothing more honest than a good day's work, it would follow that the sweat it creates should occupy the highest level of honor within its own genre.

In the end, one of the greatest benefits to a good sweat is saved for after the work that created it. This benefit has been covered in a previous column, but if I were to write about it again, I would call it "a good beer."

(Author's note: A frequent subject of this column is enjoying her birthday this weekend. Happy 101st Birthday Mother Wolseth!)

Some limited, approved haying or grazing allowed on CRP acreage

The Pennington County FSA Office is announcing that on May 27, 2008, FSA authorized certain acreage enrolled in the Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) to be available for Critical Feed Use (CFU) after the primary nesting season ends, which is Aug. 1 in Pennington County, and approval has been granted by the FSA County Office.

On July 8, 2008, a Federal judge granted a Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) regarding CFU halting access to hay and forage. On July 24, the Court issued a Final Injunction which allows:

- CRP participants who were approved before July 8, 2008, can begin haying or grazing of the approved acreage on Aug. 2, 2008.
- CRP participants who applied, but were not approved before July 8, 2008, can begin haying or grazing the "later" of Aug. 2 or when they receive approval from the FSA County Office.
- For all other CRP participants, no CFU applications are authorized unless the producer can provide documentary proof of investment of $4,500 toward haying or grazing equipment or preparation made prior to 5 p.m. (PST) on July 8, 2008; and declaration by the CRP participant that the continuation of the operation relies on the availability of CFU. These applications must be submitted to and approved by the FSA County Office "before" haying or grazing of CRP acreage can begin.

Under CFU, rental payments will not be reduced, but acres hayed or grazed will apply towards future managed haying or grazing. With respect to managed haying and grazing, this means that any CFU activity allowed by the court order will "restart the clock" for future managed haying or grazing, meaning that the activity will restart the cycle for managed haying and grazing and the next such managed haying and grazing cannot occur until the full cycle has been completed from the time of CFU.

Producers with questions concerning CFU or managed haying or grazing of CRP acreage should contact their local FSA County Office or the Pennington County FSA Office at 681-1612 ext. 2.

Guide tip of the week
Walleye fishing continues to be red hot fishing using Northland Roach rigs with a leech or a nite crawler. Fish these live bait rigs slow especially when marking fish on your electronics. This time of year spinners on your Roach Rigs are also a good added touch. And always use good healthy, strong swimming leeches for those finicky walleyes.

Keefe went from second to third when a pitch was mishandled at the plate, then scored on an errant throw to Thole. Thief River Falls lost 13-8.

Bandits win first district contest, 7-4

Thief River Falls started the 2008 Ninth District Division I American Legion baseball tournament on the right foot Wednesday with a 7-4 opening round win over Perham.

The seven-team, double-elimination tournament continues through today (Saturday) and Sunday, if needed, in Fergus Falls.

Perham beat Thief River Falls in the 2007 Ninth District finals.

Trailing 2-1, Post 117 took the lead on the strength of a three-run Cody Conners home run in the fourth inning.

The Buzz pulled even on a pinch-hit Tyler Lynn home run in the top of the seventh, but Thief River Falls regained the lead with a run in the bottom of the inning and iced it with a two-run eighth.

During the regular season, Legion teams generally play seven inning games. In the post-season the games are stretched to nine innings.

Nick Gagner was the winning pitcher. The loss went to Taylor Doll. Zach Sorenson and Sean Ranum with both 2-for-4 for the winners.

East Grand Forks edged Detroit Lakes 4-3 and Fergus Falls overcame an early 3-0 deficit to overwhelm Roseau 32-8 in the other Wednesday games.

Thief River Falls (North) and Moorhead (South) were the tournament's top seeds. The Blues received a first round bye since the North bracket was reduced to three teams this summer after Crookston folded its Legion program.

Monday, Bergeron decisioned Brenan Lyon of Michigan for the right to wrestle for third place. He collected the medal by beating Jake Schramm of Illinois.

In freestyle, Bergeron opened with Thursday wins over Jason Sipher of Indiana and Handbury.

Friday, he fell to Bill Hagany of New Jersey and Jade Rouser of Montana.

■ Fergus Falls rallies for second round district win

Host Fergus Falls used a five-run eighth inning to stun Thief River Falls 8-6 Thursday in the second round of Ninth District American Legion baseball tournament action.

Thief River Falls led 5-1 through seven innings, but a two-out error in the next frame opened the door for Fergus Falls.

With two out and nobody on base, Fergus Falls faced the prospects of coming to bat in the ninth trailing by four.

Instead, the error was followed by four hits and a walk to produce a 6-5 lead. Erik Rohlfs doubled in a pair of runs and Andy Lee came up with a bases-loaded triple.

Fergus Falls added two insurance runs in the ninth – enough to offset a Thief River Falls score in the Bandits' last at-bat.

Matt Duenow was 3-for-4; Rohlfs had a 3-for-5 game with two doubles and three RBI; and Matt Mithaugen homered for the winners. Zach Sorenson and Nick Gagner had 3-for-4 games for the Bandits, who swept Fergus Falls 11-7, 9-7 in a July 18 twinbill at the Multi-Events Center.

Pennington SWCD asks, "What's in your water?"

A Well Water Testing Clinic, sponsored by the Pennington Soil and Water Conservation District, will be held this month.

Homeowners who want their private well water tested for nitrates, E. coli and total coliform bacteria may pick up sample bottles at the SWCD office, Monday, Aug. 11 through Thursday, Aug. 14 between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Pennington SWCD is located at 201 Sherwood Ave. S. Thief River Falls. The office is located behind Kmart.

The samples must be returned to the Pennington SWCD office before 1 p.m. Friday, Aug. 15. They will then be sent to a certified lab for analysis. Samples must be collected Friday morning to ensure reliable results. It is recommended that the sample is taken just before bringing it to the SWCD. Pennington SWCD will pay 50 percent of the cost; homeowners are responsible for paying $10. Due to a limited number of bottles, the bottles will be handed out on a first-come first-serve basis.

The Minnesota Department of Health recommends that private wells be tested once a year for total coliform bacteria. To detect possible problems with bacterial contamination, health officials rely on a test for total coliform bacteria. This test detects a broad group of bacteria that are used as a general indicator of possible contamination problems – even though they don't usually cause disease themselves. Coliform bacteria are present in the wastes of warm-blooded animals and found in the soil but usually not more than a few feet below the soil surface. When they're detected in well water, it means that surface contamination may have entered the well. It also means that disease organisms – from human or animal waste – may be present.

Nitrate tests are recommended every two or three years, and more often if nitrate has been detected previously in the well, or if an infant under the age of 6 months will be consuming the water. Nitrate in wells is a health concern primarily for young infants in whom the nitrate can be converted into nitrite in the digestive tract. The nitrite then interferes with the ability of the baby's blood to carry oxygen, resulting in methemoglobinemia or "blue baby syndrome." If levels of nitrate exceed the current health limit of 10 milligrams per liter (as nitrogen), infants under 6 months should not consume the water. Nitrate contamination can be the result of agricultural runoff, improper use of fertilizers or failing septic systems.

Pennington SWCD sponsors well testing clinics with discounted prices each year. However, sample bottles are available at full price year-round. Other tests that can be performed are lead, iron and hardness analysis.

For more information, contact Rechelle Winter, water plan coordinator, at (218) 683-7075.

Buy-in waiver under way in new Farm Bill

The Pennington County Farm Service Agency Office will allow producers who would otherwise be ineligible for new disaster assistance programs to become eligible by paying a fee as required by the Food, Conservation, and Energy Act of 2008. This bill is also known as the 2008 Farm Bill.

The 2008 Farm Bill requires producers who wish to participate in the new disaster programs to have crop insurance or non-insured crop disaster assistance (NAP) coverage for the land for which assistance is being requested, and for all farms in all counties in which they have an interest. Since the 2008 Farm Bill was enacted after the application periods had closed for those programs, producers who did not have such coverage could not comply with this requirement in order to be eligible for the new disaster programs. However, the 2008 Farm Bill authorizes a waiver that allows producers to pay a fee, called a "buy-in" fee to be eligible for this new disaster assistance.

Every producer whose crops, including grazing lands, are not fully covered by crop insurance or NAP may take advantage of this one-time opportunity. The buy-in fee is due no later than September 16, 2008, 90 days after enactment, as required by the 2008 Farm Bill. Those who miss this opportunity will not be eligible for disaster assistance. Producers are also reminded that the payment of the applicable buy-in fee does not afford the producer crop insurance or NAP coverage; it only affords eligibility for the 2008 disaster programs.

The crop insurance and NAP coverage requirements will be waived in 2008 for producers who did not obtain crop insurance or NAP coverage by the applicable sales closing dates, if the producer files an application for waiver and pays a buy-in fee in the amount equal to the 2008 applicable NAP coverage or catastrophic risk protection plan (CAT) fee for the crop or grazing lands.

Producers who meet the definition of "Socially Disadvantage, Limited Resource," or "Beginning Farmer or Rancher," do not have to meet the Risk Management Purchase Requirement, and, therefore, are not required to pay the buy-in fee.

The buy-in fee for 2008 eligibility only for either the CAT or NAP is $100 per crop, but not more than $300 per producer per administrative county, or $900 total per producer for all counties less any previous paid fees for CAT and/or NAP. Producers can contact their local administrative FSA County Office to file the application for waiver and pay the applicable fees.

The applicable buy-in form must be completed and applicable fees paid by September 16, 2008. Payment of the application fees will allow the producer to be eligible for benefits for losses under Supplemental Revenue Assistance Payments (SURE) Program, Livestock Forage Disaster Program (LFP), Tree Assistance Program (TAP), and Emergency Assistance Livestock, Honeybees and Farm-Raised Fish Program (ELAP).

The 2008 Farm Bill authorizes funds to be used to make payment to farmers and ranchers incurring eligible crop productivity/quality losses under the SURE Program, grazing losses under LFP, livestock death losses under LIP, and losses suffered by producers of livestock, honeybees, and farm-raised fish under ELAP. The 2008 Farm Bill also authorizes TAP.

To be eligible for SURE, TAP and ELAP, producers must meet the Risk Management Purchase Requirement by purchasing at the CAT level crop insurance for all insurable crops and/or NAP coverage for non-insurable crops. To be eligible for LFP, producers must meet the Risk Management Purchase Requirement by purchasing or obtaining for the grazing land incurring losses where assistance is being requested, a policy or plan of insurance under the Federal Crop Insurance Act, including pilot programs such as Pasture, Rangeland, Forage Program (PRF) or NAP coverage by filing the required paperwork and paying the administrative fee by the applicable State filing deadline. The Risk Management Purchase Requirement does not apply to LIP.

The SURE Program will be available to eligible producers on farms in disaster counties, designated by the secretary, including contiguous counties that have incurred crop production losses and/or crop quality losses during the crop year. However, Congress determined that payments would not occur until the calculation at the end of the marketing year. It also will be available to any farm where, during the calendar year, the total loss of production on the farm, because of weather, is greater than 50 percent of the normal production of the farm.

The LFP program will be available to eligible livestock producers who suffered grazing losses for eligible livestock because of drought on land that is either native or improved pastureland with permanent vegetative cover or planted to a crop specifically for providing grazing.

The LIP program will be available to eligible livestock producers on farms that have incurred livestock death losses in excess of normal mortality, because of adverse weather, as determined by the secretary during the calendar year, including losses because of hurricanes, floods, blizzards, disease, wildfires, extreme heat and extreme cold.

The ELAP program will provide emergency relief to producers of livestock, honey bees and farm-raised fish, because of losses from adverse weather or other conditions, such as blizzards and wildfires, as determined by the secretary.

Producers with questions concerning the buy-in waiver for supplemental agricultural disaster assistance program requirements should contact their local FSA County Office or the Pennington County FSA Office at 681-1612 ext. 2. Information is also available on the Web at FSA's Web site (www.fsa.usda.gov).

KEM Shriners motor units participated in the Marshall County Fair parade in Warren Wednesday evening. The parade marked the start of the Marshall County Fair, which runs through the weekend.

Passport cards

technology, DHS' U.S. Customs and Border Protection officers will be able to access photographs and other biographical information stored in secure government databases before the traveler reaches the inspection booth so that inspection can be facilitated. For privacy protection, no personal information is stored in the electronic chip itself. The chip will have only a unique number pointing to a stored record contained in secure government databases.

"We are pleased to offer Americans a choice of documents, the traditional passport book, and now the passport card, to meet their personal needs for international travel," said Assistant Secretary of State for Consular Affairs Janice L. Jacobs. "The passport card is the newest addition to the Department's long history of providing secure, reliable services to the American traveling public."

"We have been working closely with the U.S. Department of State to be able to provide another type of secure identification that is vital to protecting our nation's borders," said Homeland Security Assistant Secretary for Policy Stewart Baker. "The new passport cards will help facilitate legitimate travel while allowing our front line personnel to focus more on those who may pose a threat."

The Passport Card is available for $45 for first-time adult applicants and $35 for children under 16. Adults who currently have valid passports can apply for the passport card by mail for $20.

For information on how to apply for a U.S. Passport Card or the traditional passport book, please visit www.travel.state.gov.

Demand for cards

Since Feb. 1, when the government started taking applications, about 20 percent of all applications at the Pennington County Recorder's officer are for the new passport card. County Recorder Ken Schmalz said the card appears to be popular among truckers and fishermen.

Applications can be obtained at the Recorder's office. Schmalz said the applications for a passport and a passport card are identical. The passport card does not require any additional information. A person may also have both a passport and a passport card. Schmalz said some people have both for the convenience of the card, especially if they cross the border with Canada frequently.

Travel agency

Al Walseth of Bergan Travel in Thief River Falls said his office just received some information about the new passport card. At this time, he said, no clients have requested the passport cards. They have inquired about the cards because they've heard so much about it, but they haven't requested it, yet.

Walseth said travel in the region has been very good. The downturn in the economy and high fuel prices haven't seemed to have had an impact on the region. Walseth credits the difference to the economy of northwestern Minnesota, which includes a large number of stable manufacturing businesses, as well as agriculture. "Our economic situation appears to be totally different," he said.

Walseth said he believes the new passport card will be good for travelers in northwestern Minnesota, especially families that cross the border frequently.

Walseth has some tours to Canada planned in the near future. Most of the clients have passports, but some still rely on birth certificates. Birth certificates can still be used until June of 2009.

It's not difficult or too time-consuming to get a passport. Walseth said the processing delays reported earlier in the year have disappeared. Processing of applications for passports is very fast, he said.

Officials, however, still report that processing takes around four weeks.

accepted. Hron serves as the director of technology at Northland Community and Technical College.

Last week, NCTC hired Ben Kosharek to serve as the full-time morning host/operations director at Pioneer 90.1. Kosharek formerly served as morning host. In his new position, he will be responsible for some day-to-day station operations and volunteer relations. Kosharek's hiring marks the first time in the station's 37-year history that it has had two full-time employees devoted to station operations.

Dan Steele and Glen Braget have also been appointed to part-time intermittent jobs with the station. Howard Brockhouse and Milo Ballingrud were recently retained as underwriting sales contractors.

In the future, it is expected that the station's Community Advisory Board will be reorganized to include more input from throughout the community. In addition, it is expected that NCTC's mass communications program will be reborn as the new media program in fall 2009. Currently in preliminary development, the program is expected to integrate radio and TV with web design, podcasting, online video and other cutting-edge techniques.

Mars."

Polansky said he's had the opportunity to be within arm's reach of the space orbiter Atlantis at the Kennedy Space Center in Florida. He has also been able to watch astronauts practice "extra-vehicular activity" in the Neutral Buoyancy Tank at the Johnson Space Center in Houston. He also toured SpaceX, a private Los Angeles-based company building rockets for orbital missions.

"I believe that this internship will prove to be incredibly valuable for my future," said Polansky. "It is giving me hands-on NASA research experiences while also allowing me to make important contacts."

Polansky faced some competition for the internship. "When they apply, they are competing with students from all over the United States. These are the cream of the cream, and we have been fortunate in North Dakota that we have had a student accepted every year," said North Dakota Space Grant Consortium Deputy Director Suezette Bieri.

This year, North Dakota universities actually had three students, including Polansky, selected for elite federal internships. The others are from North Dakota State University in Fargo.

While at UND, Polansky held research fellowships that allowed him to work on an innovative new Mars space suit and a space-flight simulator. He's been accepted into the master's and doctoral programs at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles.

Participeting in tha Marshall County Feir parade on Wednesday were tha Kam Shrinars Mobil Nobles. The parede marked the start of the Mershell County Falr, which runs through tha weekend.

Our "Nashville Star"

Hewitt and the other "Nashville Star" contestants stayed at the Opryland Hotel, where they were literally shut off from the outside world – no Internet and no phone calls.

For Hewitt, that meant not talking on the phone with her family for close to two months. That changed briefly in the season's fourth episode, when her parents, Jim and Kelli, and most of her 12 siblings made a surprise visit to Nashville for the filming of the "Nashville Star" family week episode.

"Not being able to talk to them was very hard, so I ended up confiding in the other contestants," Hewitt said. "None of us could talk to our families, so we confided in each other."

Hewitt said the contestants grew closer as the weeks went by. Hewitt became closest with Mayer and she is pulling for Mayer to win Monday's season finale. She said Mayer was the one who stayed the most humble and down to earth during the competition.

Hewitt also developed a friendship with fellow Minnesota native Alyson Gilbert. "Alyson left the competition really early, and she didn't really get a chance to be herself," Hewitt said.

The competition itself was a continuous grind for the contestants. After the show taping concluded each Monday, contestants would choose their song for the following week. The list of choices was limited to songs that were copyrighted and approved for use by the artist who owns the copyright.

"A lot of songs that are on the list are common popular songs, but they don't have a lot of range," Hewitt said. "Part of the challenge, was finding the right song and making it interesting."

Contestants would spend Tuesday meeting with their assigned mentor to discuss their song selection for the following week's show. For Hewitt, this meant working with singer-songwriter and acclaimed producer John Rich of the group Big & Rich.

Hewitt said she enjoyed working with Rich, who was complimentary of her songwriting ability and her ability to take songs and perform them as her own.

Other contestants did not have the same rapport with Rich. That was the case with Mayer, who eventually fired Rich as her mentor and began working with award-winning songwriter and producer Jeffrey Steele. Hewitt said the mentors came across as cruel at times, but their true intention was to make each contestant get better.

Contestants typically spent their Wednesdays in sound check. Thursdays were spent making radio appearances on an XM radio station dedicated to "Nashville Star." Friday was press day and Saturday was basically a day off. On Sunday the contestants would return to the stage in final preparation for Monday's show.

Hewitt is pleased with her fifth place finish and she believes that it may benefit her more in the long run.

"I think it definitely is [a blessing], because once you get labeled as a "Nashville Star" winner, you get a bad contract and they pretty much own you the rest of your life," Hewitt said.

"If you win, you have to get busy and promote yourself," she added. "For me, I have a lot at my fingertips right now."

Hewitt uses 2003 "Nashville Star" finalist Miranda Lambert as inspiration. Lambert finished third that season and was signed by Epic Records a short time later.

Hewitt has stayed busy since she was eliminated from Nasvhille Star. Last week, she performed at her own welcome home event that doubled as a benefit for her former boss Tracey Brewer. The next day, she performed three times at three different sites in northwest Minnesota. This week she performed a concert each day in a different northwest Minnesota city, before heading back to Nashville on Friday for the season finale of "Nashville Star."

By making it to the show's seventh week, Hewitt was able to perform one of her original songs, "Mike's Hard Lemonade."

"I'm really glad I made it to that night," Hewitt said. "That really opened some doors for me."

Hewitt will return to northwest Minnesota for additional performances later this summer. She is booked for an Aug. 23 performance in Grygla for Fall Fest, where she will also participate in the parade and sing the national anthem during the Fall Fest Demolition Derby. Hewitt will also perform for the fifth time in five years at Kickin' Up Kountry Labor Day weekend in Thief River Falls.

Lindgren files for MN House of Representatives

Promising to fight for the values and interests of his community, Doug Lindgren of Bagley officially filed his candidacy to represent District 2B in the Minnesota House of Representatives.

"I've received a very encouraging, positive response as I've talked with people in our communities," said Lindgren. "We have a lot of issues that need a new, more positive outlook. Working in our community my entire life and the two years I have already spent at the State Capital has given me an understanding about how to address many issues in a way that will make our communities stronger."

Lindgren added, "It appears that there is going to be a $2 billion deficit, so it is going to be a difficult session again. Five years ago when I was elected to the House of Representatives, I helped to resolve the $4.5 billon deficit, so I have the experience in what has to be done."

Warren - "Davidson Construction of Newfolden was awarded the contract for utilities and street reconstruction on South Fifth and Sixth streets by the Warren City Council at its meeting July 29.

"Davidson, which has done other construction projects in the city of Warren, submitted the low bid among the seven qualified bids turned in by contracting firms. Davidson's total bid was $763,526.22 on the project, which includes replacing water and sanitary sewer facilities in the area and installing new curb, gutter and street asphalt surfacing on the two streets, plus Carla's Drive, the short connecting street at the south end of Fifth and Sixth streets." - Warren Sheaf, Aug. 6, 2008

Brekke nemed Honorary Chalrperson

McIntash - "The 2008 East Polk County Relay for Life Honorary Chairperson, Val Brekke, is a three-time survivor of non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma. First diagnosed in 1997, she subsequently fought two more times against the disease in 1999 and 2006. Like many who participated in the event Friday, Aug. 8, her story exemplifies courage and resolve."

"It was her brother-in-law who first pointed out a lump that had developed on Val's neck in 1997. Subsequent trips to the doctor eventually led to surgery in Grand Forks, N.D. The lump was removed, but the test results wouldn't come until a week later.

"During the long wait, Val's husband, Wesley, carried a secret. After the procedure was completed on Wesley's wife, the surgeon eluded to Wesley what the outcome would be – the test results on the lump would most likely show positive for malignant cancer.

"The phone call to the Brekkes' home a week later confirmed that reality." - The Thirteen Towns, Aug. 5, 2008, by Dan Kindall

"Leadfoot" Lanny's Dakota Cruise swings through NW Minnesota

Slow ride

Street Road group takes it easy on ride through NW Minnesota

by David Hill
Editor

They didn't roar into town, or race into town for that matter. Despite their racy looks, the 34 cars and drivers participating in "Leadfoot" Lanny's 6th Annual Dakota Cruise, flowed smoothly into Thief River Falls on Wednesday, Aug. 6. The pace and look of the parade, however, broke filters in place since the 1970s, and the song "Slow Ride Take It Easy" by Foghat seemed to burst forth. Older generations might have found themselves thinking of different tunes, but there it was, a slow ride of powerful cars taking it easy. It fit for me.

To be clear, there was no music, only the powerful thrum of engines behind the chrome and flashy paint schemes. The spectacle, however, well ... it sang a tune.

"We're in no hurry," said Lanny "Leadfoot" Moore. He assured spectators that they kept their pace on the highway at 55 miles per hour.

Moore said the five-day drive around the region consists of driving from car club to car club or car shop to car show, like CarQuest in Thief River Falls where volunteers with the Street Wizards and Prairie Schooners were waiting Wednesday morning to serve up a hearty breakfast.

BWSR evaluates Watershed Dist.

BWSR undertakes first ever evaluation of a Watershed

The Minnesota Board of Water and Soil Resources presented an evaluation of the Middle-Snake-Tamarac Rivers Watershed District at the district's regular board meeting Monday, Aug. 4. This first-of-its-kind evaluation was conducted through BWSR's Performance Review and Assistance Program, a new program passed by the 2007 Legislature and signed into law by Gov. Tim Pawlenty.

"The Middle-Snake-Tamarac Rivers Watershed District has been performing at a high level by undertaking projects that reduce flood damage and improve water quality," said John Jaschke, BWSR executive director. "The goal of this evaluation is to provide guidance to local leaders and community residents to ensure that the district continues to effectively carry out its mission and goals."

The report was presented to the MSTRWD Board of Managers by Don Buckhout, BWSR Performance Review and Assistance Program coordinator. Buckhout noted only one significant deficiency in the report: The district's management plan is out of date. And while the MSTRWD board initiated a management plan update in November 2007, Buckhout said that addressing current internal conflict is important to the district's future success.

"The fact that this Board of Managers and staff have been able to carry out their responsibilities with efficiency and effectiveness under these circumstances shows professionalism and dedication," said Buckhout. "However, BWSR is looking for assurances that this organization will be able to maintain its effectiveness and overcome the internal conflicts."

Traditionally, BWSR staff and managers have provided technical support, training, dispute resolution, grant program administration and other services to local units of government that have water management responsibilities. These new evaluations are another tool that BWSR will use to help organizations by focusing on the organization as a whole and identifying any barriers that could prevent the organization from achieving their locally established goals for reducing flood damage, improviag water quality and enhancing wildlife habitat.

This evaluation was requested by the Marshall County Board of Commissioners, which is the largest county in the district's area. The Marshall County Board appoints six of the watershed district's seven board members, and the seventh is appointed by the Polk County Board of Commissioners. The watershed district also covers small parts of Kittson, Pennington and Roseau counties.

Recent data about the district's operation and management is available as a result of other evaluations,

Music is a family affair

Music is a family affair for the Kimballs in Oklee

by April Schelnoha
Reporter

About eight years ago, John Kimball began building his own home in rural Oklee. The bathroom was finished first. The recording studio was finished second.

Growing up, John didn't realize the impact that music would have on his life. As a child growing up in the suburbs of Washington, D.C., he was forced to take piano lessons. He would have preferred to play baseball or do something else. Instead, he soldiered on and continued to take piano lessons.

John's life changed when he was in the sixth grade. A school play, based on the music from "Grease," led to an encounter with Daryl Davis. Daryl accompanied the students as they sang. Similar to Chuck Berry, Daryl played electric guitar behind his head and played piano behind his back. John wanted to be like Daryl.

"It just opened my eyes," said John, who soon started playing music by ear because he didn't have the music for the school play. It didn't take long for John to play the music when Daryl was gone from play practice.

"Ever since then, music has been natural to me. I can hear songs and play songs quickly," John said.

John soon quit piano lessons because he didn't want to play classical music. He wanted to play rock 'n' roll music and country music.

Guitar was added to his repertoire when he was about 16. At that time, John, who also sings, started playing bluegrass music with his high school friends. His college years were also spent playing music with some friends. From there, he became interested in the Texas style of country music.

In 1981, John moved to Oklee. It's the hometown of his mother, Lyla (Rustan) Kimball. John has lived in Oklee off and on since that time. Over the years, he mostly spent winters in Austin, Texas, with other singers and musicians.

Recording his own music

In the mid-1980s, John began recording his original music with open reel tapes owned by his dad, who is also named John. He then graduated to cassettes. As John put it, he didn't polish his recording expertise until 1995, when he finished "Out in the Cold." He recorded the cassette in Oklee, Potomac, Md.; and Austin, Texas. John later transferred the music to a CD once his recording studio, JKW Studios, was finished around 2002.

JKW Studios is actually one room on the second floor of the home that John shares with his wife, Tanya. The studio's walls are insulated and covered with fabric to deaden sounds. Despite those precautions, the house needs to be quiet while John is recording. "The microphones are really sensitive, and that's another reason the sound quality is so good," said John, who noted his mics can literally record a pin dropping on a hardwood floor.

It was at JKW Studios that John recorded his first CD, "Been in the Heartland." The CD features vocals by Tanya, Susan Lee and Maggie Carlson. Like "Out in the Cold," it

SOUPÇON

Sherry LaCoursiere
email: lacours@mncable.net

These recipes are all about eating light and quick meals - with one quick dessert that is oh, so good (but I wouldn't call it "light eating):

I have everything I need for this salad right in my kitchen this very moment. Am I not lucky? It will be a great summer Sunday supper:

POTATO ROAST BEEF SALAD
Eva Kryzanowski
Beaumont, Alberta, Canada

1 pound thinly sliced deli roast beef
3 medium red potatoes, cooked and thinly sliced
1 small onion, thinly sliced and separated into rings
1 small cucumber, diced
1/2 cup sliced ripe olives
2 teaspoons minced chives
2 teaspoons minced fresh parsley
1/2 teaspoon coarsely ground pepper, divided
1/4 cup vegetable oil
2 tablespoons red wine or cider vinegar
1/4 teaspoon dill weed
1/4 teaspoon salt

Arrange beef, potatoes and onion on large platter. Sprinkle with cucumber, olives, chives, parsley and 1/4 teaspoon pepper. Cover and refrigerate 8 hours or overnight.

In a bowl, whisk the oil, vinegar, dill, salt and remaining pepper. Pour over salad just before serving. Recipe serves 6.

If you should want something more substantial for supper, and your family is sick of the same-old grilled burgers, try these. You can cook them any way you like and even serve them in tortilla shells:

MEXICAN BEEF BURGERS
Stanny Barta
Pisek, N.D.

2 eggs, beaten
2 cans (4 ounces each) chopped green chilies
1/4 cup finely minced onion
1/3 cup salsa
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 garlic clove, minced
3/4 cup finely crushed corn chips
2 pounds ground beef
8 flour tortillas (10 inches), warmed

Toppings
Chopped tomatoes
Ripe olives
Shredded cheddar cheese
Shredded lettuce
Salsa
Sour cream

In large bowl, combine eggs, chilies, onion, salsa, salt, pepper and garlic. Add chips and beef and mix well.

Shape into 8 patties. Pan fry, grill or broil until no longer pink. Wrap burgers and desired toppings in tortillas (or serve on buns, if you wish).

There's nothing wrong with a leaner potato salad in the summer, and you'll love this one - it's full of great veggies that are filled with vitamins for your family. This recipe serves a bunch, so you might want to half it for your family. There's nutritional information with this one, too:

SALLY'S POTATO SALAD
Sally Burek
Fenton, Mich.

6 medium red potatoes, cubed
1 1/2 cups chopped celery
1 1/2 cups fresh broccoli florets
3/4 cup fresh green beans, blanched
1/2 cup fresh cauliflowerets
1/2 cup sweet red pepper, cut into thin strips
1/4 cup fat free Italian salad dressing
1/2 cup low fat mayonnaise
1 teaspoons fat free dry ranch salad dressing mix
1/4 teaspoon pepper

Cook potatoes in boiling water until tender. In large bowl, combine celery, broccoli, beans, cauliflower, red pepper and Italian dressing.

Drain potatoes and add to vegetable mixture.

Combine mayonnaise, salad dressing mixture and pepper. Pour over vegetable mixture and toss. Cover and chill at least 2 hours.

Recipes serves 16.

Nutritional Info: One half-cup serving equals 37 calories, 75 mg sodium, 2 mg chol, 4 gm carb, 1 gm protein, 2 gm fat. Diabetic Exchange is 1 vegetable, 1/2 fat.

Time for dessert. I love new brownie recipes - some are great - some are not so great - some are dry - some are moist. It doesn't matter though, because, after all, who doesn't like brownies?

These are quick to make and really chocolatety. Becky says the recipe is from her husband's grandmother. It is a lot like my favorite "One Bowl Brownies." By the way, a secret for mixing brownies is to not overmix (don't even bother with a mixer - it's good exercise for the old arms) and don't overbake:

FUDGE BROWNIES
Becky Albright
Norwalk, Ohio

1 1/3 cups flour
2 cups sugar
3/4 cup cocoa
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup chopped nuts
2/3 cup oil
4 eggs, slightly beaten
2 teaspoons vanilla

Combine flour, sugar, cocoa, baking powder, salt and nuts. Set aside.

Combine oil, eggs and vanilla and add to dry ingredients. Do not overmix.

Spread in greased and lightly floured 9x13 inch pan. Bake 20-25 minutes at 350 degrees until brownies pull away from sides of pan. They may appear a little moist in the middle, but they will continue to bake a bit after removing from oven.

Felony theft charges pending after man withdraws $9,000

A St. Paul man has charges pending after he allegedly walked into a Plummer bank and withdrew $9,000 from another man's account.

The Red Lake County Sheriff's Office, and several other Minnesota, North Dakota and federal law enforcement agencies are working together to bring several felony theft-related charges against Benjamin O'Neal Fondem, 41.

Fondem was later arrested in St. Paul. He is currently being held at a Twin Cities-area jail, according to the sheriff's office.

Fondem allegedly went to Access Bank in Plummer at about 2:55 p.m. Wednesday, according to the sheriff's office. He withdrew approximately $9,000 from a bank account – $4,000 was taken in cash and the other $5,000 was given as a cashier's check. Fondem allegedly used a valid account number and showed the teller identification, which matched the account.

Fondem left the bank with the money, then attempted to cash the cashier's check at a Grand Forks, N.D., bank later that afternoon. Bank security alerts prompted a teller at the Grand Forks bank to deny him cash for the check. That bank then contacted Access Bank in Plummer and advised Access Bank about this possible fraudulent activity.

The sheriff's office then began an investigation and determined that the account belonged to a Champlin man.

Several deadlines for 2008 Farm Bill are announced

The Pennington County FSA Office wants to remind producers of some important upcoming deadlines for the 2008 Farm Bill.

Aug. 15, 2008, is the deadline to timely file on acreage report for the 2008-crop year. Annual acreage reports are required to be eligible to earn benefits, if applicable, for the following programs administered by FSA: 2008 Direct and Counter-Cyclical Program (DCP), Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) annual rental payments, LDP's, Marketing Assistance Loans, Noninsured Crop Disaster Assistance Program (NAP), Crop Disaster Program, Supplemental Revenue Assistance Payments Program, Livestock Forage Disaster Program, and any other FSA program requiring an annual acreage report.

Acreage reports filed after Aug. 15, 2008, will be considered late-filed. Late-filed acreage reports can be accepted if the producer pays the cost of a farm visit to verify physical evidence of the crop and also the cost to verify and determine the crop acreage. The minimum late-filed fee is $54 per farm.

Sept. 16, 2008, is the deadline to pay the "buy-in" fee to become eligible for potential benefits for the 2008-crop year under the Supplemental Revenue Assistance Payments Program, the Livestock Forage Disaster Program, and the Emergency Assistance Livestock, Honeybees, and Farm-Raised Fish Program. These programs are part of the permanent disaster program included in the 2008 Farm Bill. Every producer whose crops, including grazing lands, are not fully covered by crop insurance or NAP, may take advantage of this "buy-in" fee opportunity.

Producers are also reminded that the payment of the applicable "buy-in" fee does not afford the producer crop insurance or NAP coverage; it only provides eligibility for the 2008 disaster programs.

Sept. 30, 2008, is the deadline to enroll in the 2008 Direct and Counter-Cyclical Program (DCP). DCP payments are computed using the base acres and payment yields established for each farm. Eligible producers receive direct payment at rates established by statute regardless of market prices. For 2008, eligible producers may request to receive an advance payment of 22 percent of the direct payment for each commodity associated with the farm. Final direct payments will be issued after Oct. 1, 2008.

Dec. 1, 2008, is the extended deadline to purchase Noninsured Crop Disaster Assistance Program (NAP) coverage for NAP coverage that had an application deadline prior to Dec. 1, 2008. NAP coverage is required for all crops for which crop insurance is not available in order to be eligible for 2009 disaster programs.

Since crop insurance or NAP coverage is required for all crops, including grazing lands, in order to be eligible for 2009 disaster programs producers should be checking with their crop insurance agent to see if crop insurance is available and what the application deadline is for the crops they raise or plan to raise in 2009.

Producers with questions concerning these deadlines and/or programs should contact their local FSA County Office or the Pennington County FSA Office at 681-1612, ext. 2, before the applicable deadlines.

Good laws, but more could be done

Several new laws went into effect on Aug. 1. Among those new laws, were two that spoke to motorists - driving while texting, and graduated licenses for teen drivers.

Driver distraction has been a major concern for many years. In fact, it's one of the leading contributing factors in serious car crashes. The list of distractions, however, continues to grow. Consider this short list - eating, drinking, radios, cell phones, passengers, newspapers, books and make-up. During the 2008 legislative session in Minnesota, legislators took aim at one they don't want to see happening behind the wheel - texting.

I can't imagine how texting can be done while driving, however, I have witnessed how fast my nieces and their friends can text. It's absolutely amazing how fast they can text. I've seen them do it while walking down the street. I've seen them doing it while riding bikes. Nevertheless, it's an absorbing task that shouldn't be done while driving any vehicle. Common sense would tell most people that you can't text and drive at the same time, but apparently it's sometimes necessary to legislate common sense.

The focus appears to be on young drivers, but the law applies to individuals of all ages. I suspect that the bias exists because in many minds, people believe those who do text are young. The rest of us may feel or experience the other side of the coin because we're too old to learn anything new.

Another good law that went into effect on Aug 1 is the graduated license requirements. The law requires that during the first six months of provisional licensure, a licensee cannot operate a vehicle carrying more than one passenger under the age of 20 who is not a member of his or her immediate family. That increases to three passengers the following six months. Also during the first six months of provisional licensure, a person under age 18 is prohibited from driving between midnight and 5 a.m., except when the driver is going between the person's home and job or school event where no transportation is provided; the driver is driving due to a job; or the driver is accompanied by a licensed driver or state identification card holder who is at least age 25.

Research shows that the most strict and comprehensive graduated driver licensing systems are associated with reductions of 38 percent and 40 percent in fatal and non-fatal injury crashes, respectively, of 16-year-old drivers.

As local law enforcement officials said, the law makes sense, and it'll save lives. Local officers, however, are a bit perplexed by what wasn't approved: A new seat belt law. Not only would a seat belt law save lives, it might be easier to enforce.

LETTERS

To the Editor:

Countrymen, this is in regards to the "TB situation" at the recent Roseau County Fair. IT FELT MORE LIKE BEING HELD HOSTAGE than a mere "situation."

What should have been a positive, enjoyable experience in the lives of 4-H youth, became a 24-hour nightmare. Our son, Marcus, had 4-H livestock at the fair, including barrow and gilt in the swine division; a dairy calf, which he leases from the neighbors; chickens; ducks; guineas; and turkeys. Many other youth and families also had their best animals at the fair. All rules had been followed! All animals at the show had tested negative for TB within the required 60 days of the start of the exhibition. Everything was going as planned … NOT!

On Thursday, July 24, after the dairy show (about noon), news spread through the barns that a state veterinarian, a representative of the Minnesota Board of Animal Health, had found a glitch in the TB testing rules. None of the animals could leave, and they would all go to slaughter! WHAT A CRUEL, IDIOTIC THING TO SAY TO YOUTHS AND THEIR FAMILIES!

I am not sure where the line would have been drawn; all dairy, beef, goats and sheep had to have been tested to come to the fair. We felt that we had all been kicked in the guts! How do we answer our kids, when we are struggling with this absurd reality? This created quite a turmoil in the exhibitor's circle. This could not happen! Would not happen! The range of attitudes went from "Oh it will be OK, and everything will work out," to "We will fight to the end."

Yes, our 4-H leaders and fair officials worked hard to get to a workable outcome, but for 24 hours, it was a nightmare. By Friday, Dr. Hartmann, the head of Minnesota Department of Animal Health, was able to set things right and see that common sense should prevail. All of the animals would not be slaughtered, and the fair would proceed as usual.

The discrepancy as I see it: All the animals that were at the Roseau County Fair needed to be and were tested within 60 days of the fair … Done. The Management Zone changed boundaries, June 15, and although three beef herds now were in the new zone and were required to have a full herd test in addition to the individual 60-day test prior to the fair, a waiver from BAH had been granted to those exhibitor families because time was too short to have full herd tests and the risk was minimal. There was some misunderstanding about how they were housed at the fair, however, and it seemed like the state veterinarian visiting that day had such a nice shiney badge that he just had to show it off. It's a shame that he didn't do all that was possible before putting our youth and families through this ordeal! It looks like a big black eye for the Sstate of Minnesota.

We have learned a lot from this "situation," and we will stand united, as our 4-H motto goes: "To Make the Best Better!"

Sincerely,
4-H parent and alumnus
Lew Wallace

Reading Is fundamental

I used to read much more often than I do today. When I was younger, I read for pleasure and enjoyed the richly-detailed books of Stephen King. Today, I normally read for information instead of pleasure, but I still value reading as a valuable skill and a gift of my youth.

We were surprised this week by a television story of children reading to dogs. The premise sounded a little far-fetched until the results of this study showed that children, who read to pets, had better self-esteem and their performance improved in the classroom. It makes sense in that people always feel good when someone listens to them plus the connection between kids and dogs would survive even the most boring tale. Reading out loud has always been an effective learning tool and less embarrassing when your listener cannot speak and therefore cannot critique your delivery. It seems a little sad that there isn't a parent sitting there in place of the dog, but it still underlines the importance of reading.

My favorite childhood memories were of stories read to me by my mom at bedtime. I can't remember what stories she read, but I remember how nice it was to have her attention prior to bedtime. I also remember how the stories left the book pages and found a fertile spot in my imagination. I wanted that pleasure more often and so began my interest in reading. My fourth grade teacher, Mrs. Anderson, also read to us each day. Mrs. Anderson read many different stories, but I would remember "Little House on the Prairie" above the others. "Little House" is literary comfort food. It's also an important link to the past for a society that no longer observes life a generation at a time. I would never have received this valuable resource without books and someone to read them to me.

Many people believe they can tell what kind of person you are by what you're reading. I recently took stock of what I am reading, it ran the gamut. I am currently reading "Grass Farmer Journal," which is a periodical on raising cattle. Martin Luther's catechism has been a frequent read with its explanation of rules for life. Another great rulebook is the Associated Press stylebook, which is a very complete guide to writing style and punctuation. Finally, I have been reading the operator's manual for my Farmall tractor. I don't know what my reading habits say about me other than I have a lot of interests and that I like books that instruct.

I remember television ads back in the '70s for something called RIF, or Reading Is Fundamental. RIF is a non-profit organization and still helps spread interest in reading by providing needy children with free books. It seems like such a basic idea, but it works so well and has succeeded where many complex governmental programs have failed. This organization gives the gift to children that my mother and Mrs. Anderson once gave to me.

All this talk of reading makes me want to do one thing: Read. Lisa and I are fortunate that we have two libraries within our home. There is one downstairs that is a full library. We also have one upstairs that is a one and one-half library. In the future, we may expand our home so perhaps we'll include a half library during that remodel. No matter who does the reading, where the reading is done or what you read, it's important; some would say it's even fundamental.

Ashlee Hewitt returns to Kick'n Up Kountry stage

"Nashville Star" finalist Ashlee Hewitt will perform at the 5th Annual Kick'n Up Kountry Labor Day Weekend Music Festival at the Pennington County Fairgrounds, on Friday Aug. 29, at 8:45 p.m. in Thief River Falls.

The Lancaster resident performed with nine other contestants for seven weeks on the "Nashville Star" show.

Although her chances ended when the competition came down to just four performers., the judges, Jewel, who hosted the show last year, John Rich, of Big and Rich, and Jeffrey Steele, three-time Grammy nominee and two-time Songwriter of The Year, were all highly impressed by Hewitt.

It was an emotional goodbye for Hewitt after reaching fifth place in a field of thousands who competed to be one of 10 finalists. The 20-year-old performer said she isn't necessarily disappointed by her elimination because she hopes it will "open doors" for her. And as host Billy Ray Cyrus said, "Those tears will become tears of joy because you'll be a big star."

To accommodate this rising star's appearance, the Friday schedule has been rearranged as follows: Little Kickers at 5 p.m., followed by Mustang Sally at 7 p.m., Ashlee Hewitt at 8:45 p.m. and Jeff Bates at 10 p.m. Be sure to catch the performance by Hewitt. She also will be signing autographs after her show.

Football parents video will be shown by TRF coaching staff Aug. 12

Parents of Thief River Falls' 2008 high school football players are encouraged to attend screening of the video "The Role of Parents In Athletics," which will be shown Tuesday, Aug. 12, at 7 p.m. in the Lincoln High School cafeteria.

"This video discusses what a parent can do to allow growth, help performance and keep proper perspective from the athletes' point of view," explained Prowlers head coach Jeff Mumm. "The advice and guidelines featured in this video are based on feedback from asking and listening to players for the past three decades. It explains what the role of all adults should be in the athletic arena and how parents who have children who play sports can show respect for both the game and the individuals who are working with their kids and be an integral part of the positive sport-related memories of their kids."

The video, produced by Bruce Brown, is 46 minutes long. Brown is a nationally-known speaker who has created teaching and coaching manuals, DVD's and CD's through his Proactive Coaching organization.

Conners selected for all-star squad

Cody Conners passed on an opportunity to play for Team Minnesota in the 2008 Showtime Sports Midwest Classic Baseball Tournament in order to stay with his Thief River Falls teammates for the Minnesota American Legion Ninth District Division I playoffs.

A 6-2, 185-pound left-handed pitcher who also plays the outfield and first base, Conners was one of the 21 players named to the Team Minnesota roster for the all-star event in Kenosha, Wis. Unfortunately, the dates conflicted with with Legion tournament play, and Conners declined the invitation.

Open to those who completed their junior high school baseball season this past spring, the Minnesota Showcase drew some 200 players and attracted the attention of pro and college scouts.

Conners had a good showing, reported Shane Zutz, Thief River Falls' head high school baseball coach, who said he struck out four batters in three innings on the mound, and also played both the outfield and first base.

In addition to Conners, those chosen for the Team Minnesota roster were Derek Hanson, Fergus Falls; Clint Artz, Norwood Young America; Ben Keller and Wes Satzinger, Andover; Michael Berg, Simley; Denny Boe and Corey Boe, Redwood Valley; Matthew Busch, Roseville; Jeff Butler, Prior Lake; Kevin Ellis, Monticello; Chase Graskewicz, Hudson; Richard Klein, Woodbury; Tyler Lang, Glencoe-Silver Lake; Steven Maher, Academy of Holy Angels; Joseph Novak, Lakeville South; Zach Olson, Luverne; Johnny Piskulka, Wabasso; Angel Talamantes, Byron; Brett Thaden, Rosemount; and John Kelliher, Showtime Sports.

The Midwest Classic featured teams from Minnesota, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Iowa, Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio and Illinois.

Moorhead wins Ninth District

The Blues beat East Grand Forks 8-5, Fergus Falls 10-5 and Detroit Lakes 10-0 in the seven-team double-elimination tournament July 30-Aug. 2 at Fergus Falls.

Moorhead entered the tournament as the No. 1 seed in the South standings.

Thief River Falls, the No. 1 team in the North, opened with a 7-4 victory over Perham, but then lost to Fergus Falls 8-6 and Detroit Lakes 15-5.

It was a 23-11 season for the Courtney Skjerven Post 117 Bandits.

Special youth pheasant hunt drawings set

Interested young people can apply by Aug. 15 for a chance to step into the field with an experienced guide this fall and step out carrying pheasants. The Pheasants Forever first-ever special mentored youth hunt is co-sponsored by the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources and takes place Oct. 25.

Guides from Pheasant Forever chapters throughout Minnesota will be paired with youth hunters and their guardians. After scouting places to hunt and securing landowner permission when necessary, guides will take participants into the field.

To be eligible to participate in the lottery for hunts that are expected take place throughout much of the southern two-thirds of Minnesota, a youth must be 12-17 years old as of Oct. 25; possess a valid firearms safety certificate; and have a parent, guardian or adult authorized by a parent or guardian accompany them as a non-firearms carrying mentor to the pre-hunt orientation and the hunt.

Applicants must specify in which county they'd like to hunt by referring to a map of the counties where Pheasants Forever has chapters.

Applications for the hunt lottery are due at 4 p.m. on Aug. 15 and are available on the DNR Web site at http://mndnr.gov/youthhunts or by contacting the DNR Information Center at 888-646-6367. The lottery will be conducted Sept. 15.

DNR encourages early firearms class registration

Now is the time for people who plan to hunt this fall to sign up for a Firearms Safety Hunter Education class, according to the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources. Youth can't buy a hunting license in Minnesota and many other states unless the training is completed.

"Instructors throughout the state are gearing up for the rush right now," said Capt. Michael Hammer, education program coordinator.

The purpose of the DNR hunter education course is to teach safe, responsible firearm handling in the field, in the vehicle, and in the home after hunting. Through lectures, hands-on activities and videos, students learn about firearms, firearm safety, shooting fundamentals and firearm and wildlife laws.

In Minnesota, hunters born after Dec. 31, 1979, must complete a DNR Firearms Safety Training Course or equivalent course from another state before purchasing a license for big or small game. The course is also open to people who don't hunt.

Hunter education courses are recommended for anyone who spends time in the outdoors, whether or not they intend to hunt, added Hammer. One of the courses, survival basics, can help out in any emergency situation.

The youth firearm safety class consists of a minimum of 12 hours of classroom and field experience in the safe handling of firearms and hunter responsibility. Those 16 and older can complete the training through an independent study online course, or by acquiring an independent study guide and workbook available from a volunteer instructor.

For more information on local classes log on to www.mndnr.gov or call the DNR Information Center toll free 1-888-MINNDNR (646-6367).

DNR QUESTIONS/ANSWERS

Q: We see a lot of turtles crossing roads. Why? Is there anything we can do to help them cross safely?

A: The turtles we see crossing roads are typically painted and snapping turtles. Both species spend most of their time in lakes, ponds and wetlands, but lay their eggs in nests dug in dry, sandy and warm soils. Since many roads are built skirting water bodies, our roads often separate a turtle's home from its nesting area. If the turtle can find the right type of soil near their home water body, they'll use it. However, they may often travel great distances to find a suitable nesting spot. And so, a turtle may have to cross the road to get to the other side to lay its eggs. If you see a turtle crossing the road, you can help it cross safely. Be careful and watch for traffic. Pick up the turtle by the back of its shell - never pick up a turtle by its tail. Move the turtle in the direction it is heading. The painted and snapping turtles laid their clutches of eggs in June. If the eggs survive predation, they are expected to hatch in late August, which means there'll be even more turtles - quarter-sized hatchlings - crossing the road again, trying to get home.

includes original lyrics and music written by John.

About three years ago, "Been in the Heartland" was placed in the jukebox at the Corner Pub in Oklee. Some customers had asked the owner to place the CD in the jukebox.

When John first heard one of his songs played there, he was like, "I know this." But he couldn't place it. Then he realized it. It was his song. "It's flattering, but it's just like somebody with their free will chose to listen to that?" said John, who noted he "dumped" his CD on family members and friends. He was surprised that anyone else would want to listen to his music.

But there are many people who like to listen to his music. "Leaving Minnesota" is his No. 1 hit song, said Tanya, who noted that it is played at least once a week at the bar.

Incidentally, the Corner Pub was where Tanya and John met for the first time. They met the first night that Tanya ever worked at the bar. They have a lot in common. Tanya has sung and played guitar her entire life.

The couple was married at the Corner Pub. Two months ago, John and Tanya purchased the bar and renamed it T.J.'s Tavern. The "T" is for Tanya, and the "J" is for John. "We've had to be completely obsessed with that," John said.

The recording studio hasn't been used much in the past two months. Yet, music is still a part of John and Tanya's endeavors. T.J.'s Tavern hosts Open Mic Night every Wednesday night. The couple hopes to turn the tavern into a center for live and recorded local music. And eventually, once things settle down at the tavern, the couple plans to return to the studio to put the finishing touches on Tanya's CD.

Recording other people's music

The couple's music isn't the only music that has been recorded at the studio. Through word of mouth, McIntosh resident Susan Lee learned about the recording studio. Susan wanted to record lullabies for children and give the CDs as gifts. She soon sang the lullabies at the studio. John took the lullabies, built around them with instruments, added more harmonic voices and fine-tuned the songs.

Through Susan, John and Tanya met Pam Aanenson. Pam wrote about 40 songs in the country music and gospel music genres. She then sent tapes of the songs to John. She wanted him to choose songs for an album of each genre. John narrowed down the song selections and arranged the songs. For each song, he created an introduction, made an instrumental break, rearranged the vocals and added all of the instruments.

When arranging and producing, John can add acoustic guitar, mandolin, harmonica and piano. He can also use bass and snare drums from his synthesizers. "Bit by bit, you can build it up until you get a full record," he said.

It may take John several days to complete a full arrangement and then record it. He spends just as much time fine-tuning each track. Then he takes a few days off to ensure that he is correctly perceiving the sounds. He then comes back to the music. As John put it, he may wonder, "What was I thinking? The bass is so loud that it's rattling the house."

Many other musicians and customers have used the studio. Customers have included a barbershop quartet featuring high school boys. For another customer, John transferred a recording of a performance by the woman's late grandfather.

Music is a family affair for John and Tanya. Tanya designs cover art and books for the CDs. "Tanya does almost all the design work," John said. They own a machine that automatically produces copies of the CDs recorded in their studio. The machine also automatically labels the CDs.

"That keeps us up all night," Tanya said. Her husband noted that they sometimes forget that the machine is in operation. Then they hear it moving in the middle of the night and think that there is someone or something in their house.

For John, though, it's all worth it. His biggest thrill is when someone records music at the studio, then listens to the playback and tells John that she got chills.

come from all over, want to see what everyone else is doing, said Moore.

On this tour, there were people from Minot, N.D., Grand Forks, N.D., East Grand Forks, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada and Chicago, Ill., and many other places.

Most years, the event has been conducted entirely within North Dakota. This year, Moore said the cruise would swing through a portion of Minnesota. It will culminate in Grand Rapids, N.D., next weekend where participants in the ride can enter a Rod Run. "There's a wonderful park near there," he said. "It's a real gem."

It's almost enough to make someone put down their camera and pack a bag for the road. The tour cost is right, too. The entry fee is only $5.

For $5, Moore plots out the course, makes connections and arrangements with businesses and car clubs, publicizes the event and even requests blocks of rooms at motels. Members of the tour pay for their accommodations and fuel, of course. A street rod or an "older" reconditioned vehicle and membership in the National Street Rod Association might help, too.

Moore said it's really the car clubs and volunteers, however, who make the tour work.

Moore said the people who participate in the event make it fun because they enjoy riding in their vehicles, want to tour the countryside and see what everyone else is doing. During the tour everyone gets to know each other and have a good time, he added.

When the street rods and muscle cars pull in to a community, they get plenty of gawkers. Spectators might even get song stuck in their head, and an itch to hit the road.

This 1931 Ford with trailer, owned by Jim Myers of Grand Forks, N.D., and the 1956 Vette behind it, which is owned by Gary and Karl Myhrer of Glyndon, N.D., were among the vehicles participating in the 6th Annual National Street Rod Association Leadfoot Lanny's Dakota Cruise, which swung through Thief River Falls the morning of Aug. 6. There were about 34 cars in the travel group.

County Board steers funding to roads, in view of needs

Warren - "A 2009 budget strategy of steering new levy revenue to the Marshall County Highway Department, while holding the line in other areas, was held to by the Marshall County Board of Commissioners at its meeting Aug. 5.

"Earlier this summer, in preparing the county budget for 2009, commissioners agreed to a budget policy of no new levy funds for any area of county government except the Highway Department. In a later meeting, the board settled on a 3.9 percent increase in the general levy for 2009.

"The reason for channeling resources toward the county road department is because that is where the greatest need is, said County Auditor-Treasurer Scott Peters. It is expected that the state gasoline tax increase approved by the State Legislature earlier this year will not produce as much state revenue for highway support as originally thought. The gasoline tax is a fixed amount per gallon and, with a doubling of gasoline prices, many Minnesota motorists are being forced to cut back on the number of gallons they are buying.

"The same inflationary pressure of high gasoline and diesel prices drastically affects the expense side of the County Highway Department budget, said Peters. Virtually everything the County Highway Department does consumes fuel. In addition, the Highway Department's reserve was drawn down significantly about five years ago to support other areas of county government.

"The County Board must certify a preliminary budget and maximum tax levy to the state by Sept. 15. Commissioners probably will vote to do that at their meeting Tuesday, Sept. 2. Final action on next year's budget will be delayed until late in December, at which time the tax levy can be reduced but not increased above the preliminary level." - Warren Sheaf, Aug. 13, 2008

City needs a shower, says MDH

Karlstad - "The Karlstad City Council was informed by the Minnesota Department of Health that it either needs to construct a shower facility at its campground site located in Moose Park or provide sanitary sewer service to the full hookup campsites.

"The notification came in an inspection report following an annual inspection by the MDH."

The inspection report indicates that the city is required to take action. Its remedy "must be in place prior to the next camping season in 2009."

"Though no action was taken last Wednesday at the council's meeting, discussion seemed to favor digging in sewer facilities to the sites rather than the construction of a shower facility." - North Star News, Aug. 14, 2008, by Dan Nordine

Coming up 8s

Greenbush - "Owen Novacek celebrated an extra special birthday last Friday. It was extra special because he was celebrating his eighth birthday on the eighth day of the eighth month, 2008.

"Born to parents Efrem and Tammy Novacek of Greenbush, Owen entered this world at 8:08 p.m., tipping the scales at 8 pounds 8 ounces." - The Tribune of Greenbush, Aug. 13, 2008, by Mavis Gonshorowski

DFL Party in the Park

Al Franken, DFL candidate for U.S. Senate, Minnesota, visited with party faithful at a DFL Party in the Park event in Oakland Park, Thief River Falls, on Thursday, Aug. 14. Franken presented his views on Social Security and renewable energy. Speakers at the event also included U.S. Congressman Collin Peterson, who talked about the Farm Bill, State Senator LeRoy Stumpf and State Representative Dave Olin.

Franken also had time to pose for photographs with individuals, such as Tiffany and Rachel Henson, and sign autographs.

Party and politicians gather

Local DFL holds first-ever Party in the Park event in TRF

by David Hill
Editor

On a bitterly cold winter day in the 1970s, Al Franken visited Northland College in Thief River Falls. "It was the coldest I've ever been," said Franken.

One of the many spectators and party faithful gathered at the DFL Party in the Park in Oakland Park Thursday evening reminded Franken of that long-ago visit to Thief River Falls. The contrast between that visit and Thursday was obvious.

Franken received a warm and enthusiastic welcome from the 200 to 300 people gathered in Thief River Falls for the event. He talked about his proposals for Social Security and renewable energy, signed autographs and listened to the party faithful.

Franken shared a story from his wife Franni. When she was 17 months old, her dad - a decorated World War II vet - died in a car accident on his way home from a shift at the paper mill. Her mother was widowed at age 29 with five kids and she wasn't the youngest. The family made it because of Social Security survivor benefits. Franni writes of the event. "Can you imagine what would have happened to our Social Security funds if we had allowed big business to take them over? The very businesses that are losing billions of dollars because of bad investments are the ones that would have been in charge of our Social Security funds." Franken said he opposes privatizing Social Security and putting it into the hands of big business. He said he believes in people pulling themselves up by their own bootstraps, but sometimes, the government has to provide boots.

March of Dimes

by April Schelnoha
Reporter

One Thief River Falls native is working to ensure that fewer babies are born premature.

Bob Gustafson, who currently resides in Plymouth, is employed as the state director of the March of Dimes' Minnesota chapter. "Our mission as an organization is to improve the health of babies by preventing birth defects, premature births and infant mortality," Gustafson said.

The March of Dimes began as the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in 1938. President Franklin Delano Roosevelt established the foundation in an effort to combat polio. On the radio, comedian Eddie Cantor asked Americans to send their dimes to support the effort, and he used the term "March of Dimes." The successful fundraising campaign led to the discovery of the polio vaccine. Dr. Jonas Salk received funding from the foundation and discovered the vaccine in the 1950s. After the discovery of the polio vaccine, the foundation's mission became the prevention of birth defects. It officially became the March of Dimes in 1979.

In more recent years, specifically the mid-1990s, the March of Dimes began a campaign to raise the public's knowledge of folic acid and its importance. Folic acid is found in vitamins, fortified grains, breads and green leafy vegetables, Gustafson said. It helps prevent most neural tube defects. Spina bifida is one of the most common neural tube defects.

In 2002, the March of Dimes launched a campaign to educate the public about prematurity. The March of Dimes is also sponsoring research at the University of Minnesota, the Mayo Clinic and other locations across the country. Scientists have learned that smoking, drugs, stress and drinking alcohol are contributing factors that increase the likelihood of a premature birth, Gustafson said.

Blacks, American Indians and Asians have the highest rate of premature births. "Hispanics have a lower pre-term birth rate than whites or Caucasians," said Gustafson, who noted the March of Dimes is trying to determine why there are different rates of premature births.

The March of Dimes has 52 chapters - one in each state, one in the Washington, D.C., area, and one in Puerto Rico. The Minnesota chapter's office is located in Edina, where Gustafson works. It has divisions in Duluth, St. Cloud, Mankato and Rochester. The Duluth division covers the northern part of the state, including the Thief River Falls area

March of Dimes Prematurity Campaign

In 2002, the March of Dimes launched a campaign to educate the public about prematurity.

During an average week in Minnesota

- 146 babies are born premature (with less than 37 weeks of pregnancy completed)
- 21 babies are born before 32 weeks of pregnancy have been completed
- 89 babies are born weighing less than 5-1/2 pounds
- 17 babies are born weighing less than 3-1/3 pounds

"Say Yes to No" author visits TRF

Aug. 26 session open to public

David Walsh

Say yes to no is becoming a more widely acknowledged phrase among parents, teachers and individuals who work with children. On Tuesday, Aug. 26, David Walsh will bring that message to Thief River Falls.

Walsh is one of the world's leading authorities on parenting and the impact of media on children's health and development. He spent 10 years teaching and coaching high school students before joining Fairview Health Services in Minneapolis to develop and direct innovative counseling programs for youth and families. In 1995, he founded the internationally renowned National Institute on Media and the Family. As president, Walsh spearheads the Institute's efforts to provide parents, teachers and other concerned adults information about media through education, research and advocacy.

Walsh has written eight books, including the national best seller "Why Do They Act That Way? A Survival Guide to the Adolescent Brain for You and Your Teen."

Walsh's appearance in Thief River Falls is being sponsored by Northwest Service Cooperative. On Aug. 26 he will deliver two presentations to teachers from at least a dozen school districts. A session for the public will be presented from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the Lincoln High School auditorium. The session is free of charge.

In addition to writing eight books, Walsh has presented workshops to parents, educators and other professionals throughout the world. He has also testified before congressional committees, and appeared on national radio and television shows. His workshops blend humor, warmth, scientific substance and practical advice.

On Friday, Aug. 22, the concert, which begins at 4 p.m., features Coco Montoya, The Chris Duarte Group, Eric Sardinas, and Little Bobby and The Storm.

On Saturday, Aug. 23, the concert, which begins at 3 p.m., features KoKo Taylor, Shemekia Copeland, Kenny Neal, Ron Thompson and His Resistors, and The Blues Cruisers.

Montoya, a 10-year veteran of John Myall's Bluesbreakers and protégé of Albert Collins, ranks among the top-drawing and best-selling artists on the blues-rock scene. Produced by Little Feat's Paul Barrere, "Dirty Deal" is Montoya's fiercest and rawest music of his career.

Grammy©-nominated and Harlem-bred vocalist Shemekia Copeland, touring in support of her latest CD, "The Soul Truth," will perform in Thief River Falls at 5 p.m. on Aug. 23, at the Casino. Legendary Stax guitarist/songwriter/producer Steve Cropper produced Copeland's "The Soul Truth" flavoring the recording with solid doses of Memphis soul and punching horns. Copeland's music has garnered praise from mainstream press and radio and earned her many awards, including the 2005 Blues Music Award for

SOUPÇON

Sherry LaCoursiere
email: lacours@mncable.net

We have recipes today from the 1948 cookbook by the Ladies Aid of St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Fairmont, Minnesota. Here's what the ladies said:

"Good friends who would these pages test,
A whisper in your ear:
These dishes are the very best,
Your husband's heart to cheer!
Let none escape, but try them all-
To boil or fry or bake;
We'll warrant they are just as good,
As Mother used to make."

Try making your fried chicken this way next time you want a new taste. Who knows, if you add a few different spices, it might be the "original" KFC recipe. It could be a wonderful find. I haven't tried it yet, but I'm going to:

BATTER FRIED CHICKEN

Mrs. Edwin Luckow

1 frying chicken
Spices as you desire (season salt, pepper, barbecue flavor, paprika, garlic and/or onion salt, etc.)
1 cup flour
1 cup milk
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
Shortening or lard

Cut chicken into equal sized serving portions. Rinse in cold water and dry.

Steam pieces of chicken 20-25 minutes (I would put into a large pot with a very small amount of water and just keep at a light simmer -SL.)

Meanwhile, beat together flour, milk and salt and heat 3 inches of shortening to 375 degrees in deep frying kettle.

Season chicken as you desire and then dip in flour/milk mixture. Add chicken to shortening and keep it at 350 degrees. Fry 5-10 minutes or until evenly browned and thoroughly cooked. Drain on soft paper.

TUNA SALAD

Mrs. L. A. Will

1/2 package macaroni (about 8 ounces)
12 sweet pickles (or 4-6 teaspoons sweet relish)
3 hard cooked eggs, cooled
1 can tuna, drained
1/2 bunch of celery
1/2 cup cheese
3 ripe tomatoes
(I would add a little chopped onion or chives -SL)
Salad dressing (mayonnaise type)

Boil macaroni in salted water until tender. Drain and run cold water over until thoroughly cooled.

Cut up pickles, eggs, tuna, celery, cheese and tomatoes in fine pieces. Salt to taste.

Mix all ingredients together, add more salt and pepper to taste, and chill well before serving.

You haven't forgotten that wonderful sun tea, have you? Mrs. Meier says this tea is never cloudy, and that is true. It's just a special treat on a hot day. Adjust ingredients accordingly if you want to make a large amount for guests.

(SUN) ICED TEA

Mrs. Martin Meier

1 clean, empty quart jar
2 teaspoons dry tea leaves (or bags to equal 2 teaspoons)
Cold water to fill jar
Sugar Syrup:
2 parts water
1 part sugar
Fruit juices as desired.

To make tea, place tea in jar and fill with cold water. Set jar outdoors in a sunny spot to stand a few hours, until desired color.

Meanwhile, make up sugar syrup with water and sugar and bring to a boil. Stir to dissolve and store in refrigerator to use as desired.

When tea is ready, use syrup and fruit juices to sweeten and flavor tea as desired. Whole cloves may be put into the hot syrup for flavor too.

GUMDROP BARS

Mrs. John Groenke

2 cups brown sugar
4 eggs, beaten
1 tablespoon cold water
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
2 1/2 cups flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
Dash of salt
Walnuts as desired
18 gumdrops or orange slice gumdrops

Cut gumdrops fine. Beat brown sugar, eggs and cold water in large bowl.

Mix flour, baking powder, cinnamon and salt in smaller bowl. Add walnuts, if desired, and gumdrop pieces. Add to brown sugar mixture and mix well. Bake about 20 minutes at 350 degrees (or until set and lightly browned). Mrs. Groenke says these bars stay fresh a long time.

I have made bars like these and they are delicious - and quick and easy too when you get one of those "rich bar" cravings:

DREAM BARS

Rose Finke

Crust

1/2 cup butter
1 cup flour
1/3 cup brown sugar

Filling

1 cup brown sugar
2 eggs
2 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon soda
Pinch of salt
1 1/2 cups coconut
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1 teaspoon vanilla

Blend crust ingredients as for pie crust. Press or pat into unbuttered 7x11 inch (or 9 inch for thicker bars) pan. Bake at 350 degrees until light brown, maybe 10 minutes, maybe less.

To make filling mixture, beat sugar, eggs, flour, soda and salt. Add coconut, walnuts and vanilla and mix.

When crust is removed from oven, immediately pour filling mixture over, spreading evenly. Bake 20 minutes more, until puffed and lightly browned. Cool.

Can sprinkle with powdered sugar, if desired.

The massive cottonwoods in the broad curve of the Red Lake River have shaded American Indians, traders and Métis. Trains of creaking ox carts have crossed the shallow river at the place now known as Old Crossing and Treaty Park at Huot.

In the fall of 1863, more than a thousand members of Pembina and Red Lake bands of Chippewa camped on this site. The chiefs smoked and negotiated with a delegation representing the United States government. Pierre Bottineau was the main interpreter for the Pembina Band. Paul Beaulieu was the chief interpreter for Alexander Ramsey, first territorial governor of Minnesota. The parley lasted two weeks before the treaty was signed.

Most people are now reading this article on land ceded in the treaty. More than 11 million acres comprising the Red River Valley of the North were ceded in the treaty. The U.S. paid about $510,000 for the tract. The treaty not only impacted what was to become the state of Minnesota, it changed the destinies of all who had a part in it and generations up to the present time.

The drama surrounding the signing of the Treaty of 1863 will be brought to life at the aforementioned Readers' Theaters. The readings will include excerpts from "The Story of Old Crossing Treaty: The Treaty of 1863," a book containing dialogue of the treaty negotiations with a collection of writings by many authors from the Upper Midwest. It was compiled by David Marshall from the University of North Dakota and John Zak from the University of Minnesota, Crookston. The books will be available for $14 each.

"The Story of Old Crossing" is an official Minnesota Sesquicentennial Legacy Project and is financed in part with funds provided by the state of Minnesota through its Minnesota Sesquicentennial Commission Grants Program.

The Pembina Trail Rural Conservation & Development Council also adopted "The Story of Old Crossing" as a project and is providing technical assistance to the Red Lake County Historical Society and the Association of the French of the North, who are the primary sponsors of the project.

Grants are provided by the Hartz Foundation, Red Lake County and by the Northwest Regional Development Commission through funding from the Minnesota State Arts Board, the Minnesota State Legislature and the McKnight Foundation.

March of Dimes

Gustafson said his goal is to figure out a "game plan" for the March of Dimes in northwest Minnesota, particularly in Thief River Falls.

The state chapter also has a neonatal intensive care unit support program at St. Cloud Hospital. No set of parents knows how to deal with a premature baby, said Gustafson, who noted that the program provides such things as bedside readings and sibling projects. He added that the chapter's goal is to expand the program to every hospital in the state.

In order to support research and provide programs, the March of Dimes holds several fundraising activities. Each year, the March of Dimes holds the March for Babies fundraiser walk in 22 cities across the state of Minnesota. The nearest March for Babies is held in Bemidji. Many local residents have participated in the walk. March of Dimes also holds other fundraising events in Minnesota.

The March of Dimes was a natural fit for Gustafson, who has worked his entire adult life with volunteers and people who want to make a difference. Prior to joining the workforce, Gustafson attended Lincoln High School in the 1960s. After his sophomore year of high school, Gustafson moved with his family. He graduated from Little Falls High School in 1968 and from Northland College in 1970. He received a bachelor's degree from St. Cloud State University in 1972.

In the past, Gustafson worked at Arctic Enterprises Inc., a forerunner to Arctic Cat. He also worked at chambers of commerce in Thief River Falls; Grand Forks, N.D.; and Plymouth before he was hired for the March of Dimes position.

Gustafson enjoys his work as the state director. "I'm honored to work for a wonderful organization that is working to save babies' lives."

For more information about the March of Dimes, go to www.marchofdimes.com.

Rural Reflections

Grant Nelson

The comments published in this column are intended to stimulate thinking and discussion among our readers. They are written by independent columnists and do not represent the opinion of the staff or management of The Times/Northern Watch.

My weekend alone

Lisa was gone this past weekend. She and several friends went for their once-yearly, weekend away at Lake of the Woods. Our weekends are fairly precious, but I think it's important that these ladies, Lisa included, take a break from their kids' hockey games, their work, a second job or their needy husband (me) and have a little fun together. The problem was, with Lisa gone, what do I do by myself?

The easy answer to the question of how I fill a weekend without Lisa would be to work, which I did. All work and no play, however, makes Grant a dull columnist so I needed a bit more action. I did catch up on summer tasks, as I stacked hay and worked on the cattle barn. I am removing the second level of our barn so it's easier to clean. Prior to its removal, I have to secure the ceiling joists, and I spent most of Saturday on that task. Lyle Swanson had cut our hay earlier in the week and Sunday was probably too soon to stack it; I stacked it anyway and Monday's rain made me look like a genius. It's always good to work, but there's a time for work and a time to shirk, so let's get to the shirking.

Friday night featured the "Flight of the Truckster." Lisa and I use a Cushman Truckster around the yard and to maintain the cattle fence. It's like a cross between a pickup and a golf cart. The yard and fence were not in need of maintenance and so I embarked on a search of fun. I drove around and looked at my neighbor's crops and just generally rode for joy. The Truckster uses very little fuel and I always see more than I do in my pickup. It's like riding a bicycle without all of the healthy effects associated with the physical effort of pedaling.

I finished working on the barn at about 7 p.m. Saturday. I had a previous engagement, but I was tired enough where even the question of a shower was in doubt. I did eventually get clean but decided to stay at home. We don't often use our fire ring so I thought I'd give it a shot. The firewood was already in place so I grabbed some dryer lint for fire starter (Lisa keeps lint in a bag for just these occasions) and enjoyed a night getting in touch with my prehistoric self. I found my old stereo out in the shop and tuned it to one of those classic rock stations and let my mind drift from the campfire to our full staff of cats alternately stalking squirrels and sitting with me on the bench. It was quite wonderful.

I'm glad Lisa had a weekend away, but was even happier when she got back home. There is an inherent pressure with these trips that goes beyond the loneliness her absence creates. I mean what do I do next time she's gone? Her next trip is only 52 weeks away.

Attend festivals and rediscover how much fun it is to live here

Prior to 1987, this newspaper used to close its doors one week in August to allow its employees a much needed vacation. However, staying open became a necessity and we did away with that tradition. There are times when I miss that tradition.

There were days or weeks in the past when the lazy days of August were just that - too hot or muggy for doing much of anything else but sitting on the porch or fishing, and children would derisively complain that "there's nothing to do in this town." Not so anymore.

I don't know exactly how it happend that we became so busy in August. I like to imagine that we schedule more activities today because people demand things to do to keep them occupied, help merchants stay open and prevent us from resenting the quiet life we say we enjoy so much in our small towns. That was not meant to be a rebuke to all those hardworking people who are responsible for scheduling summer activities. In truth, the activities do a lot to make our communities more vibrant and attractive. Many are quite enjoyable, too.

But sometimes I do miss the quiet and the one week vacation in August. Today, there's so much to do that I'm tempted to shake my finger at anyone who leaves town. And anyone who says there's nothing to do in our small towns is completely out of touch with what's happening in their community. Here are some examples of what I'm talking about: This weekend, there's the downtown festival in Roseau and Crazy Days in several communities, the Good Old Days celebration in Viking, the Annual Lions Fishing Tournament in Thief River Falls, and a Civil Air Patrol outing at the Thief River Falls Regional Airport. Next weekend is the Last Ride Blues Festival at Seven Clans near Thief River Falls, Chatauqua in Huot Park near Red Lake Falls, Bountiful Harvest at Pioneer Village in Thief River Falls, the Fall Festival in Grygla, and Grinding Day at Old Mill State Park. The weekend after that is the Kick'n Up Kountry Festival in Thief River Falls. The weekend after that is the Newfolden Newfest and Blast to Brooks; and the weekend after that is the Great American Block Party and Everybody's Market in Thief River Falls. Since I'm already past the weekend of Sept. 13 and 14, I'm sure I missed some of the activities that are in the process of being planned or announced in northwestern Minnesota.

What's there to do in northwestern Minnesota? Hang on to your hat, it's festival time, and there's plenty to do! Attend these events and rediscover how much fun it is to live in a small community.

Mary Abendroth and Paul Wilson from Brainerd performed some scandinavian music and stories during a program at an open house event at Rydell National Wildlife Refuge Sunday, Aug. 10. Rydell NWR protects approximately 2,200 acres of grassland, wetlands and woodland habitat. The refuge is located between Mentor and Erskine. The refuge visitor center provides information about wildlife at the refuge and serves as the starting point for the seven-mile, paved and gravel, trail system. Five trails are open to hiking, bicycling, snowshoeing and cross-country skiing. Observation blinds and gazebos on the trails offer opportunities to watch and photograph wildlife.

MnSCU Foundation receives two grants to help students

The Minnesota State Colleges and Universities Foundation has been awarded two grants totaling $425,000 for initiatives to help high school and college students prepare for and succeed in college.

The Blandin Foundation in Grand Rapids awarded the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities system's foundation $225,000 for the northern Minnesota College Readiness Partnership pilot project. The Otto Bremer Foundation gave the system foundation $200,000 to support the Higher Education Anti-Racism Team initiative.

"We're proud that these two important foundations are supporting such exciting and innovative programs," said Chancellor James H. McCormick. "Both of the initiatives fit well with the Board of Trustees' strategic plan, which calls for increasing access and opportunity to higher education in the state.

"We must make sure more students of color, low-income students and first-generation college students - all groups traditionally underrepresented in higher education complete some kind of post-secondary training to ensure their well-being and the state's competitive edge," McCormick said.

Foundation President Robert Erickson said, "These projects hold great promise. I'm grateful that the funders recognized the need and potential for the initiatives to make a difference in our communities."

The initiative funded by the Blandin Foundation will use new and culturally relevant ways of teaching math to about 400 10th-through 12th-grade students. The project will begin this fall and will involve students at Northwest Technical College in Bemidji, Northland Community and Technical College in Thief River Falls and East Grand Forks, Bemidji State University, Leech Lake Tribal College, Red Lake Tribal College and White Earth Tribal College. Participating high schools include Mahnomen, Cass Lake, Red Lake, Lincoln (Thief River Falls) and Bemidji.

The Bremer grant will support the Higher Education Anti-Racism Team initiative at Minnesota State University Moorhead, St. Cloud State University, North Dakota State University, Bethel University, the Minnesota Collaborative Anti-Racism Initiative and the Office of the Chancellor in the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities. The initiative encourages participating institutions and communities to strengthen policies and practices that respect and include all racial, ethnic and social groups.

The Minnesota State Colleges and Universities system comprises 32 state universities and community and technical colleges serving the higher education needs of Minnesota. The system serves about 242,000 students per year in credit-based courses and an additional 140,000 students in non-credit courses.

Northland Community and Technical College volleyball players are busy with two-a-day practices as they prepare for their 2008 season opener – an Invitational tournament being hosted by MSCTC-Fergus Falls Saturday, Aug. 23. The Pioneers' home debut will be a Wednesday, Aug. 27, triangular.

Prowlers have busy early-season schedule...

TRF tennis starts fall sports

It probably won't take long for Thief River Falls girls high school tennis coach Corey Thorson to figure out what kind of team he will put on the court this fall. The 2008 season is scheduled to begin today (Saturday) and in the first week, the Prowlers will play four tournaments plus a dual.

"With our schedule – eight matches before school starts – we'll know right away where we are at, and what we need to work on," acknowledged Thorson, who is in his third year as the Thief River Falls head coach.

Seniors Carli Sandahl and Cheyenne Horien are expected to be the Prowlers' leaders. Sandahl was the Section 8A runner-up in singles in 2007 and Horien was one of the team's top doubles players.

Sandahl was slowed by an arm injury at the end of last year. The problem hasn't resurfaced this fall, but Thorson said they will monitor the situation closely, especially with the busy early-season schedule.

Juniors Jaime LaCoursiere, Katie Hook and Sam Buck were varsity regulars a year ago and got a jump-start on the 2008 season by playing in a number of summer tournaments, pointed out Thorson.

"Again, we will have quite a few girls who will vie for varsity spots," said Thorson. "The goal for this year is to get 10 girls to compete at their highest level every time we step on the court. If we can do that, we can play with anyone in the section. But we're not strong enough to have just seven or eight girls show up and expect to win."

Others trying to crack the line-up include seniors Hannah Anderson, Chelsie Weeding, Brenna Boyd, Jessica Hutchinson, Julie Piche; juniors Kaylee Norlin, Zoe Pietras-Swanton, Sarah Matter, Karissa Kaushagen, Molly Haugen, Brittanie Bieganek, Lori Erickson, Robin Houske, Aundriah Lindgren, Carley Mattson, Dena Dahl; sophomores Tayler Genereux, Kaitlyn Lund, Hailey Johnson, LeeAnn Szeto; and freshmen Kaylee Koop, Lindsey Genereux, Jessie Thorstad, Rebecca Houske and Brianna Drevlow.

The Prowlers' home opener is scheduled Wednesday, Aug. 20, vs. Grand Rapids/Greenway. The matches at the Engelstad Park courts begin at 1 p.m.

Remaining in town, Grand Rapids/Greenway will join East Grand Forks, Crookston, Roseau and the host Prowlers for the annual Thief River Falls Sports Boosters Invitational on Thursday starting at 9 a.m.

Two years ago, Thief River Falls went 15-4 in duals and won a Section 8AA team title. Last season the Prowlers had a 7-5 dual meet record and bowed to Crookston in North Sub-Section 8A tournament play.

"The section will be fairly even again this year," pointed out Thorson. "Last year's champ, Crookston, lost seven of their top 10 players, but they seem to reload every year. East Grand Forks and Roseau return almost everyone from last year's teams and have two of the best singles players in the section in (East Grand Forks eighth grader) Jessamy Jones and (Roseau sophomore) Abby Ness. Park Rapids, last year's runner-up, should also be a very good again. We'll have to play our best tennis to compete with those teams."

Annual Pigskin Preview scrimmages scheduled Aug. 23 at Prowler Field

East Grand Forks, Bemijdi and Crookston will join the host Prowlers for the annual Thief River Falls Pigskin Preview high school football scrimmages Saturday, Aug. 23.

Teams run 12 offensive plays in each scrimmage session. Two scrimmages take place simultaneously on each end of the field.

TRF 13-year-olds end season fourth at state

■ Babe Ruth Prep tournament

A last place seed at the district level, the Thief River Falls 13-year-olds defied odds and stretched their 2008 baseball season into a fourth place finish at the Babe Ruth Prep Intact state tournament Aug. 1-3 in Cold Spring and Richmond.

Thief River Falls' state tournament showing began with a 9-2 loss at the hands of Albany, followed by a 19-6 win over Fergus Falls, a 6-5 victory over East Twin and a 15-5 setback at the hands of Dassel-Cokato.

Plan now for newest deer license options

Minnesotans who intend to hunt deer this fall may want to start scouting their license-buying options now. The Minnesota Department of Natural Resources is reminding hunters that 2008 deer hunting licenses will be a departure from the past.

"We've simplified license-buying and a number of regulations," said Dennis Simon, DNR Wildlife Section chief. "And because of that, we ask that hunters, during this transition year, familiarize themselves with those options now. Our aim is to avoid potential confusion during the last-minute rush of license buying in early November."

Deer hunting licenses are now available for purchase. The regulation book, which includes a color map, helps explain the new system.

Lou Cornicelli, DNR big game coordinator, said the new license options will benefit hunters in a number of ways. For example, deer hunters now can buy multiple licenses for the specific types of hunting they do rather than a single inclusive license, have more flexibility in where they hunt, and may choose from a wider selection of firearms.

"Minnesota had more types of licenses and options than any other Midwestern state," Cornicelli said. "The changes for the 2008 season fulfill the hunting community's desire to dramatically simplify deer hunting regulations."

The changes were developed by a group of stakeholders during the last year and approved by the Legislature this spring. They allow deer hunters to buy a firearms, archery and muzzleloader license singly or in any combination. This a la carte approach eliminates the all-season deer license and multi-zone buck license, which in many cases will save hunters money.

"We found that the vast majority of hunters who spent $78 on an all-season deer license were only hunting two seasons: archery and firearms or firearms and muzzleloader," Cornicelli said. "The new regulations allow hunters to buy an archery and firearms license, for example, saving them $26 a year."

Hunters need to be aware that bag limits in the area they choose to hunt take precedence over the number of licenses they can purchase. Hunters can buy a maximum of three licenses – archery, firearms and muzzleloader – but not all deer areas allow hunters to harvest three deer. Hunters should consult the regulation book to determine the bag limit for the deer area they hunt.

Deer areas are annually designated as lottery, managed, intensive, or early antlerless, so hunters should read the regulations to determine if they need to apply for an either-sex permit.

A second major revision consolidates the six traditional firearms zone licenses, the all-season deer license, and the multi-zone buck license into two license types: a statewide A license and a late southeast B season license.

Statewide A license is valid in all deer areas that begin on Nov. 8 and hunters are no longer required to stay in their traditional zone.

The $26 statewide A license is valid during the following seasons: Nov. 8-23 in northeastern Minnesota (deer areas in the 100 range); Nov. 8-16 in most of southern, central and northwestern Minnesota (deer areas in the 200 range); and Nov. 8-14 in southeastern Minnesota (deer areas in the 300 range).

Late southeast B license preserves the traditional nine-day season in southeastern Minnesota, which will begin Nov. 22 and end Nov. 30. Hunters may purchase a regular firearms deer license in either the statewide A or late season B license, but not both.

The muzzleloader season runs statewide from Nov. 29 to Dec. 14. This year, any hunter can purchase a muzzleloader license. This new rule includes traditional 3B deer hunters who were formerly excluded from that season.

In areas of Minnesota where deer populations are below goals and either-sex permits are limited, hunters who opt to buy a firearms and a muzzleloader license must apply for an either-sex permit by Sept. 4.

Lottery winners will receive a permit valid for either the firearm or the muzzleloader season. Hunters who purchase only a muzzleloader license in these areas can take an either-sex deer without applying in the lottery.

A third regulation revision allows hunters to harvest deer with firearms that shoot centerfire ammunition of .220 caliber or larger, which is consistent with the regulations of most other Midwestern states. There no longer is a shell casing length provision. Although the centerfire law has changed, the rifle-shotgun line has not, so hunters are cautioned to know what constitutes a legal firearm in the area they hunt.

The final regulation revision eliminates the need to for hunters to cut a notch in their license. Tagging rules still require that the site tag be notched at the kill site to indicate time and date of kill and properly attached to the animal according to the regulations. The only change is hunters do not need to validate their deer licenses.

- Minnesota DNR Questions & Answers -

Q: The Minnesota Department of Natural Resources offers a variety of youth hunts from ducks and deer in the fall to turkeys in the spring. Who is eligible to take part in these special hunts and how do they sign up?

A: The State Legislature authorized the DNR to conduct special youth-only hunts in 1997. The primary goal of these special hunts is to provide safe, high quality, introductory hunting experiences for youth. During all special hunts a non-hunting, adult parent or guardian must accompany the youth. Annually we conduct special youth hunts for deer, turkeys and pheasants. The hunts are for youth ages 12-17 years and require participants to have successfully completed Firearms Safety Training. In addition to special youth hunts, we host a series of events designed to raise awareness of the need to get youth afield and reduce the barriers to doing so. They include Take a Kid Hunting Weekend, Youth Waterfowl Day and Future Pheasant Hunters Weekend. A final opportunity is the northwest Minnesota special antlerless deer season. This season takes place in late October and encompasses Kittson, Lake of the Woods, Marshall, Pennington and Roseau counties. This hunt is for youth ages 12-14. A non-hunting adult parent or guardian must accompany the youth hunter. Additional information about special youth hunt regulations and license requirements as well as dates and locations can be found by logging onto the DNR Web site at www.dnr.state.mn.us/harr/youth/index.html.

DNR State Fair exhibit designed to entertain, educate visitors in '08

This year, the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources continues its State Fair tradition of offering a wide range of free educational exhibits, presentations, and entertainment at its historic building and park site. But unlike other years, the theme will be Celebrating the State's Sesquicentennial.

The fair runs Aug. 21-Sept. 1 in St. Paul.

"For many families, stopping by the DNR building and surrounding park area is a State Fair tradition," explained Pat Delkoski, who coordinates the exhibit. "Whether it is to visit the fish pond, take in a live musical performance or to learn about our state's natural resources over the past 150 years, there is always something for everyone. And this year there are several exciting new exhibits."

What's New

■ Large banners with historic photos celebrating the state's Sesquicentennial.

■ Actual 24-by-12-foot state park camper cabin.

■ Antique Model T fire truck from 1919 on display near the Wildfire Building/Fire Tower.

■ DNR Adopt-a-River Found-objects sculpture - this year it's a giant "river ant," complete with moving parts.

■ Virtual bike tour display.

State Fair Favorites

The DNR fire tower will be open for people who are interested in climbing the 84 steps to get a bird's-eye view of the State Fairgrounds. Another popular stop is a display offering property owners tips on how to keep their homes and cabins safe from wildfires.

Smokey Bear is celebrating 64 years of reminding children and their parents about the dangers of wildfires. In conjunction with the Governor's 10th annual Fire Prevention Day on Friday, Aug. 22, the Division of Forestry will host a variety of special activities and events. Smokey Bear makes daily appearances at DNR Park at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m.

The Division of Enforcement is sponsoring an interactive LaserShot shooting range for youth and adults. The range gives participants a chance to test their skills at one of four shooting simulation stations. It's a free, safe, educational event that's become a family favorite. The laser range will be in the DNR theater and is open daily from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Displays inside the main DNR building cover a wide range of natural resource topics: watersheds, aquatic invasive species, rocks and minerals, state lands, forests, trails and parks.

The Division of Minerals will feature a DVD on meteorites, Lake Superior agates, and volcanoes.

Inside the "DNR Wildlife ... forever Wing," fairgoers can learn about Minnesota species and wildlife habitat. Special sound and lighting effects help create an experience of moving from day to night and through the four seasons, as visitors walk through the display.

And they can pick up free printed materials, including hunting and trapping regulations and state park and recreation guides, at the information booth on the north side of the building. DNR staff will be available to answer questions from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day.

The DNR Nature Store will carry a wide range of merchandise, including gift items, clothing, jewelry, educational toys, games, posters, calendars and books. Many of the items are designed for outdoor enthusiasts and are available for sale only during the State Fair. The Nature Store also sells hunting licenses for deer, small game and waterfowl, state park permits and the complete line of Public Recreation Information Maps. Proceeds from the sale of merchandise help fund communication and education efforts at the State Fair.

Entertainment lineup

A full program of educational and wildlife presentations, along with music and theatrical performances, are scheduled for the outdoor and garden stages and the fish pond area.

A variety of groups will offer demonstrations and musical acts will perform on the DNR big outdoor stage and the Garden Stage on the west side of the building.

Weather was theme for 13th District Horticulture Show

It was overcast Saturday, Aug. 2, as people gathered at the Roseau School Commons for the weather-themed 13th District Horticultural Show. Host clubs, Northern Bloomers and NaChur Garden Club, provided an array of muffins, a very flavorful rhubarb juice, and coffee during the entry time, 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Those attending and participating were able to quietly observe the judging, which took place at 12:30 p.m. Following the judging and tallying of points, awards were presented while the crowd enjoyed fresh fruit, bars, coffee and juice.

There were many exhibits vying for recognition in 11 different divisions. The judges chose a first, second and third place in each lot, as they deemed the exhibit worthy. Then they picked the top (Grand Champion) exhibit in each division. Points were tallied for each first, second and third placing an individual received, and tallies were totaled for individuals and clubs.

These were the results listing division, class and lot, winner and their club:

- Flower Design, Class A, Novice: Most Points and Grand Champion Design, Lot - "Cold Day," Bonnie Schuh, Williams Gardeners.
- Flower Design, Class B, Amateur: Most Points and Grand Champion Design, Lot - "Foggy Day," LeAnn Haugen, NaChur Garden Club.
- Flower Design, Class C, Advanced: Most Points, Betty Mahrbacher, Gro-Rite; Grand Champion Design, Lot - "Sunny Day," Helen Erickson, Gro-Rite.
- Potted Plants: Most Points and Grand Champion, Lot - Coleus, LaVonne Knudson, Green Thumb.
- Roses: Most Points and Grand Champion, Lot - Shrub Rose, Myrna Sovde, Gro-Rite.
- Gladiolus: Most Points and Grand Champion, Lot - White with markings, Shirley Andol, Gro-Rite.
- Annuals: Most Points, Myrna Sovde, Gro-Rite. Grand Champion, Lot - Sunflower, Helen Erickson, Gro-Rite.
- Perennials: Most Points, Myrna Sovde, Gro-Rite; Grand Champion, Lot - Hydrangea, Sunny Wilmer, Green Thumb.
- Dahlias: Most Points and Grand Champion, Genieve Michael, Northern Bloomers.
- Corsages: Most Points and Grand Champion, Sunny Wilmer, Green Thumb.
- Vegetables: Most Points, LaVonne Knudson, Green Thumb; Grand Champion, Lot - Peas, Sylvia Anderson, Williams Gardeners.
- Fruit: Most Points and Grand Champion, Lot - Currants, Sylvia Anderson, Williams Gardeners.
- Herbs: Most Points and Grand Champion, Lot - Lemon Balm, LaVonne Knudson, Green Thumb.
- There were no youth exhibits this year.
- There were also awards for the exhibitors with the most points and second most points, over all. Those were: Most Points, Myrna Sovde, Gro-Rite, 147; Second, LoVonne Knudson, Green Thumb, 141.

The garden club receiving the award for the Most Points, collectively, overall, was Gro-Rite with 328 points.

Rain held off all day, the clouds kept it cool, and another successful 13th District Horticultural Show came to a close.

Blues Festival at Seven Clans

"Contemporary Female Blues Artist of the Year." Readers of Living Blues magazine's annual Reader's Poll recently voted Copeland "Blues Artist of the Year (Female), and she was named a "Rising Star Of The Blues" by Down Beat magazine. And now she can add the title 'radio host' to her already impressive list of accomplishments. Copeland is hosting her own weekly blues radio program, Shemekia Copeland's Blues Show, exclusively on SIRIUS satellite radio.

Grammy Award-winning blues legend Koko Taylor and her roof-raising Blues Machine will perform live in Thief River Falls at 9 p.m. on Aug. 23. Her latest CD, "Old School," was inspired by the sound and spirit of the Chicago blues of the 1950s. Taylor wrote five new originals for "Old School," which was nominated for a 2008 Grammy Award, and carefully chose songs from Willie Dixon, Lefty Dizz, Magic Sam and others to create an album of tough, "old school" Chicago blues. From rafter-rattling houserockers to steamy slow burners, Koko proves she's still the reigning "Queen of the Blues." Koko received three awards at the 2008 Blues Music Awards, including nods for Traditional Blues Album Of The Year for "Old School," Song Of The Year for Taylor's original "Gonna Buy Me A Mule" and Traditional Female Artist Of The Year.

Coco Montoya

Coco Montoya was born in Santa Monica, Calif., in 1951 and raised by working class parents. Growing up, Coco immersed himself in his parents' record collection. He listened to big band jazz, salsa, doo-wop and rock 'n' roll.

By the mid-1970s, Montoya was playing drums in several local rock bands, one of which played a small Culver City, Calif., bar on weekends.

Montoya's debut as a leader, 1995's "Gotta Mind To Travel" (originally on Silvertone Records in England and later issued in the USA on Blind Pig Records), became an instant favorite with blues fans, radio programmers and critics. The album introduced Montoya as a bandleader who immediately ranked among the best players on the contemporary blues scene. His follow-ups, 1996's "Ya Think I'd Know Better" (Blind Pig) and 1997's "Just Let Go" (Blind Pig) continued to highlight Montoya's steely guitar licks and intense vocals, earning him legions of new fans everywhere he played.

Shemekia Copeland

Shemekia Copeland's "The Soul Truth" is the funkiest, deepest, and most exciting statement yet from the woman CNN calls, "a legend in the making." Billboard agrees, saying Shemekia has "extraordinary talent, Copeland is a vocalist who knows few stylistic limitations. She's a true blues diva." The album is musically steeped in the spirit of classic Memphis soul but is lyrically up-to-the-minute, featuring Shemekia's powerful, emotional vocals over a blistering band with horns punching in all the right places, THE SOUL TRUTH is a tour-de-force of rock, soul and blues.

Born in Harlem, N.Y., in 1979, Shemekia came to her singing career slowly with her father, the late Texas blues guitar legend Johnny Clyde Copeland, at her side.

Shemekia stepped out of her father's shadow in 1998 when Alligator released "Turn the Heat Up" to massive popular and critical acclaim, with rave reviews running in newspapers and magazine across the country.

Koko Taylor

"Blues is my life," says Taylor, Chicago's — and the world's — undisputed Queen Of The Blues. "It's a true feeling that comes from the heart, not just something that comes out of my mouth. Blues is what I love, and singing the blues is what I always do." And, in many ways, blues is what saved Koko Taylor's life. Back in November of 2003, following emergency surgery for gastrointestinal bleeding, Taylor's condition grew even more serious. She was struggling just to breathe. Family and friends feared the worst as she was placed on a ventilator. But her forceful will to live, and to sing the blues again, brought her back: Slowly but surely she recovered, and by the following spring she was performing live on stage. Her resurgence not only led her back to the stage, but also led her back to the recording studio.

Koko Taylor, guitarist Criss Johnson and Alligator president Bruce Iglauer produced "Old School." Recorded in Chicago, the 12 songs all hearken back to Taylor's early years in the Windy City. They range from the humorous truth of "Piece Of Man" to the rocking blues advice of "Better Watch Your Step", to the tough street scene of "Bad Avenue" (done in classic Muddy Waters style), to Koko's version of Memphis Minnie's "Black Rat," a song she used to sing as a teenager. "I put my heart and soul into everything that I do," says Taylor. "I worked long and hard on "Old School," and I want my fans to enjoy it as much as I do."

Live, she simply cannot be matched in her power and raw talent.

A large number of area residents gathered at the M & R Triple T Ranch near Strathcona for a trail ride and cancer benefit. The event was sponsored by The M & R Triple T Ranch and North Country Horsemen Saddle Club. Funds raised during the event will be donated to "The Filling the Gap" program, which was developed to lessen the financial burden for Altru Cancer Center patients who need to travel from northeastern North Dakota or northwestern Minnesota to receive cancer treatment. Funds are used to help pay for lodging, transportation and nutritional assistance. It was announced Tuesday, Aug. 12, that after expenses, over $7,000 had been raised at the trail ride for cancer.

to be reduced. Franken talked about his Apollo project, a reference to the kind of effort the nation put into putting a man on the moon, but focusing that kind of effort on renewable energy. "The natural resources we have right here in Minnesota – not just corn and soybeans and biomass and wind, but innovation and creativity and brainpower – can lead to amazing breakthroughs if we commit to this undertaking," states Franken in a position paper.

The speech was well received by this crowd. Many admitted later that they had been uncertain about who they would vote for, but now said they would now support him and "liked his politics."

Many in the crowd sought his autograph, some sought support of specific legislation, such as the mental health parity and chemical dependency bill now in the Senate. Others shared their advice: "Be sure to know the price of corn, wheat, barley and corn while campaigning in northwestern Minnesota."

Party officials said it was a good speech and a good response. With Sen. Obama's popularity soaring, enthusiasm of the DFL party faithful is higher than it's been in awhile.

Congressman Collin Peterson talked about the challenges he faced in crafting a Farm Bill and why it's so important now to elect members of the DFL party and overcome obstacles that thwart efforts to create a better Farm bill and other legislation. In trying to reach a successful compromise, Peterson said he worked with the President and put himself out on a limb, but the President vetoed it anyway. Because of more hard work, the veto was overridden.

The effort to craft a better Farm bill perhaps highlights the division in the nation and the degree to which opponents will go in order to obtain political gain.

Sen. LeRoy Stumpf noted that perhaps the DFL party will now have more than enough power to override vetoes.

Rep. Dave Olin's message to take back the state and country also helped build up enthusiasm at this first-ever event in Pennington County.

Franken and members of the party are in the midst of visiting with voters in northwestern Minnesota. On Thursday, Franken's "Planting the Seeds Tour," stopped in St. Cloud, Alexandria, Moorhead, Thief River Falls and Roseau. His plans for Friday included stopping in Crookston, East Grand Forks, Bemidji and the Red Lake nation.

The statue of a Chippewa Indian stands at the entrance to the Old Crossing Park in Huot. In his left hand is a pipe and his right is extended in a gesture of peace. The monument was dedicated on June 25, 1933, to commemorate the 70th anniversary of the signing of the Old Crossing Treaty. Instead of commemorating a conflict, the statue is a monument of a peace pact. The statue will be a focal point at the Chautauqua and French Festival on Saturday, Aug. 23 and Sunday, Aug. 24, when "The Story of Old Crossing: The Treaty of 1863" will be told at Readers' Theaters at the park. "Say Yes to No" author visits Service Cooperative said they are very excited to have Walsh present a workshop in Thief River Falls.

This is the sixth year NWSC has brought in a speaker for professionals and parents at the beginning of the year. Heinrichs said she believes the reaction from area school districts has been very positive. Most school districts could not afford to bring in world-renowned speakers.

The morning sessions are strictly for educators, and both sessions are full. The evening session is free and open to parents.

Walsh is a highly sought after international speaker. His presentations focus on brain development, adolescence, the impact of media on children and the factors that influence school performance, literacy and violence prevention.

One of his books is titled "No: Why Kids of All Ages Need to Hear It and Why Parents Need to Say It."

Kids today spend 44.5 hours a week in front of electronic screens, more time than any other activity except sleeping. As a result, children are exposed to over one million Yes messages a year, nurturing a rising epidemic of Discipline Deficit Disorder in kids. The constant barrage of Yes messages undermines crucial character traits for success, including self-reliance, respect, integrity and the ability to delay gratification. The social and economic ramifications cannot be understated. Research shows that self-discipline is twice as strong a predictor of school success as intelligence. Kids may be as smart as ever, but a culture of "More, Easy, Fast and Fun" is undermining what really counts in the classroom and what will carry children into thriving adult lives.

City reachea agreement with BNSF Railroad

Fosston - "The Fosston City Council has come to an agreement with Burlington Northern Santa Fe Railroad, which would allow an important alleyway to remain open to property owners.

"The disputed roadbed runs along tho company's main line between North Larson and Kaiser avenues. It was constructed on BNSF's right-of-way and has been in use for several years.

"The conflict was spawned by a letter sent to railroad officials last year from property owner Dennis Lene, which pointed out the city had been illegally using the alleyway. Lene, whose land adjoins it, had made several complaints to the city about alleged heavy traffic and speeding.

"As a result, the railroad demanded that the alley either be closed or the city pay a yearly lease of $1,800. That amount later dropped to $1,200 a year.

"Nonetheless, the cost would have been passed on to those who reside along that stretch. Several property owners expressed their concern at a public meeting in November 2007. If the alley would be closed, the move would have prevented access to two of the homes and made it difficult for others.

"Further investigation into the matter showed the city and BNSF had a lease agreement drawn up in the 1980s, but, for unknown reasons, it was never finalized.

"After further investigation, a third option was opened. That was for the city to agree to a permanent easement. It would be a one-time cost of $13,000 and another $10,000 for a fence to run along the alley. This was to be placed 25 feet from the center of the main line.

"After a brief discussion, City Council members voted for the easement at their regular meeting Aug. 11." - The Thirteen Towns of Fosston, Aug. 19, 2008, by Dan Kindall

Police Chief Bob Cudaback retires

Warroad - "On Aug. 14, Robert Cudaback retired from his position as chief of police for the city of Warroad."

"Sgt. Anthony Miller will be temporarily taking over the day-to-day operations at the department." The city will immediately begin the search for Cudaback's successor. - Warroad Pioneer, Aug. 20, 2008, submitted by Acting City Administrator Kathy A. Lovelace

County supports Tri-River Pioneers

Red Lake Falls - "The Red Lake Co. commissioners held their regular meeting Aug. 12."

"Representatives from Tri-River Pioneers Inc. met with the commissioners to request financial assistance for their work-in-progress museum in Plummer. The museum displays antique farm equipment and other local heritage items.

"Due to the demand of items to be placed in the museum, Tri-River Pioneer volunteers are working on building an addition. The funds for the addition are running low.

"The county commissioners agreed the museum is adding to tourism in Red Lake County and is something they would support. They unanimously voted to provide $5,000 now and look at offering $2,000 a year, to be voted on each year." - Red Lake Falls Gazette, Aug. 20, 2008, by Destiny Harmoning

CAP conducts exercises in area

Thief River Falls hosted a Group one Civil Air Patrol search and rescue exercise Saturday and Sunday. About 60 people and 13 aircraft participated in the event.

Civil Air Patrol conducts at least one search and rescue exercise in each of its four groups once a year. The events help participants prepare for the real thing.

Thief River Falls Squadron Commander Dick Zeman was pleased with the turnout. Many had to travel long distances.

He explained that although this was a Group 1 exercise, which includes squadrons from Duluth, Grand Rapids, Walker, Bemidji and Thief River Falls, CAP members from throughout the state could participate in the exercise. Several participants came from the Twin Cities area.

Zeman said the exercise allows participants learn skills necessary for real search and rescue missions, which is why this activity is so important. The activities this weekend included grid searches and searches by ground crews. Scenarios for the events included finding an emergency locator transmitter, a lost hunter or hiker and a missing person. Air crews faced additional challenges that included flying a fully loaded aircraft, navigating a long route to a specific

The Thief River Falls Quilters Guild will present the Third Annual Quilters College on Saturday, Sept. 13. The one-day event will be held at Lincoln High School in Thief River Falls, with sessions scheduled from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Fifty-six classes have been scheduled throughout the six-hour day. Scheduled classes are geared toward all experience levels, from beginners who have never quilted, to experienced quilters who may be looking for new techniques, new patterns, and other tips and tools.

"It's a day for all stitchers to unite in camaraderie with needle and thread and cloth in hand to share sisterly love as we absorb more knowledge and love for this art form we call quilt making," said Babes Johnson, one of the Thief River Falls Quilters Guild members who organized the event. "You will literally stitch 'til you drop."

The Quilters College will be held in eight rooms at Lincoln High School. Each class session is between 25 and 35 minutes in length, with seven sessions planned throughout the day. Breaks are also planned throughout the day. Several vendors will also be onsite to sell quilting notions. Space is limited. To pre-register, contact Babes Johnson at 681-6780.

Roseau to get biomass project grant

A $300,000 Biomass Energy Program grant has been awarded to Roseau to design and build a gasifer plant that will produce electricity.

Wednesday, Aug. 20, the Minnesota Department of Employment and Economic Development (DEED) announced that it had approved funding under the new Biomass Energy Program for three projects in Greater Minnesota, one of which is in Roseau.

DEED officials announced that a $343,000 grant had been awarded to:

- Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg Public Schools in west central Minnesota to install a school heating system that will burn wood chips and corn cobs;
- Winona in southeastern Minnesota, $337,500 for a system that will capture and pre-treat methane gas for use in a micro-turbine generator that will produce electricity; and
- Roseau in northwestern Minnesota, $300,000 to design and build a gasifer plant that will produce electricity.

"The Biomass Energy Program is part of an overall effort in the state to conserve energy and reduce reliance on fossil fuels such as oil and natural gas," said DEED Commissioner Dan McElroy. "These three projects illustrate that Minnesotans are using their ingenuity and initiative to address our energy needs."

The 2008 Minnesota Legislature allocated $1.75 million for the Biomass Energy Program for infrastructure improvements related to biomass energy projects. Under the criteria of the program, each project must demonstrate reduced usage of non-renewable fuel and energy in a public-owned facility or system by using renewable energy technology.

Each community must provide matching funds of at least 50 percent for each project.

Three other projects in Greater Minnesota are under consideration for grants from the program, pending local approval of matching funds. There was no word as to which communities in Greater Minnesota were being considered. Communities in the Twin Cities metropolitan area are not eligible for the program.

Proud purple Prowler goes to the Vikings

An Arctic Cat Prowler XTX 700 will be leading the Minnesota Vikings football team onto the field at every home game. Tuesday, Aug. 19, Arctic Cat displayed the proud, purple Prowler at its plant in Thief River Falls.

Gary Nelson, Arctic Cat promotions specialist, said the Prowler would be delivered to the Metrodome and the Vikings on Thursday, Aug. 21.

Nelson explained that the relationship between Arctic Cat and the Vikings began 10 or 12 years ago. At the time the relationship involved helping support the Minnesota Vikings Children's Charity Fund. Gradually, the relationship has evolved. In recent years, Arctic Cat and Viking players and cheerleaders have participated in a charity ride at Mille Lacs. The Vikings also have used snowmobiles and ATVs. Last year, Arctic Cat provided the Vikings with a Prowler, but it wasn't up to the level of the custom 2009 Prowler XTX 700 that will be delivered on Thursday.

Nelson said Arctic Cat received permission to use Viking colors and logos, and that the work was done entirely inhouse. Nelson said Corey Freisen, Arctic Cat stylist, created the design.

Nelson said Arctic Cat is proud of its relationship with the Vikings and all the good things that have come out of that relationship, and looks forward to continuing this relationship.

The proud, purple Prowler will be used to lead the team out at every home game. It's a two-year program at the conclusion of which Arctic Cat hopes it can be used for the Children's Charity Fund.

Arctic Cat has unveiled the Prowler XTX 700 that will be used to lead the Minnesote Vikings footbell teem into the stedium et every home game. The design work was done inhouse by Corey Freisen.

Education hearing in TRF

State Representative Mindy Greiling and members of a key House Education Committee will hold several public hearings and an informal listening session in northern Minnesota on Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 25 and 26 to share information about legislative plans for significant education funding reform.

One of those meetings will be in Thief River Falls. The public hearing will be at 7 p.m. on Monday, Aug. 25, in the Lincoln High School cafeteria.

Say Yes to No

Say yes to no is becoming a more widely acknowledged phrase among parents, teachers and individuals who work with children. On Tuesday, Aug. 26, David Walsh will bring that message to Thief River Falls.

Walsh's appearance in Thief River Falls is being sponsored by Northwest Service Cooperative. On Aug. 26 he will deliver two presentations to teachers from at least a dozen school districts. A session for the public will be presented from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the Lincoln High School auditorium. The session is free of charge.

The heat of summer is upon us and who wants to make meals? If you can do them ahead of time, so much the better. Try these.

Tired of that macaroni salad with the garlicky Italian dressing? This one will titillate your taste buds (and it has nutritional info too), and you make your own dressing so you can control the spices:

ORIENTAL PASTA SALAD

Diane Molberg
Emerold Park, Saskatchewan

2 cups uncooked elbow macaroni (other types of macaroni are fine too if you are not watching your diet too closely)
2 large carrots, cut into 1 inch strips
1 cup snow peas, halved
2 green onions with tops, sliced
1/2 cup thinly sliced sweet red pepper
Dressing:
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 cup sour cream
1 tablespoon cider or red wine vinegar
1 tablespoon soy sauce
1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
1/4 teaspoon pepper

Cook macaroni according to package directions; drain and rinse in cold water. Place in large bowl and add carrots, peas, onions and red pepper.

In small bowl, whisk dressing ingredients until smooth. Pour over salad and toss to coat. Cover and refrigerate at least 2 hours. Recipe serves 7.

Nutritional info: One (1 cup) serving (with fat-free mayonnaise, nonfat sour cream and light soy sauce) equals 138 calories, 215 mg sodium, 1 mg chol, 27 gm carb, 5 gm protein, 1 g fat. Diabetic Exchange is 1 1/2 starch and 1 vegetable.

One more tasty macaroni salad, this one with salami and another delicious home-made dressing. Remember, if using fresh herbs from your garden you can use double or triple the dry amount:

SALAMI & SHELLS SALAD

Carol Smith
New Berlin, WI

7 ounces uncooked small pasta shells
1 cup halved cherry tomatoes
1 cup halved ripe olives
6 ounces mozzarella cheese, cut into thin strips
4 ounces salami of your choice, cut into thin strips
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
4 green onions, sliced
Dressing:
1/3 cup vegetable oil
3 tablespoons cider or red wine vinegar
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon (dried) basil
1 teaspoon dried oregano
1/4 teaspoon garlic powder

Cook pasta according to package directions. Drain and rinse in cold water. Place in large bowl. Add next 6 ingredients.

In a jar with tight lid, combine dressing ingredients. Shake well. Pour over salad and toss to coat. Chill until serving time. Recipe serves 8-10 people.

GARDEN BEAN SALAD

Mildred Sherrer
Bay City, TX

2 cans (16 ounces each) kidney beans, rinsed and drained
2 cans (15 ounces each) garbanzo beans, rinsed and drained
2 medium carrots, grated
1 small cucumber, peeled, seeded and diced
1 small zucchini, diced
5 medium radishes, sliced
2/3 cup olive or vegetable oil
1/3 cup cider or red wine vinegar
1 teaspoon Italian seasoning
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
1/2 teaspoon onion powder
1/2 cup shredded Swiss cheese

Combine first 6 ingredients in bowl. Combine oil, vinegar, all seasonings and salt in small bowl and mix well. Pour over beans and toss. Cover and refrigerate at least 2 hours. Top with cheese before serving. Use slotted spoon to leave liquid in bowl when serving. Serves 18-20 people.

Are you finally getting a few tomatoes? If you have the little ones, here's a tasty idea for snacks, hors d'oeuvres or a nice little healthy side dish to your meal:

CHEESE-STUFFED CHERRY TOMATOES

Mary Lou Robison
Miami, FL

1 pint cherry tomatoes
4 ounces crumbled feta or blue cheese
1/2 cup finely chopped red onion
1/2 cup olive or vegetable oil
1/4 cup cider or red wine vinegar
1 tablespoon dried oregano
Salt and pepper to taste

Cut a thin slice off top of each tomato. Scoop out and discard pulp and seeds. Invert tomatoes onto paper towels to drain.

Meanwhile, combine cheese and onion. In a jar with a tight-fitting lid, make dressing by combining oil, vinegar, oregano, salt and pepper. Shake well and refrigerate at least 30 minutes. Fill cherries with cheese mixture and pour dressing over just before serving.

Want an easy dessert? How about nice, cold ice cream?

ICE CREAM CRUNCH

Carol Seybert
Willmar

1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup packed brown sugar
3 cups crispy rice cereal
2 cups flaked coconut
1 cup chopped nuts (mixed or peanuts)
1/2 gallon vanilla ice cream, softened

Cook butter and brown sugar over medium heat until butter is melted and sugar is dissolved. In large bowl, combine cereal, coconut and nuts. Add sugar mixture and stir until well coated.

Press half of mixture in greased 9x13 inch pan. Spread with ice cream and top with remaining cereal mixture. Freeze until firm.

Would you like a little hot fudge on that dessert? This one will be perfect (and quick to make in the microwave too):

HOMEMADE HOT FUDGE

Sharon Mensing
Greenfield, IA

1/2 cup sugar
1 tablespoon cocoa
2 1/2 teaspoons cornstarch
1/2 cup water
2 teaspoons butter
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
Vanilla ice cream

In 1 quart microwave-safe dish, combine sugar, cocoa, cornstarch and water until smooth. Cover and microwave on high for 4 minutes or until mixture boils, stirring twice. Stir in butter and vanilla until blended. Serve warm over ice cream, cake, fruit or the above dessert. Yummy.

EDITORIAL OPINIONS

Dave Hill, Editor

Editorial opinion published under this heading is intended to stimulate thinking and discussion among our readers. Unless specified otherwise, the editorials are written by Editor Dave Hill and do not represent opinion of other staff members. Opinions in items from other publications may not coincide with the editor's own views but are offered for their general interest.

Important education hearing scheduled

Area residents, particularly school administrators from throughout northwest Minnesota, would be well advised to attend a public hearing and informal listening session with members of the House Education Committee in Thief River Falls on Monday, Aug. 25.

For years, administrators and staff of school districts in northwestern Minnesota have complained about the unfair and complicated funding formula. Apparently, legislators listened. The House K-12 Education Finance Committee is now holding hearings to get feedback from the public about House File 4178, an education funding reform plan introduced during the 2008 session that many are calling the "New Minnesota Miracle." Proponents are saying that the plan would simplify and increase state public school funding, reduce property taxes, and lay a foundation for every student to succeed when they graduate from high school. That sounds like a lot to offer.

Rep. Mindy Greiling, who chairs the committee, is said to be pleased with the innovation and accountability measures in the plan that will be phased in over six years. The plan includes a requirement that districts use a portion of their basic revenue for innovative, research-based programs to improve academic performance.

Parents and educators in northwestern Minnesota have a big stake in the outcome and success or failure of this plan. It will have a significant impact on school districts and students in the region well into the future. The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. on Monday, Aug. 25, in the Lincoln High School cafeteria.

Time to file for election

The election filing period for jurisdictions without primaries is Aug. 26 through Sept. 9. That filing period will affect residents of most school districts and municipalities. If ever there was a time to put your hat in the ring, now is the time.

One of the best ways to serve your country and fellow citizens is through public office. Elected representatives direct and participate in many issues that have a significant impact on the lives of others, which can be very rewarding.

Because of the presidential election, voters are expected to turn out in large numbers in November. During this time, voters will be more likely to listen to, and discuss issues, issues that may be important to you. By deciding to throw your hat in the ring, you'll be conducting a powerfully important and valuable exercise, whether you win or not.

Signs that more and more people are participating in this process are cropping up everywhere. Sometimes those signs are cropping up in the wrong places. The Minnesota Department of Transportation is reminding candidates that campaign signs on highway right-of-way is prohibited. Signs also may not be placed on private property outside the right-of-way without a landowner's consent. For more information about where you can place your signs, log onto www.dot.state.mn.us/information/districts.html.

FSA clarifies requirements for Livestock Forage Disaster Program

The Pennington and Marshall County Farm Service Agencies (FSA) remind producers that the 2008 Farm Bill, enacted on June 18, 2008, created the Livestock Forage Disaster Program (LFP). To be eligible for LFP, livestock producers must purchase a policy or plan of insurance for insurable grazing land or file with FSA the required paperwork and pay the administrative fee for non-insurable grazing land. March 15, 2008, was the closing date in Minnesota for the Non-insured Crop Disaster Assistance Program (NAP) for grazing land incurring losses.

Because the 2008 Farm Bill was enacted after the March application closing date, a waiver has been authorized in the 2008 Farm Bill. The waiver allows producers to pay by Sept. 16, 2008, a "buy-in" fee, to be eligible for LFP for grazing lands for which they did not timely purchase crop insurance or NAP coverage for calendar year 2008.

For producers to be eligible for crop year 2008 assistance under LFP, producers must, for all the grazing land they have an interest in, do either of the following:

- Had previously obtained a policy or plan of insurance from a Risk Management insurer for 2008 crops
- File the required paperwork with FSA and pay the administrative fee by Sept. 16, 2008, for NAP.

Producers with questions regarding LFP requirements should contact their local FSA County Office or the Pennington County FSA Office at 681-1612 ext. 2.

Rural Reflections

Lunch with Casey

A few weeks ago, I sat in the hospital parking lot trying to decide if I really needed to workout on a Saturday. I had already made my decision to skip it when my nephew, Jamie, pulled up behind me and parked for a little gab session. We decided that lunch would be almost as healthy as working out so instead we headed for The Lantern.

What was to be a nice lunch turned into something even better when Jamie opened the back door to his vehicle; a car seat containing his son, Casey. Lisa and I are Casey's godparents, and two of his biggest fans. The first time I saw Casey I puzzled as he reminded me of someone, then I realized he looked a little like me. I can't tell you how nice that was. Nelson children are born half grown, and Casey is no different. He is built is such a way that he will become familiar with the "husky boys" section at the clothing store. In my youth and as a young Nelson child, my mom would buy adults' pants, then cut the inseam down to the point that bell-bottom jeans usually became straight leg by the time she was done. Most of us are pretty easygoing also, which seems to be the direction in which Casey is heading. He has the demeanor of a person on his way to a picnic, which makes anywhere he is, better.

When our meals arrived, Jamie broke up some potatoes for Casey to eat along with dry cereal. Our conversation was pleasant, but to Casey, it must have been hilarious. He alternately threw down bits of French fry and Cheerios through the open smile on his face. Even when Jamie left the table for a minute, Casey's eyes followed him a few feet, but he eventually was satisfied to laugh at me and just enjoy dinner with "the boys." Casey's lunch was supplemented by some formula, which must look awfully good to a little boy. I believe I saw love in his eyes when Jamie pulled out the bottle. I don't recall what I ate that day, but I will always remember how good the company was.

Casey would never admit it, (he can't talk, yet), but he is a ladies man. After dinner, every available woman zeroed in on this little guy, as they were immediately charmed by his good looks and happy demeanor. Some of the ladies were working, some were eating, but everything stopped in their lives at the point where Casey entered. It's really hard to leave somewhere public with this little guy as people just want a little of his time.

Lunch was over. Jamie put Casey back in his car seat and we said our goodbyes. I wondered how Casey had become such a nice little boy and so much fun. I then considered how his father was built somewhat square when he was little, how nice he was as a little boy and how much fun we used to have going out to eat. I guess I don't have to wonder anymore.

Thank You...

A sincere "THANK YOU" to all of the people who made our "Music Feast" in the park a huge success once again! A special thanks to Gary Efta and Efta Produce for again donating 18 dozen ears of their super delicious corn on the cob!! It made a wonderful addition to our supper. A big "thank you" to the musicians (Bach Family Group, The Beito Family, and the Trinity Trio Group) who donated their time and talents to provide excellent entertainment during supper. The gazebo and Floyd B. Olson Park made a perfect setting for our picnic - "thank you" to Madelyn Vigen, the Parks Dept., and the City of Thief River Falls employees for providing and placing the benches and connecting our power source, and to the Pennington County Fair Board for the use of their picnic tables. It was truly a group effort and could not have been done without the help and donations from our loyal church members and friends. THANK YOU!!

We would especially like to thank ALL of the people who supported us with their free-will offerings and shared fellowship. (Come and join us for worship some Sunday morning at 9 a.m.)

God's Blessings to all from the congregation and church council of Oak Ridge Lutheran Church and Pastor Rena Peterson.

Dave Hill, Editor

Editorial opinion published under this heading is intended to stimulate thinking and discussion among our readers. Unless specified otherwise, the editorials are written by Editor Dave Hill and do not represent opinion of other staff members. Opinions in items from other publications may not coincide with the editor's own views but are offered for their general interest.

Important education hearing scheduled

Area residents, particularly school administrators from throughout northwest Minnesota, would be well advised to attend a public hearing and informal listening session with members of the House Education Committee in Thief River Falls on Monday, Aug. 25.

For years, administrators and staff of school districts in northwestern Minnesota have complained about the unfair and complicated funding formula. Apparently, legislators listened. The House K-12 Education Finance Committee is now holding hearings to get feedback from the public about House File 4178, an education funding reform plan introduced during the 2008 session that many are calling the "New Minnesota Miracle." Proponents are saying that the plan would simplify and increase state public school funding, reduce property taxes, and lay a foundation for every student to succeed when they graduate from high school. That sounds like a lot to offer.

Rep. Mindy Greiling, who chairs the committee, is said to be pleased with the innovation and accountability measures in the plan that will be phased in over six years. The plan includes a requirement that districts use a portion of their basic revenue for innovative, research-based programs to improve academic performance.

Parents and educators in northwestern Minnesota have a big stake in the outcome and success or failure of this plan. It will have a significant impact on school districts and students in the region well into the future. The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. on Monday, Aug. 25, in the Lincoln High School cafeteria.

Time to file for election

The election filing period for jurisdictions without primaries is Aug. 26 through Sept. 9. That filing period will affect residents of most school districts and municipalities. If ever there was a time to put your hat in the ring, now is the time.

One of the best ways to serve your country and fellow citizens is through public office. Elected representatives direct and participate in many issues that have a significant impact on the lives of others, which can be very rewarding.

Because of the presidential election, voters are expected to turn out in large numbers in November. During this time, voters will be more likely to listen to, and discuss issues, issues that may be important to you. By deciding to throw your hat in the ring, you'll be conducting a powerfully important and valuable exercise, whether you win or not.

Signs that more and more people are participating in this process are cropping up everywhere. Sometimes those signs are cropping up in the wrong places. The Minnesota Department of Transportation is reminding candidates that campaign signs on highway right-of-way is prohibited. Signs also may not be placed on private property outside the right-of-way without a landowner's consent. For more information about where you can place your signs, log onto www.dot.state.mn.us/information/districts.html.

FSA clarifies requirements for Livestock Forage Disaster Program

The Pennington and Marshall County Farm Service Agencies (FSA) remind producers that the 2008 Farm Bill, enacted on June 18, 2008, created the Livestock Forage Disaster Program (LFP). To be eligible for LFP, livestock producers must purchase a policy or plan of insurance for insurable grazing land or file with FSA the required paperwork and pay the administrative fee for non-insurable grazing land. March 15, 2008, was the closing date in Minnesota for the Non-insured Crop Disaster Assistance Program (NAP) for grazing land incurring losses.

Because the 2008 Farm Bill was enacted after the March application closing date, a waiver has been authorized in the 2008 Farm Bill. The waiver allows producers to pay by Sept. 16, 2008, a "buy-in" fee, to be eligible for LFP for grazing lands for which they did not timely purchase crop insurance or NAP coverage for calendar year 2008.

For producers to be eligible for crop year 2008 assistance under LFP, producers must, for all the grazing land they have an interest in, do either of the following:

- Had previously obtained a policy or plan of insurance from a Risk Management insurer for 2008 crops
- File the required paperwork with FSA and pay the administrative fee by Sept. 16, 2008, for NAP.

Lunch with Casey

A few weeks ago, I sat in the hospital parking lot trying to decide if I really needed to workout on a Saturday. I had already made my decision to skip it when my nephew, Jamie, pulled up behind me and parked for a little gab session. We decided that lunch would be almost as healthy as working out so instead we headed for The Lantern.

What was to be a nice lunch turned into something even better when Jamie opened the back door to his vehicle; a car seat containing his son, Casey. Lisa and I are Casey's godparents, and two of his biggest fans. The first time I saw Casey I puzzled as he reminded me of someone, then I realized he looked a little like me. I can't tell you how nice that was. Nelson children are born half grown, and Casey is no different. He is built is such a way that he will become familiar with the "husky boys" section at the clothing store. In my youth and as a young Nelson child, my mom would buy adults' pants, then cut the inseam down to the point that bell-bottom jeans usually became straight leg by the time she was done. Most of us are pretty easygoing also, which seems to be the direction in which Casey is heading. He has the demeanor of a person on his way to a picnic, which makes anywhere he is, better.

When our meals arrived, Jamie broke up some potatoes for Casey to eat along with dry cereal. Our conversation was pleasant, but to Casey, it must have been hilarious. He alternately threw down bits of French fry and Cheerios through the open smile on his face. Even when Jamie left the table for a minute, Casey's eyes followed him a few feet, but he eventually was satisfied to laugh at me and just enjoy dinner with "the boys." Casey's lunch was supplemented by some formula, which must look awfully good to a little boy. I believe I saw love in his eyes when Jamie pulled out the bottle. I don't recall what I ate that day, but I will always remember how good the company was.

Casey would never admit it, (he can't talk, yet), but he is a ladies man. After dinner, every available woman zeroed in on this little guy, as they were immediately charmed by his good looks and happy demeanor. Some of the ladies were working, some were eating, but everything stopped in their lives at the point where Casey entered. It's really hard to leave somewhere public with this little guy as people just want a little of his time.

Lunch was over. Jamie put Casey back in his car seat and we said our goodbyes. I wondered how Casey had become such a nice little boy and so much fun. I then considered how his father was built somewhat square when he was little, how nice he was as a little boy and how much fun we used to have going out to eat. I guess I don't have to wonder anymore.

Prowlers start tennis season with tourneys

Thief River Falls girls high school tennis team opened its 2008 season by participating in tournaments at Park Rapids Saturday (Aug. 16) and Pine City Monday (Aug. 18).

The Prowlers finished third, just three points behind the first place Panthers, in the eight-team Park Rapids Invitational, but slipped into a seventh place tie against a much-tougher field at the eight-team Pine City Invitational.

"Typical first matches," reported Thief River Falls coach Corey Thorson. "We made some mistakes, but we did all right for the first time out."

Saturday, Park Rapids Area won team honors with 24 points, followed closely by Roseau with 22 and Thief River Falls 21.

Monday, the Prowlers' results changed as they ran up against a line-up that included four 2007 state tournament teams. Mounds Park Academy, the defending Class A state champion, won it with 34 points. Rochester Lourdes and Staples/Motley finished second and third with 22 and 20 points, respectively. Thief River Falls picked up just six points.

"We played about the same as we did in Park Rapids, but the competition level went way up," reported Thorson. "It was an eye-opener for some of the girls."

Senior Carli Sandahl was the Prowlers' lone champion at Park Rapids, winning top honors at No. 1 singles. But she had to retire after aggravating an old arm injury while playing No. 1 doubles at Pine City.

Kaylee Norlin (No. 4 singles) and Cheyenne Horien-Sam Buck (No. 1 doubles) were runner-up finishers at Park Rapids, where consolation titles went to Katie Rook (No. 3 singles) and a combination of Chelsie Weeding, Hannah Anderson and Jess Hutchinson (No. 3 doubles).

Team Totals

■ Park Rapids Invitational - Park Rapids Area 24, Roseau 22, Thief River Falls 21, Moorhead 17, East Grand Forks 13, Minnewaska Area 13, Fergus Falls 12, Wadena-Deer Creek 11.

■ Pine City Invitational - Mounds Park Academy 26, Rochester Lourdes 22, Staples/Motley 20, Blake 19, Bemidji 19, Litchfield 6, Thief River Falls 6, Pine City 6

TRF drops 4-3 match in 2008 home opener

Grand Rapids/Greenway picked up two wins in singles and two more in doubles to edge Thief River Falls 4-3 Wednesday, spoiling the Prowlers' 2008 girls high school tennis home opener.

Both teams played shorthanded, explained Thief River Falls head coach Corey Thorson. "They were missing the No. 2 and 4 singles, and we were missing our No. 1 singles. We were pretty evenly matched."

The Prowlers picked up points from Chelsie Weeding at No. 3 singles, Julie Piche No. 4 singles and Katie Rook-Zoe Pietras-Swanton at No. 2 doubles.

Thief River Falls' top singles player, Carli Sandahl, sat out the match due to an arm injury.

It was the first dual of the year for the Prowlers, who opened the season by playing in tournaments at Park Rapids and Pine City.

TRF Results

■ Singles - 1. Jaime LaCoursiere lost 6-1, 6-2; 2. Kaylee Norlin lost 6-2, 3-6, 6-4; 3. Chelsie Weeding won 7-6 (5), 6-1; 4. Julie Piche won 6-7 (4-), 6-4, 7-6 (5).

TRF swimmers make debut Monday

Girls high school swimming starts Monday when Thief River Falls opens its 2008 schedule with an appearance at the Detroit Lakes Invitational. The meet begins at noon.

Start No. 2 will be the Prowlers' Thursday, Sept. 4, home opener vs. Park Rapids Area. The dual will get under way at 5:30 p.m. in the Franklin Middle School pool.

Thirty swimmers in grades 6-12 are completing preseason workouts under the guidance of Thief River Falls head coach Lacy Knott.

That group includes seniors Katie Anndal, Kailey Bakken, Janessa Hansen, Corissa Kruse, Jami Lee and Hannah Waswick.

Others on the roster include juniors Rachel Benedict, Anne Hook, Krystal Roy, Dani Simenson, Lacey Stennes; sophomores Emi Bakken, Gracie Daniels, Meghan Jones, Kelly LaSalle, Muriah Steenerson, Bailey Sorvig; freshmen Alisa Moslof, Maura Nelson, Morgan Nunnedahl, Alyssa Vonasek; eighth grader Sydney Amundson; seventh

Terri Ueland returns to TRF cross country program...

New coach in familiar position

Terri Ueland is back in the saddle again. The former Thief River Falls boys and girls high school cross country coach has returned to direct the program in 2008.

Ueland stepped in when Rick Karboviak left after coaching the Prowlers the past three years to pursue job opportunities elsewhere.

A 1991 Lincoln High School graduate, Ueland was a cross country and track standout who continued her running career at Jamestown (N.D.) College, where she was captain of the cross country team. Returning to Thief River Falls after graduation, she was the head cross country coach and assistant track coach under Tim Olson for two years.

"I am very excited to be back," said Ueland. "I have taken ten-plus years off from coaching to raise our four children. Now they are in school, and it's time for me to do what I love to do. I have always known I would someday be back, and now is the day."

Ueland is working with a squad of 19 runners in grades 6-12, but Derek Lunde is the only senior in the group.

"As far as talent, it's too soon to tell exactly how we will finish in a race," said Ueland. "We have been working pretty hard, and they have great attitudes. I plan to put on a lot of miles throughout the season and have fun doing it. I love cross country and I hope to make it enjoyable for the whole team."

Directing both the boys and girls without an assistant coach, Ueland will be calling upon her captains and student manager to help with day-to-day team duties. "I have named Derek Lunde and Emily Robson as captains," she announced. "I explained my expectations and their responsibilities and I feel very comfortable they will do a great job. I am fortunate to have a student manager (Austyn Anderson) who knows everyone, which helps with names and paperwork."

Thief River Falls will make its 2008 debut Monday at the Moorhead Invitational. The Prowlers' annual Sports Boosters Invitational will be held Monday, Sept. 29, at the Thief River Golf Club.

"All of the runners come to practice eager to see what we are going to do that day," noted Ueland. "We will be dividing the squad into four teams for Super Teams competition throughout the season – something we did when Coach (Lynn) Dyer was my coach. We loved it, so I am going to continue with his idea. I have always looked up to the coaches I had who really loved the sport and hope my runners will do the same."

Volleyball team, coach reunited

■ Tammy Sparby back to lead veteran Prowlers

Seven letter winners returned, and so did head coach Tammy Sparby when Thief River Falls opened its 2008 high school volleyball practice Aug. 11.

Sparby announced earlier that she was stepping down after five years at the helm. But when a search for a replacement failed to fill the position, she agreed to put her resignation on hold.

And Sparby isn't regretting the decision to be on the bench for another year. "I love the game and love the girls too much just to have someone take over who really didn't want to do it," she explained.

The Prowlers may make Sparby's return a memorable one. A veteran line-up is staffed with a number of players who rank among the program's record-leaders in several statistical categories.

"We've got some height," reported Sparby. "We've got seven returning letter winners, and most of those were huge contributors last season."

Senior middle hitter Brittany Wiseth is a three-year letter winner. Senior outside hitters Haley Teie and Cassie Gunderson are both two-year letter winners.

Wiseth ranks No. 2 on the Thief River Falls career kills charts. By year's end she may be No. 1 in both kills and blocks to go along with her point-producing ability at the service line.

Teie provides a quick outside attack, pointed out Sparby, and ranks No. 3 on the all-time list for service aces, with the opportunity to move into the No. 1 spot.

Guzek is on the verge of moving into the top-ten list for both career assists and aces, Gunderson is a solid outside hitter, a top server and the strong leadership qualities that earned her the role of team captain.

Clark, noted Sparby, is the team leader on defense who has good court sense and can contribute at the service line.

graders Hannah Fladeland, Lexi Hjelseth, Ashley Jobe, Clem Mooney, Desirae Smith; and sixth graders Michaela Mylner, Carley Steenerson and Elizabeth Schmidt.

"We have a great group of kids out this year who are working really hard," said Knott. "These girls have set their goals very high and I look forward to watching them accomplish those goals."

It's a nice balance between experienced younger swimmers, according to Knott. "Our upperclassmen have really stepped up to provide some terrific leadership," she explained. "The seventh graders are excited to be able to participate in meets."

The early workouts were minus a number of swimmers at times, mentioned Knott. "We have had our fair share of injury and illness," she said. "Hopefully that is behind us and we can move on."

Work under way to improve Hwy. 89

A project to improve Highway 89, from north of Highway 11 in Roseau County to the Canadian border, is under way. The project began with the replacement of two culverts. Resurfacing of the 12.5-mile stretch of highway is expected to start Wednesday, Aug. 27. Weather permitting, the project is expected to be completed by Sept. 19.

Motorists can expect some intermittent delays with single-lane closures. Lane width is restricted to 11 feet. Flagging operations will be in place, along with a pilot car, to guide travelers safely through the work zone.

Fire burns about 40 acres in rural TRF

Fire burned about 40 acres of wheat Wednesday afternoon in rural Thief River Falls. No injuries were reported. Pictures from the fire will be included in the next edition of The Times.

At the time of the fire, Thief River Falls resident Pete Carlson was driving a combine on his field in Section 32 of North Township. According to the Thief River Falls Fire Department, a bearing or another piece on the combine's header malfunctioned. The item then became hot, causing the header to start on fire. Carlson tried to drive the combine off of the field; however, the fire then spread to the field. Carlson was able to safely escape the fire southwest of the intersection of Highways 1 and 59.

With regard to the combine, the damage was contained to the header. It was estimated that the combine's header sustained $14,000 in damage.

Twenty-three Thief River Falls firefighters responded to the scene. The fire department was dispatched to the scene at 2:10 p.m. Wednesday. Firefighters were on the scene for about one-and-a-half hours.

TRF resident to appear on the "Today" show

A Thief River Falls resident is scheduled to appear on the "Today" show Monday, Aug. 25.

Alicia Haviland will be interviewed about empty-nest syndrome on the "Today" show. The appearance is expected to air at 11 a.m. on NBC (Channel 11).

Keeping history of UFO car alive

The Marshall County Historical Society in Warren is keeping the history of the UFO car alive.

What would you do if you saw a UFO?

On a lonely isolated road almost 29 years ago on Aug. 27, 1979, Marshall County Sheriff's Deputy Val Johnson had to answer that question. While on routine patrol on Highway 220, the southbound Johnson saw a strange light hovering just above the road, according to official law enforcement documents. As he approached the light, as any law enforcement officer would do, he stated, "Something came at me," and thus started the incident that many experts call unexplained to this day.

Johnson was just one of many people who have reported seeing strange and unusual lights. However, none have had an incident similar to that of Johnson's. This encounter left actual physical evidence to his patrol car.

"I think if you speak to just about anyone these days, we all have had strange and unusual incidents that bring us to question whether we are alone out there. Is our government testing some new aircraft or weaponry, or is there some logical explanation for what we saw?" said Mike Johnson, director of the Marshall County Historical Society.

Mike Johnson believes many sightings have been explained through scientific or other means.

"When Deputy Johnson reported this incident to his superiors, I'm sure he questioned what would be the repercussions of doing so. It would have been just as easy to report that he struck a deer or other object. He knew he would be bringing into question his standing as a law enforcement officer and his word. He would be bringing the questions and scrutiny of the non-believers, the jokes by some and ultimately what or how this would impact his career as a law enforcement officer," said Mike Johnson. "With all these questions, Deputy Val Johnson did what he felt was his obligation as a law enforcement officer - report what he saw and experienced."

Through all the scrutiny of the experts who have viewed that patrol car, examined the scene, spoke to witnesses and so on, they have yet to bring a logical explanation to this incident. Mike Johnson said it doesn't mean there are aliens out there. "What it means is they have yet to identify the unidentified object as the source to this mystery," said Mike Johnson.

Through the years, Val Johnson's patrol car has been an object of deep curiosity and wonderment. The UFO car, as it has come to be called, has been in the care of the Marshall County Historical Society. During these past years, the UFO car continues to be an item of interest. Recently, the car was featured on a History Channel program. More recently, the History Channel has again showed interest in the case by filming a new episode for a program called "UFO Hunters."

Annually, people from all over the world come to see the UFO car and read about the incident. Mike Johnson said it doesn't seem that interest or curiosity has diminished over the years.

An amargancy locator transmitter is located by a Bamidji Civil Air Patrol ground taam during a training mission naar Thief Rivar Falla this past weekend.

Capt. Zeman (second from right), ground taam laadar, works on preparing a Bamidji Civil Air Patrol ground taam to go out on a search mission axarcise. About 60 mambers of tha Civil Air Patrol participated in a training axarcise in Thief Rivar Falls the weekand of Aug. 16-17.

search area, completing the search in the orea and then on to the mission base in Thief River Folls. Due to the range, crews had to use various communications channels to maintain contact with the mission base. Some of the mission scenarios also included practicing ocrial imaging, which is used for disaster relief missions, such as floods, hurricanes and earthquakes.

To participate in searches, individuals must have their 101 cards, said Zeman. The cards list what skills cardholders are capable of performing. Skills learned during exercises, like the one in Thief River Falls, help 101 card holders add to their qualifications and keep skills up-to-date.

The Civil Air Patrol was conceived in the late 1930s by legendary New Jersey oviation advocate Gill Robb Wilson, who foresaw aviation's role in war and general aviation's potential to supplement America's military operations. With the help of New York Mayor Fiorello La Guardia, the new Civil Air Patrol was established on Dec. 1, 1941, just days before the Japanese ottacked Pearl Harbor.

In 1946, Congress granted a charter to Civil Air Patrol, charging its members with three missions. First, CAP was to promote aviation. As years passed, that mission expanded to include aerospace education as well. Second, CAP was to provide a training program to support the nation's youth in contributing to society and preparing for successful adult lives. Finally, CAP was to continue its emergency services, the work for which CAP is still best known today.

To become a codet, individuals must be age 12 to 18. Cadets meet two hours per week and one Saturday per month, on average. They have opportunities to attend leadership encampments, career academies and international exchanges during the summer.

For more information about the Civil Air Potrol program, contact Dick Zeman ot 689-4921 or Paulette Odette, deputy commander for cadets, at 681-7729. There are 24 members in the Thief River Falls squadron, which was formed in 1992.

Meeting set to discuss school referendum

Red Lake Falls - "Independent School District 630 held its regular board meeting in Red Lake Falls Aug. 18.

"At the meeting, the school board decided to set aside Sept. 3 for a special meeting regarding the school referendum. This is a public meeting scheduled for 6 p.m. at the Lafayette High School media center.

"Topics of discussion at the meeting will be the referendum; setting goals for the staff development plan, which is submitted to the Minnesota Department of Education; and approving some late contracts for activities.

"The discussion regarding the referendum will involve deciding what the dollar amount will be and for how many years it will run.

"The referendum question will be on the November election ballot. If the referendum does not pass, the school district will lose approximately $450,000 in revenue, which will mean the district will have to cut that amount in programs, activities and services to manage the decrease in funding, according to Superintendent Joel Young.

"During the meeting, Young informed the board that the preliminary budget report will be ready for the September meeting." - Red Lake Falls Gazette, Aug. 27, 2008, by Destiny Harmoning

School boerd epproves new emergency notification system

Fosston - "The Fosston School District will have another tool under its belt this fall. At its regular meeting Aug. 21, school board members approved a measure instituting an emergency parental contact system called Instant Alert.

"Developed by Honeywell, the computer-based system is meant to assist school districts in contacting parents or guardians on school closings and bus delays, plus handle other emergency notification issues. It also could be used for more general communication purposes, such as issuing reminders for an event or change of schedule."

"Instant Alert would use Fosston's existing database with the opportunity for parents to go into the system, via the Internet, and update the information as needed. They also can choose the way messages are received – either through their home or work phones, e-mail, PDA, pager or cell phone."

"The cost for the Instant Alert system is based on the number of students and staff within a school district. Per the agreement with Honeywell, the Fosston School District would be charged $1,782.50 for this year. It would be subject to annual review, and the billing would be changed if there were a dramatic increase or decrease in student enrollment.

"Board members unanimously approved the measure to implement the Instant Alert system. According to Superintendent Gene Paulson, it is expected to be in place by October." - The 13 Towns of Fosston, Aug. 26, 2008, by Dan Kindall

Preparing for the first day of school

This past Tuesday afternoon, whila in tha midst of preparing her second grade classroom, Derci Geisar took a phone call about an e-mail.

Counting down the days until school begins

by April Scheinoha
Reporter

The halls were quiet late Tuesday afternoon at Challenger Elementary School in Thief River Falls. Not a creature was stirring except for the occasional teacher who was busily preparing his or her classroom.

School starts Tuesday, Sept. 2, for first through fifth graders in the Thief River Falls School District. Kindergartners start classes on Friday, Sept. 5.

In the second grade wing this past Tuesday afternoon, Darci Geiser began taping name labels onto her students' mailboxes. She looks forward to the new school year and to seeing her 24 students. "I'm excited to see how they are and how they work together," she said.

Every class is different. The students' personalities create an environment that is unmatched by any other class. Geiser eagerly awaits meeting her students, getting to know her students academically, and getting to know them and their families on a personal level. She hopes to create a classroom where her students feel safe, special, valued and respected. "It's just awesome to watch their bodies and their minds grow," Geiser said.

Last school year, Geiser began planning for the 2008-09 school year. During her first year in the school district, she took notes about what she wished to change. Time went by, and the summer flew by. Then her planning continued in earnest. The last weekend of July, she ventured to the school to ease back into the process of nurturing young minds. "It's nice to ease back in and have time to talk with your colleagues before you get so busy," she said.

As time went on, Geiser changed her classroom's arrangement, organized her classroom, threw out what she didn't need and began labeling everything else for her students. The clock was labeled to help the students tell time, and many other items were labeled. Their desks, which were yet to be labeled, were arranged in four pods of six.

This past week, Geiser's work continued at a more rapid pace. She prepared her classroom in between a meeting about curriculum, a meeting about literacy, a districtwide meeting, a schoolwide meeting and a grade level meeting.

Despite all the meetings and preparations necessary to ensure that the year starts off right, Geiser eagerly anticipates the start of the school year. She said, "I'm so proud of my students and can't wait to start that process again and watch them grow."

Say Yes to No

Author encourages educators and parents to learn to say No to kids

by David Hill
Editor

David Walsh, Ph.D., urged parents and educators to make a course correction, now. The author of the national best seller "Why Do They Act That Way? A Survival Guide to the Adolescent Brain for You and Your Teen," and his latest book "No: Why Kids - of All Ages - Need to Hear It and Ways Parents Can Say It", spoke in Thief River Falls Tuesday on the need to start saying yes to no.

For the success and safety of our children and our country's future, Walsh urged parents to get back on track.

Walsh presented two sessions to teachers from northwest Minnesota, and a third session to parents Tuesday evening. In all, he spoke to well over 1,200 people, and his message was the same - start saying yes to no.

Jean Heinrichs of Northwest Service Cooperative, which arranged for Walsh to speak in Thief River Falls, said the message was well received by educators.

And during his presentation, Walsh discussed anecdotal evidence that teachers are struggling with the disrespectful attitudes, poor study

Pennington Co. faces difficult budget decisions

by Scott DCamp
Reporter

Pennington County taxpayers could have been faced with a 9 percent tax levy increase next year. That is, if commissioners were allowed to adjust the county's tax levy to meet the 2009 budget the same way they have in previous years.

Nine percent is the preliminary figure Pennington County Auditor Ken Olson gave to commissioners during the Pennington County Board meeting Tuesday. But, because a three-year tax levy limit was passed by the Minnesota lawmakers earlier this year, commissioners instead face the difficult task of cutting over $300,000 from the preliminary 2009 budget.

The 9 percent levy increase would have generated an additional $532,440 in revenue for the county, that could be used to balance an already pared down budget in which most of the new revenue will go towards a previously budgeted county-wide health insurance increase of 25 percent.

Thursday, Olson attended the Northwest Service Co-operative's City, County and Other Governmental Agency Health Insurance Pool's annual renewal meeting, where he learned that the county's insurance pool would only see a 5.5 percent increase.

After the pleasant surprise in employee health insurance, the biggest budget increases are in the Human Services Fund and the Revenue Fund's budget for the Pennington County Jail. The preliminary Human Services tax levy is $2,150,000, a $224,795 increase (11.6 percent) over the 2008 levy. The jail budget lists a net deficit between revenue and expenditures of $663,958, which is up 56 percent

Sherry LaCoursiere
email: lacours@mncable.net

I love my Roseau County Historical Society Cookbook and that's where today's recipes came from..

This main dish meal is easy to fix in a hurry, something that you'll need now that school is starting. I haven't made it yet, but I want to try it, especially since I still have some broccoli florets in my garden. If you try it, you'll have to let me know if it is good:

CHICKEN & BROCCOLI ALFREDO
Mary Bergland

1 (16 ounce) package linguine spaghetti
2 cups fresh or frozen broccoli flowerets
4 tablespoons butter
2 pounds boneless, skinless chicken breasts, cubed
2 (10 3/4 ounces each) cans cream of mushroom soup
1 cup milk
1 cup grated Parmesan cheese
Pepper to taste

Cook linguine according to package, adding broccoli for last 4 minutes of cooking time. Drain.

Meanwhile, heat butter in skillet. Add chicken and cook until browned, stirring often. Add soup, milk, cheese, pepper and linguine mixture and heat through. Serve with additional Parmesan cheese. Recipe serves 8.

Anything easy that I can make ahead is something that sounds good to me. I love the lime salad made with cottage cheese, and I bet this one is good too:

EASY SALAD
Gladys Paulson

1 (12 ounce) carton cottage cheese
1 (3 ounce) package orange gelatin
1 small can mandarin oranges, drained
1 (9 ounce) carton whipped topping, thawed
1 small to medium can crushed pineapple, drained

Sprinkle gelatin over cottage cheese and mix well. Let stand 1/2 hour. Add oranges, topping and pineapple and refrigerate at least 1 hour before serving.

This would be a perfect accompaniment to the main dish above. A couple of small loaves instead of one big one would be nice too, so one could be frozen for a future quick meal:

FRENCH BREAD FOR BREAD MACHINES
Roxann Lee

4 1/2 ounces water
4 1/2 ounces milk
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
2 tablespoons oil
2 tablespoons sugar
3 cups regular flour
2 teaspoons dry yeast

Put water and milk in microwave for 40 seconds. Place all ingredients in bread machine as your machine directs. Mix on dough cycle.

Shape dough into an oblong or round loaf. Let rise 1 1/2 hours, until nicely shaped. Bake at 325 degrees for 15 minutes and then at 350 degrees for 15-20 minutes more until golden brown. Remove from pan to rack.

I love these bars, but make this recipe when you need to feed a bunch. They're very rich and you'll want to cut the bars small:

SOUR CREAM RAISIN BARS
Lillian Nelson and Marianne Kristofferson

2 cups raisins
Water to cook
Crust Mixture:
1 cup brown sugar
1 cup butter
1 1/2 cups quick oatmeal
1 teaspoon soda
1 2/3 cups flour

Filling

3 egg yolks
1 1/2 cups sour cream
1 cup white sugar
2 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 teaspoon vanilla

Boil raisins for 10 minutes in a little water (or use micro to cook until soft). Cool (Marianne's recipe said to drain, but I wouldn't).

Cream brown sugar and butter. Add oatmeal, soda and flour. Pat half of the mixture in 9x13 inch pan and bake 7 minutes at 350 degrees.

Meanwhile, mix egg yolks, sour cream, white sugar and cornstarch in saucepan. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add vanilla and raisins. Pour over baked mixture in pan and crumble remaining mixture over top. Bake at 350 degrees for about 30 minutes more until bubbly and browned.

North Country Food Bank celebrates 25 years

On Sept. 12, North Country Food Bank, Inc. celebrates 25 years of service to the people of northwest Minnesota and Grand Forks, N.D

From modest beginnings in 1983, the Food Bank has grown to reach thousands of people in big cities, small towns and rural areas. It distributes almost 165,000 pounds of food products to more than 160 hunger relief agencies, including the agencies in the local counties of Beltrami, Kittson, Marshall, Pennington, Polk, Red Lake and Roseau. The Food Bank has responded wherever the need to alleviate hunger exists. The headquarters began in Crookston, and has grown to a 14,236 square-foot distribution facility with trucking to distribute food.

The Food Bank relies on many of successful partnerships with food wholesalers, retailers and others to supply food for distribution in its services area. Some of its partners are America's Second Harvest (which will soon be known as Feeding America) and the United Way.

Many people often have the wrong assumption about a food bank. It is not a place where people stop and load up with boxes of food. Instead, the Food Bank is more like a wholesaler of donated surplus food. This surplus food would be wasted if not for the Food Bank's services. Food and support come from major food manufacturers and distributors, churches, civic groups, businesses and private individuals. The operation started small 25 years ago, and today distributes food through approximately 150 charitable feeding programs.

Food is a targeted need. For example, the Food Bank's primary target population is low-income, working poor, single-parent families and people experiencing homelessness. Many of these people seek assistance from local food shelves, emergency shelters and soup kitchens. Other recipients include low-income individuals in need of supplemental assistance, group homes, senior programs, youth programs, addiction treatment centers and domestic abuse programs. Where there is a need for food assistance, the Food Bank has been and will be there in the future.

The Food Bank's dedicated staff have worked hard to develop systems and networks designed to do one thing – get food out to where it is needed. The need is clear. In the 25 years the Food Bank has been collecting and distributing food, it has gone from distributing 250,000 pounds of food in 1983 to distributing more than two million pounds per year in 2008. Over the years, the Food Bank has grown and changed, and will continue to do so to meet needs in the future.

Warroad Wellness and Multi-Sport Center could become reality

Sept. 10 meeting planned for residents to learn about proposed complex

Many have heard rumblings about the possibility of a new wellness facility being built in Warroad. Is it a gym? Is it a pool? Is it a workout facility? Yes, yes and yes. Is there more? Oh yes. How much more … well, that's up to the Warroad community.

At this time, there are a number of possibilities for the complex, but to make this dream a reality, the entire community's input and support is vital. Residents will have an opportunity to learn more about the proposed complex and voice their opinions at an upcoming community meeting at 8 p.m., Sept. 10 at the Warroad School Mini-Theater..

Several key Warroad community members recently visited a community center in Dickinson, N.D., that has the attributes of what a wellness center could be. Gerold "Yogi" Koble was thrilled to be part of the tour of the West River Community Center.

"This is phenomenal! I'm excited; this can be used by everybody. We have dreamed of a building like this in Warroad for a long time, now it can become a reality," Koble said. "With this facility, we can grow our community bigger and grow our community healthier."

Over a dozen people from the Warroad community were involved in the tour to The West River Community Center in Dickinson, N.D. Everyone was equally impressed and encouraged by what the facility meant to that community and its people. The center in Dickinson includes the following amenities which are all possibilities for the proposed Warroad Wellness and Multi-Sport Center.

- Leisure Pool -The design of this area includes two water slides and a lazy river for recreation, therapy and swimming, and an area for children to play, complete with water sprays, jets and waterfalls as well as offering low resistance therapy for seniors. The zero depth area is great for small children and wheelchair access. There also is an area for spectator viewing and party room access.
- Indoor Playground -The indoor playground is a jungle paradise for young children and includes a maze and playground equipment themed for fun and learning for those 10 and under. It is a controlled indoor play space that includes drop-in childcare.
- Gymnasium - A main gym and multi-purpose athletic courts provide areas of play for volleyball, tennis, basketball, roller hockey, soccer, dances, trade shows, meetings and seminars.
- Climbing Wall - This spectacular wall is 23 feet high and a challenge at any level. It features six climbing stations, a free climb area, cushioned floor and is available for group rentals.
- Indoor Track – Whether it is hot or cold outside, folks can walk or jog in this climate controlled environment. The track features two lanes, with nine laps to a mile, with interior and exterior views throughout the track.
- Lounge/Vending/Game Room – For those who just wish for a place to hang out, this area includes a big screen TV, fireplace, computer stations, video games and snack area.
- Fitness Equipment – This area features two floors of state-of-the-art strength equipment, a variety of cardiovascular equipment, free weights, fit balls and TV's with Cardio Theater.
- Group Fitness – These fitness studios hold group fitness classes led by certified instructors. Classes include cardio, kid's fitness, senior fitness, kickboxing, Pilates, step, yoga and more.

Additional amenities for the Warroad Wellness and Multi-Sport Center could include in addition to a gymnasium, a basketball court field house that converts to an ice sheet, racquetball courts and a training center featuring batting cages, a golf simulator and acceleration training. The possibility of this type of facility being built in Warroad in the near future is very real. Planning for this project began nearly a year ago.

In the fall of 2007, a wellness committee was formed for the purpose of exploring the opportunity of a Warroad Wellness and Multi Sport Center. Initial talks resulted in the committee contracting a firm for the purpose of a feasibility study. The study was conducted via surveys and personal interviews and concluded with a very favorable representation of Warroad verifying the need and want for this project. From there, the committee grew and moved to the next step; identifying a mission statement, vision statement and title for the project. From that point, visits were made to a variety of wellness and multi sport centers located in Grand Forks, Fargo, Duluth and Dickinson. Of the facilities that were visited, the West River Community Center in Dickinson created the most inspiration as to what the Warroad Wellness and Multi-Sport Center could mean to the community. Art Brondli who recently toured the Dickinson Center said, "This will help improve our quality of life in Warroad, it will allow us to have the opportunity to spend time with our friends and meet new friends. This is an outstanding environment for people of all ages to come together."

"It's what people do in Dickinson," said Warroad Wellness committee member Scott Marvin. "They go daily for exercise and social interaction."

While on the trip, Warroad community members had the chance to hear from several residents of this small town in North Dakota. Olaf Sarvick, age 78, told the group, "It's a good place for me to get exercise … walking, swimming and floating in the river. I'm glad to be able to have a facility like this to come to. It's a benefit to our community and every time we walk, we see someone new."

The Warroad Wellness and Multi-Sport Center could do for Warroad what it has done for Dickinson. The facility has strengthened the community physically, economically and socially.

Recently, the committee met with Ballard King and Associates, a highly recommended consulting group with the purpose of identifying with statistically valid survey results, the level of need and financial ability our area has to support such a worthy venture. The study is currently in process with a final report expected by the end of the year. Before the report can be completed, the committee is requesting input from the public. This is a community project that requires community involvement.

The public is invited to a community input meeting Wednesday, Sept. 10 at 8 p.m. at the Warroad School Mini-Theater. The meeting will be facilitated by Jeff King of Ballard, King and Associates.

The Warroad Wellness and Multi Sport Center committee members are Brian Erickson, Scott Marvin, Mike Bahnmiller, Craig Oftedahl, Steve Bengston, Paul Marvin, Tom Goldsmith, Darrin Peterson and Conway Marvin. For further details on the West River Community Center in Dickinson, North Dakota, please visit www.dickinsonparks.org/WRCC.asp.

Rural Reflections

Grant Nelson

The comments published in this column are intended to stimulate thinking and discussion among our readers. They are written by independent columnists and do not represent the opinion of the staff or management of The Times/Northern Watch.

"By any other name."

Finding a topic is the toughest part of writing a weekly column. My co-worker, Jim Van Schaick, suggested this week's topic and for that I give him thanks. I should also publicly compliment him on his new wardrobe; nice shirt, Jim. This week, I want to talk about generic names for products we use every day and how they get started.

Most people I know refer to any tracked, earth-moving vehicle as a caterpillar. There are caterpillars that are manufactured by Caterpillar Incorporated and caterpillars that are produced by other companies. Daniel Best and Benjamin Holt aspired separately to create the first track-laying, steam-operated tractor, however Holt succeeded with the first such unit in 1904. The two men joined forces in 1925 and their efforts since that time have been under the Caterpillar name.

Kleenex tissues were first produced for make-up removal, and then graduated to their current use because of customer demand. Kleenex tissues increasingly replaced the handkerchief with the creation of the pop-up box of tissues in 1928. Some folks precede a sneeze with a request for a tissue, I usually ask for a Kleenex.

My favorite generic name involves the copier machine which I always refer to as a Xerox machine. Many of my co-workers are somewhat younger than me and grow puzzled when I refer to the copier as a Xerox. At times, I use the word as a verb which causes substantially more confusion than when I use it as a noun. It's a small issue, but Xerox really made its bones in business machines with this helpful tool.

So are the products that copy the original and are described by their competitors company's name as good as the original? Does any bulldozer move dirt just as well as the Caterpillar or is it like in the case of the Xerox machine where the quality decreases each time you make a copy of a copy?

If man is made as a reflection of his creator, then perhaps the copy is not as good. Then again, perhaps this innate perception of inferiority is what makes the copy try to become better than the original. It's like being the son of a great athlete who then becomes a yardstick against which you measure your own success. If this is the case, perhaps both the original and its copy are important but in different ways.

Caterpillar, Kleenex and Xerox created the field on which they play but their competitors have advanced the game and created new rules. A perfect creator will have no equal but perhaps even He learns from humanities' relentless drive to learn and become more like Him

Maybe I can take away this much from the situation; we will always pay homage to those that came first. Whether it's in how we refer to any track-laying machine, the box of tissue we ask for during a cold, the machine that's most often in demand at any office or the person for whom we set Sunday aside. That makes sense; good topic, Jim.

U of M Crookston receives economic development grant

The University of Minnesota at Crookston has received a $150,000 grant from the U.S. Department of Commerce for a project to provide technical assistance and other support to strengthen the competitiveness and diversification of the regional economy.

"I know that northwestern Minnesota has tremendous potential for economic development, and the U of M in Crookston has a lot to offer," said Sen. Amy Klobuchar. "It's tough right now, with the impact of high energy prices and current state of the national economy. But the important thing is to identify opportunities, whether short- or long-term, and deploy all the resources available to make it happen. That's what this federal support is for."

The project funding comes from a competitive grant process through the Economic Development Administration (EDA) of the Commerce Department. The EDA's "University Center Program" provides funding to higher education institutions throughout the United States for the support of local and regional economic development, with an emphasis on economically-distressed communities.

The grant program is designed to aid a higher education institution in applying its resources and know-how to assist long-term economic development efforts.

Klobuchar visited the University of Minnesota at Crookston in January this year for a roundtable discussion on both economic development and health care issues. During the past year, she has also visited numerous other communities in northwestern Minnesota for meetings with local businesses, farmers, health care providers and government officials – as well as stopping by local cafes to talk with area residents.

Klobuchar also maintains a regional office for northwestern and central Minnesota, based in Moorhead.

Traffic patterns change with first day of school

Tuesday, Sept. 2, is the official first day of school for public school students in Minnesota. With thousands of students returning to schools, that means there will be a significant shift in traffic patterns throughout our communities. Excited students and parents may not be watching in every direction, so motorists need to be vigilant.

AAA offers the following tips or suggestions:

- Slow down in and near school and residential areas, and be sure to come to a complete stop at all intersections.
- Look for crossing guards, bicycles and playgrounds that indicate that children may be in the area.
- Scan between parked cars and other objects for signs of children and be ready to stop if need be. Expect the unexpected.
- Always stop for school buses that are loading or unloading students.
- Leave early to avoid having to rush.
- Drive with your headlights on - even during the day - so children and other drivers can see you.

Remembering that first job

I still remember my first job. Well, it wasn't exactly my first job, but it was the first time I went out on my own and applied for and got a job. In the 30 years that have passed since then, the store has ceased to exist. I suppose it was a victim of big box stores and less expensive foreign-made materials. I still remember the people I worked with because they had a profound impact on my future. One guy I worked with was a veteran of World War II. During slow times, I'd convince him to share some of his stories about climbing over hedgerows in France. He also shared his opinions about the value of hard work, dedication and persistence. I have a lot of respect for the people I worked with, and I can tell you that I learned a lot more about people and working in general than I did about my job.

I suspect a lot of people are like that. A friend of mine still points to the vacant downtown lot in his hometown and saying that's where the JC Penney building used to be - the same place he had his first job. I don't remember all the names of the people I used to work with, but he remembers their names and to this day, will swap stories with them about the experience whenever he runs into them.

It's Lubor Day weekend, the symbolic end of summer, a day of rest, and a day to recall the economic and civil significance of labor in this country. A lot of the success this country enjoys rests on the shoulders of countless and nameless individuals who go to work every day and do their jobs.

In America, there are over 82 million men and 72 million women in the labor force today, and I'll bet that nearly every one of them can recall at least one significant learning experience from their first job. Could it be that any complaints we have about, the younger generation has something to do with what the younger generation has learned from us on the job?

I've been struggling with the idea that I have to write something about Labor Day because it's Labor Day. I've written about its history, and I've written about a declining number and influence of labor unions, but perhaps we should just reflect upon our role in the labor force, and how that will impact this country's future.

WIC clinics offered in September

The Women, Infants and Children's Supplemental Nutrition Education Progrom (WIC) is being held during the month of September.

Infants, children up to the age of 5, and women who are pregnant or breast-feeding may be eligible for the program. WIC Quin County is very interested in enrolling pregnant women in the program. It feels that prenatal nutrition is a vital part of producing a healthy baby. It is important to apply for WIC early during pregnancy. No proof of pregnancy is required.

All potential clients must write or call the WIC Program to schedule an appointment. The following is the schedule of WIC Clinics for the month of September:

- Tuesday, Sept. 2, at the Newfolden Community Center.
- Wednesday, Sept. 3 at the Kittson County Courthouse in Hallock.
- Wednesday, Sept. 3 and Thursday, Sept. 4 at the Warroad Community Center.
- Thursday, Sept. 4, at the Red Lake Falls Community Center.
- Monday, Sept. 8, through Thursday, Sept. 11, at Redeemer Lutheron Church in Thief River Falls.
- Monday, Sept. 15, at the Evangelical Covenant Church in Warren.
- Tuesday, Sept. 16, at the Karlstad Community Center.
- Wednesday, Sept. 17 and Thursday, Sept. 18, at the LifeCare Medical Center Basement Auxiliary Room in Roseau.

North Valley Home Health will hold immunization clinics at the Newfolden and Warren clinics from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. An immunization record is needed before immunizations will be given. For more information contact North Valley Home Health at 218-745-5154.

Guide tip of the week
It is that time of year when most walleyes are willing to bite a jig and a minnow again. The area bait shops have great looking bait, which includes fatheads and chubs. These will work well this time of the year.

Cross country boys/girls run their first race

First meet of Thief River Falls' 2008 high school cross country schedule found the Prowlers competing Monday at the Moorhead Invitational.

The host Spuds swept both the boys and girls team titles. There were 11 complete point-producing squads in the boys race; 10 in the girls portion of the meet.

Thief River Falls boys ran eighth. The Prowlers did not have a complete team for the girls race.

"It's good to have the first-meet jitters out of the way," reported Thief River Falls coach Terri Ueland. "We faced some tough competition. It was fun to see our kids compete. They did a great job and I'm very proud of them."

Jakob Lindaas of Moorhead and Naomi Landecker of Staples-Motley were the individual winners.

"We need to work on staying focused and get some more tough miles behind us," offered Ueland, who returned this year to coach the Prowlers after a 10-year hiatus. "I love being back, and am looking forward to our next meet. I have a great group of kids to work with. They are always ready to do whatever the practice is, and that makes it easier for me."

Brittany Wiseth sets school record...

TRF opens with win over Crookston, 3-1

Brittany Wiseth recorded 15 kills and set a school record for blocks Tuesday to lead Thief River Falls past host Crookston 3-1 Tuesday in the 2008 high school volleyball season opener for both sides.

The Prowlers' 25-19, 22-25, 25-23, 25-23 win marked the 15th straight year the two rivals have faced each other in the first match of the season. The outcome chopped the Pirates edge in those openers to 8-7.

"It went well for a first match," said Thief River Falls coach Tammy Sparby. "We did a lot of things well and learned what we need to work on. Crookston got a few on us with the short, soft serve and tips over the block. We need to learn to adjust on serve receive and improve on tip coverage."

Wiseth complemented her offense with six ace blocks. That was two short of the school single-match record held by Franny Twistol and Sarah Michaels, but it did elevate her to the No. 1 spot in the Prowlers' career records for blocks.

"Our blocking was exceptional," reported Sparby.

The Prowlers also fared well at the service line with 15 aces.

"Megan Malwitz (five aces, 100 percent on serve attempts) had an outstanding performance at the service line," noted Sparby, who also cited Cassie Gunderson's production (4 aces, 100 percent serving).

The Prowlers' coach had additional post-match praise for Haley Teie, whose strong all-around play included 6 kills, 2 solo blocks, 3 ace serves and 18 digs; Meagan Abrahamson, who contributed in both kills and blocks; Brittany Guzek, whose solid leadership included 23 assists and 3 service aces; and Jessie Clark, who led the team in digs and serve-receive passing.

Crookston won the junior varsity match 27-25, 25-19.

Thief River Falls took the C squad encounter 25-14, 25-27, 15-12.

The Prowlers' second start will be their home debut Tuesday, Sept. 2, vs. Red Lake County Central. Junior varsity play begins at 6 p.m. The varsity match is planned for 7:30 p.m.

Pioneers sweep Rainy River

Northland posted two 3-0 wins over Rainy River Wednesday in the Pioneers' 2008 college volleyball home opener. But only one of those victories will count in the team records.

What was originally scheduled as a triangular became a doubleheader dual when a third team in the mix dropped out. The Voyageurs, however, wanted only one of those matches to count – the first one. The second encounter was considered a scrimmage.

The Pioneers won the opener 25-11, 25-21, 25-17.

Thirteen service aces carried Northland to the first victory. Jessica Vanderplaats (Hendrum), Jenny Frantsen (Hazen, N.D.), Sarah Michaels (TRF), Sasha Magner (Newfolden), Shawna Rogalla (TRF) and Whitney Langen (Kennedy) all served two aces, with Leigha Curfman (Fosston) getting one.

The win improved the Pioneers' record to 3-2 heading into the Northland Invitational today (Saturday) starting at 9 a.m.

Michaels, a sophomore from Thief River Falls, had 29 kills and a .333 hitting percentage in the Pioneers' 2-2 showing at the Aug. 23 MSCTC-Fergus Falls Invitational. Vanderplaats, a freshman from Hendrum, had 66 assists and 15 digs in that same tournament.

Pioneers have a new head baseball coach

Brad Evans

Northland Community and Technical College Dean of Student Development Steve Crittenden has announced the hiring of Brad Evans as the Pioneers' new head baseball coach.

Evans comes to Northland from Tulsa, Okla., where he served as the baseball coach at Will Rogers High School. He is a native of Glenpool, Okla., where he was an all-state athlete in baseball and football.

Drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1995, Evans spent three seasons in the major and minor league system. He served as a baseball instructor for Minnesota Twins hitting coordinator Bill Springman the past two seasons.

Evans served two years in the United States Army and is currently pursuing his bachelor's degree through the University of Phoenix.

"Brad brings a lot of professional and high school experience to Northland," said Crittenden. "He is very energetic and excited about taking our baseball program to the next level. I believe his commitment to student-athletes and the sport will be a great benefit to Northland Community and Technical College."

Evans replaces Steve Gust, who led the Pioneers' program for the past four years before accepting the head coaching position at Dakota Wesleyan University in Mitchell, S.D.

"I am very excited about being here and adding a little southern style to the Northland baseball program," said Evans. "My goal is to make NCTC one of the top NJCAA programs in the country."

Evans will also serve as an assistant coach for the Pioneer football program.

TRF wins 4-3 match with New York Mills

What was scheduled to be a road triangular became a home dual for the Thief River Falls girls high school tennis team Thursday.

The Prowlers drove to Roseau to face the Rams and New York Mills. But rain kept the teams off the courts.

It was dry in Thief River Falls, however, and since the Eagles were going through town on their way home, they opted to stop and play the Prowlers.

Thief River Falls won 4-3.

Carli Sandahl and Kaylee Norlin were Thief River Falls winners at No. 1 and No. 3 singles, respectively.

The Prowlers' Katie Rook-Zoe Pietras-Swanton picked a win at No. 1 doubles and a third set tie-breaker that went to Sara Matter-Molly Haugan at No. 3 doubles clinched the home court victory.

Thief River Falls is 2-1 in duals.

"Pirates on the Prairie" features Minnesota sports history

"Pirates on the Prairie" chronicles the achievements of a remarkable group of athletes, the Pirates. They exploded out of tiny Halstad, population 500, in 1952, much to the amazement of the Minnesota media and fans who quickly learned to love them.

Author, nursery owner and American history lover Eric Bergeson of Fertile carefully traces the development of Halstad's home-grown Pirates, their classmates and families while also vividly bringing to live the environment that nourishes them.

Readers become part of the seemingly ordinary day-to-day dynamics in Halstad, from the home lives of the players to the play-by-play reports of their movements on the court and in the field. The Halstad-Thief River Falls Region VIII championship basketball game is one of the central chapters in the book.

Gradually, "Pirates on the Prairie" answers its fundamental question: How did this happen? What enabled this particular group of boys, at this time, in this place, to perform the larger-than-life feats that earned them third place in the 1952 Minnesota state boys basketball tournament and first in the 1953 state baseball tournament – both against much larger, big-city schools?

As excitement builds and hopes grow stronger, readers learn about – or in some cases recall – life in small-town America, when communities worked hands-on and together to support and develop their children. At the same time, readers detect a foreboding undercurrent. They come to the realization that this will also be a story of loss since the book documents a profound change in rural American culture that those with small-town roots still feel today.

The book is now available at Thrifty White Drug Store in Thief River Falls.

Minnesota advanced placement scores and participation increase

The Minnesota Department of Education and the Minnesota Office of Higher Education released new data Tuesday, Aug. 26, showing a more than six percent increase in the number of Minnesota students taking Advanced Placement (AP) tests.

The data also shows a nearly eight percent increase in the number of students scoring a "3" or higher on their exams, which is the cut score used by most colleges to award college credit to new entering students.

"The increase in Advanced Placement scores once again show that as we raise academic expectations, Minnesota students will rise to meet those expectations," Education Commissioner Alice Seagren said.

The AP program allows high school students to take college-level courses in a high school setting.

"Advanced Placement courses are one of several great ways for high school students to challenge themselves and prepare for college-level work," Minnesota Office of Higher Education Director Susan Heegaard said. "We are especially encouraged by the increased participation by students of color this year."

The continued increase in the number of students taking AP coincides with the implementation of the Get Ready Get Credit program proposed by Governor Tim Pawlenty and passed by the Legislature during the 2005 legislative session. The Get Credit portion of the program encourages students to earn college credit while in high school through AP and other programs.

SAT scores improve

Minnesota students also continued to perform well on the SAT, which is a college entrance exam administered by the College Board and taken by fewer than 10 percent of Minnesota high school graduates. The ACT is the predominant college entrance exam taken in Minnesota, with the SAT typically taken by students interested in attending college on the east and west coasts.

Minnesota public school students posted SAT mean scores of 596 in critical reading, 609 in mathematics and 579 in writing. These mean scores for the state compare to a national critical reading mean score of 502, a national math mean score of 515, and a national writing mean score of 494.

Minnesota traffic deaths up slightly

The state's annual summary of traffic crashes, "Minnesota Motor Vehicle Crash Facts 2007," reports 510 people were killed on state roads in 2007, up from 494 in 2006. Contributing to the 3.5 percent death increase was the Interstate 35W bridge collapse – 12 of the 13 bridge fatalities were classified as traffic deaths. "Crash Facts" is online at www.dps.state.mn.us/ots. Then click on "Crash Data and Reports."

The Minnesota Department of Public Safety Office of Traffic Safety compiles the report, which details crashes by vehicle type, contributing factors, driver age and gender, and occurrence of crashes by county, as well as cities with populations of 2,500 or more.

"Crash Facts 2007" reports more than 81,000 crashes, 510 deaths, and nearly 36,000 injures. The fatalities reflect the deaths of motorists (399), motorcyclists (61), pedestrians (33), bicyclists (four), all-terrain vehicle riders (four), snowmobilers (three), occupants driving/riding farm equipment (three) and other (three).

"Crash Facts" reports that more than 57 billion vehicle miles traveled were traveled on state roads last year. The fatality rate per 100-million vehicle miles traveled is less than one person (0.89) – among the lowest in the country. There are 3.9 million licensed drivers and 4.8 million registered vehicles in Minnesota.

Of the 399 vehicle occupants killed, 195 (49 percent) were not wearing seat belts. During nighttime hours (9 p.m. to 3 a.m.), only 28 of the 91 motorists killed were belted. Of impaired drivers killed, nearly 75 percent were unbuckled. There were 190 alcohol-related traffic deaths in 2007, up from the all-time low of 166 in 2006. More than 38,600 motorists were arrested for driving while impaired last year.

Many parents and teachers attended a presentation by David Welsh, Ph.D., Tuesday at the Lincoln High School auditorium in Thief River Falls. Welsh is the author of the National Bestseller "Why Do They Act That Way?," and author of "No: Why Kids - of All Ages - Need to Hear It and Ways Parents Can Say It."

from the expected 2008 deficit of $425,039.

The jail deficit has fluctuated over the past three years. In 2006, the jail brought in $419,443 less than it spent. The 2007 figure was down to $352,504. Then in 2008 it is expected to return to $425,039.

"I've always tried to give you a realistic perspective of my budgets," said Penningtion County Sheriff Mike Hruby. "For the past 10 years we've been running a million dollar budget on other counties' taxes. Long term, the county will need to make a decision, so that it's not faced with this every year."

Olson said the Human Services levy increase alone accounts for a 3.8 percent increase in the county's preliminary levy figure. The jail's need for an additional $238,919 will add an additional 3.5 percent to the county's tax levy.

Making matters much more difficult is tax levy limit, under which, cities and counties can't raise their levy by more than 3.9 percent a year for the next three years. That means Pennington County's tax levy cannot be increased by more than $230,730 for 2009.

The state of Minnesota authorizes counties to use special levies outside of the overoll tax levy. Special levies available to Pennington County can be used for jail operation and maintenance cost; bond indebtedness; covering increases in matching fund requirements for state or federal grants (mostly related to social services); levies for tax abatements; Public Employee Retirement Account rate increases; health and human service costs due to a reduction in grants, and the wages of police, sheriff and fire personnel.

In the case of the jail, a special levy would cover the $238,919 increase and it could cover the salaries or wages of sheriff's department employees, corrections officers and the county's portion of dispatch and records personnel.

"The general public is thinking since the state put levy limits on the county, that it will force the county to bring things down," Chairman Bob Carlson said. "Nine percent?"

Carlson then asked what the city would do with its levy.

Olson responded that the last he heard, the city of Thief River Falls is planning on a tax levy decrease. He attributed the city's ability to decrease its tax levy to a substantial increase in local government aid for the city.

Lisa Johnson, city finance director, confirmed Wednesday that the city of Thief River Falls will receive a $223,499 increase in LGA. Olson said during Tuesday's meeting that Pennington County's LGA increase will be $90,000.

Olson told commissioners that most years when it comes time to trimming the budget, something jumps out that can be cut, or a purchase can be pushed back a year. This year that hasn't been the case.

The Highway Department already made appropriate cuts and balanced its budget to show no change for 2009, despite increases in wages, health insurance, materials and transportation costs.

The purchase of two vehicles for the Department of Humans Services has also been cut from the 2009 budget. Instead, vehicles will be leased through Minnesota Travel Management.

Other cuts will need to be made prior to the state's Sept. 15 deadline for cities and counties to set preliminary 2009 tax levies. Pennington County also has until Sept. 30 to apply for special levy consideration.

"Its not going to be easy," Olson said. "Nothing big jumps out to be cut."

habits and overly high expectations.

Walsh began his presentation to parents by stating, "Whoever tells the story, defines the culture." The point of which was to highlight the overwhelming prevalance of media in our lives and who's shaping values and opinions - it's not parents.

In the past, parents and family members filled the role of storyteller. Today, that role is being supplanted by a wide variety of media - television, radio, CDs, DVDs, MP3s, video games, MySpace, YouTube, and a host of other options. While there are benefits to media, Walsh points out that their purpose is generally to encourage viewers to want to buy things. Their job is to make viewers uncomfortable with what they have and want more, faster and easier. Without parental supervision, the message from media is enabling a culture of "Yes," and children who want more, fast, easy and fun. As a result, children are being conditioned to expect instant rewards.

Walsh said many issues are tied to this phenomenon, including obesity, poor scholastic performance, and lack of respect for authority.

Studies report that children spend an average of 44.5 hours in front of a screen, and are exposed to over one million Yes messages a year. Walsh says this constant barrage of Yes undermines crucial character traits children and youth need for success, including self-reliance, perseverance, integrity and the ability to delay gratification.

Walsh believes this has all the signs of a new epidemic he calls DDD or Discipline Deficit Disorder. The evidence of this epidemic is all around us. Parents and teachers are struggling and often discouraged by the problems they face. Additionally, they say it's difficult in this culture, to say No to children. But this culture is having a negative impact.

Results of a recent ACT test shows that only 53 percent of high school seniors had college reading skills, 43 percent were ready for college algebro, and 28 percent were ready for college biology.

Continuing down the same path without addressing these problems will have serious consequences for families and the economy, too.

Walsh cited another author who said that when he was a child his mother used to tell him to eat his meal because there were starving kids in China who would love to have it. Today, he tells his children to do their homework, because there are children in China who want their jobs. There are more honor students in China today than there are students in the United States.

Walsh provided the following list of 10 ways to prevent DDD:

1. Learn how to say NO.
2. Support, don't rescue.
3. Encourage, don't coddle.
4. Get kids what they need, but not everything they want.
5. Back up teachers and schools.
6. Become MediaWise®
7. Have clear and high expectations.
8. Expect kids to do chores.
9. Set and enforce clear limits and consequences.
10. Expect kids to volunteer and help others.

In his book "No: Why Kids Need It," Walsh writes, "Saying no isn't just using tough love or treating your child harshly in order to help him or her in the long run. In fact, saying no in the wrong way or in the wrong situation is just as bad as not saying it enough. It's important to know when and how to use No so that, instead of stunting your children's growth, No helps them bloom and become more vigorous, strong and productive."

Walsh said he hopes his efforts will encourage parents to actively participate in the discussion to say yes to no. He also encouraged parents to join the MediaWise® network at www.mediawise.org.

Walsh is a frequent guest on national radio and television shows. He is on the faculty of the University of Minnesota, and has published many articles in the professional and general press. He is active in many professional associations and is a licensed psychologist in the State of Minnesota. Dr. Walsh is a lifetime member of the Parent Teacher Association in Minnesota, Ohio, Utah and Washington.

A $250,000 problem at NCTC

Many step forward to help when youth leadership program donation falls through

A $250,000 gift to Northland Community and Technical College to develop a youth leadership program in northwestern Minnesota may not materialize.

On July 25, 2008, Margarita Kouzel of California, was honored by the college for offering a gift of $250,000. When she arrived in Thief River Falls, she told officials at a banquet in her honor that she had forgotten the check in California. As days and weeks passed, suspicion built that all was not as it seemed or that there had been a change of heart.

"It's a delicate situation," said NCTC President Ann Temte. She said they are still trying to work with Kouzel. She added that she doesn't doubt Kouzel's passion for youth, or the sincerity of the communications with DeAnna Murphy, the leadership trainer for NCTC who developed the contact with Kouzel. Temte said she suspects that Kouzel, however, may have led with her heart rather than her head.

While there's considerable disappointment over the situation, Temte sees a silver lining.

Temte said the situation has been stressful and disappointing to staff at NCTC, but the news about Kouzel's gift and plans to develop a youth leadership program that helps youth find and develop their own unique potential, has inspired others. Temte said a number of potential sources of funding have come forward.

Temte said groups and individuals are excited about a youth leadership program in northwestern Minnesota. As a result, she said, the college fully intends to move ahead with the program, seeking funding from foundations and private gifts. "We definitely want to make this happen."

The timeline for the program includes a feasibility study to be conducted this year, followed by a "Strong Youth Summit." Temte said that will be followed by curricular development, and hopefully, a kick-off in Fiscal Year 2010.

Who's to blame?

When Temte learned of the donation, she said she did some initial vetting - an informal examination of Kouzel's background - and believed that Kouzel was being honest and sincere. Unfortunately, Temte said she didn't have the money in hand when she announced the donation. She said she will be much more cautious in the future. She also said no action will be taken against employees of the college.

Although the college incurred some debt, Temte said the college and Minnesota State Colleges and Universities system is not inclined to take legal action. Temte added that she still hopes the situation with Kouzel can be resolved.

Kouzel could not be reached for comment.

Brooks springs for new town hall

Brooks - It's been more than a year in the making and even longer in planning, but the city of Brooks has opened the doors to an impressive new town hall.

In previous years, community functions were held anywhere that had space available and City Clerk Joyce Morinville could be reached at her "other job." Now, through special arrangement and hard work by volunteers, Morinville can still be seen at the Brooks Community Federal Credit Union, but that business is now located within the new town hall building, which also houses the city offices and council chambers. Red Lake Falls Gazette, Sept. 3

Taking his herd on the road

Helme - It all started with Clyde.

When Steve and Peggy Porter bough 160 acres of land in 1991, west of Halma, with plans to build a house there, Steve thought he would be in wildlife heaven.

Not so. "All the area deer were being taken. They were shooting everything - big, little, it didn't matter, it was all being hunted," recalls Porter.

He wanted to see more out of his living room window than just trees.

"I thought I'd buy a buck to raise and release it on my property. It'd give us some wildlife in our backyard," he said.

Clyde grew into a giant - an 18-point buck measuring 186 inches.

Clyde died in 2001. Porter says that his bloodline is still running through every deer on his farm, and there's about 60 of them this summer. - by Louise Money, Kittson County Enterprise, Sept. 3, 2008

A new system purchased by Tri-County Schools will allow families with students to receive information from the school in a more direct manner than has been done in the past. North Star News, Karlstad, Sept. 4, 2008

Both were nominated to wrestle in the freestyle meet in Australia. The USA Team on which Storm and Trevor were members, placed first overall. Individually, Trevor placed first and Storm, third. - Mavis Goushorowski, Greenbush Tribune, Sept. 3, 2008

October Road will provide music to entertain visitors and residents of Thief River Falls during the Great American Block Party on Saturday, Sept. 13.

Several activities are planned for the Seventh Annual Great American Block Party. The event, which is sponsored by the Thief River Falls Chamber of Commerce, includes the annual Everybody's Market, a sort of crazy day/farmer's market event that includes crafters, businesses, organizations, and garden produce vendors. At the event, visitors can buy fresh produce, homemade bakery items, candles, jewelry, jams and jellies, Watkins products, flada Cutlery, plants, crocheted items, floral arrangements, home décor, Avon, Tastefully Simple, honey, dream catchers, bird houses, quilts, Pampered Chef, clothing and much more. Sales will be on downtown city sidewalks and in Floyd B. Olson Park from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Individuals interested in being a vendor should contact the Chamber of Commerce at 218-681-3720.

Other activities are planned for the day. At 3 p.m. there will be a scavenger hunt at the Floyd B. Olson Park gazebo, and a geocaching demonstration on LaBree Avenue.

LaBree Avenue in downtown Thief River Falls will be closed to traffic for most of the day to make way for food stands and vendors. In the evening, it's the place to be for Great American Block Party. At 6 p.m. there will be a Guitar Hero competition. Between 6 and 8 p.m. local talent show winners will also perform. At 8 p.m. October Road will perform. Tri-Valley seeks grants for bus routes

Project would provide bus rides to residents in region

by April Schelnoha
Reporter

Tri-Valley Opportunity Council has applied for a matching grant to provide rides to residents in the Thief River Falls and Crookston areas. The application asks for a matching grant totalling $430,000.

The Job Access and Reverse Commute Grant application includes three routes to the city of Thief River Falls and also routes in the Crookston area. Mike Frisch, Tri-Valley transportation program director, said the not-for-profit agency is seeking funding to provide three bus routes – from Oklee and Brooks to Thief River Falls; from Red Lake Falls and St. Hilaire to Thief River Falls; and from Alvarado and Oslo to Thief River Falls. "We're going to try to get rides going in both directions," he said.

This fall, Frisch expects to learn whether Tri-Valley has received the grant. "I'm hoping to know by the middle of November," he said.

Currently, Tri-Valley provides public transportation as Tri-Valley Heartland Express Bus (THE Bus) in Clearwater, Norman, Marshall, Pennington, Polk and Red Lake counties.

As part of the grant process, Tri-Valley seeks partners to provide matching dollars for the grant. Those partners could be cities, employers or others.

Frisch thinks the proposed routes will benefit local cities. "Just say Alvarado, if we can keep people staying in that community, the tax base will be greater," he said.

Frisch also thinks the proposed routes will benefit local employers. "Digi-Key is expanding to beat the band. They're going to need the people," said Frisch, who cited a lack of housing in Thief River Falls and the need for workers from surrounding cities.

"I think it's good for the employees, and I encourage the employees, if they can use it, to participate in it," said Cathy Fynboh, staffing manager at Digi-Key. From a personal standpoint, she noted that the

by David Hill
Editor

State Representative Mindy Greiling and members of a key House Education Committee met in Thief River Falls Monday, Aug. 24, to discuss and gather input on proposed legislation that's being described as "the new Minnesota miracle."

Greiling said the bipartisan legislation is based on recommendations of P.S. Minnesota, a study undertaken by a non-partisan coalition of educators, parents and citizens advocating for education funding reform in Minnesota. As a result, HF 4178 or "the new Minnesota miracle," was created to provide adequate funding for all public school students, equitable funding formulas, a more fair funding system, a simplified funding system, and a system that's scalable to allow for phase-in over time.

Greiling said she believes that it will take three bienniums to fully fund the program, so she thinks of the legislation as a long-term solution.

Characteristics of the legislation include: setting the basic per pupil formula high enough to cover districts' basic instructional needs while having other component formulas to match specific additional needs; fully funding the state's share of special education costs; increasing options for school district facility needs; and restoring equalization in school property tax system.

Some of the specific elements of the legislation, which were discussed Monday included a provision that counts all students as 1.0 pupil. The current funding formula gives various weights to students, such as .65 for kindergarten students, which makes it difficult to fund such programs as all day every day kindergarten.

Lunds riding on success

Mr. Shine wins several national awards at horse show

by David Hill
Editor

Rodney and Teresa Lund have been involved in the horse business for many years, but they've never had the kind of success they're having now with a four-year-old palomino stud named Mr. Shine 404. In July, Shine won several awards, including a World Championship at the World Palomino Horse Show in Tulsa, Okla.

Watching the horse compete in the many events was nerve wracking, said Lund. Lund participated behind the scenes, but didn't ride the horse in the show.

In all, the horse and riders collected one world championship title, two third place finishes, two fourth place finishes and one eighth place finish. It collected awards in roping, poles and barrel events. These types of awards are important, particularly at this event, because the awards add to the value of the horse.

The Palomino Horse Breeders of America (PHBA) World Championship Horse Show is PHBA's biggest event, with over 850 horses competing in World Championship classes, futurities, and maturities. Beginning in 1983, the show awarded cash prizes valued at around $30,000. PHBA now awards more than $500,000 in cash and prizes to equine athletes from all over the United States, Mexico and Canada.

Lund said his interest in horse breeding has grown over the years, but really increased in 1999. Since then he has raised, bred and sold quarter horses. All but two of the horses on the RF Ranch, which is located near Plummer, are quarter horses. (Palomino horses can be registered with many different associations and of different breeds provided the horse meets PHBA color and white rules.)

Lund said he has had this horse since it was four months old. It is being trained by Keith Wojciechowski of Wojo's Horse Training, and is shown by Tyler Wojciechowski and Adam Langass, all from the Greenbush area. He said Shine is only four years old right now, so he will continue to grow and learn for a couple more years. Even though it has had great results in roping events already, it has only

Marshall County Historical Society travels through time

by Mike Johnson

As you have probably heard, Minnesota is celebrating its 150th birthday this year. Celebrations, special events and exhibits have been going on all summer. I heard the other day that Orlin Ostby and his ox Pum made the journey from Pembina to the Minnesota State Fair. Orlin was sent off from Marshall County in July, with a get-together at Old Mill State Park. Orlin was recreating the trip made by Delmer Hagen in 1958 for the state's Centennial celebration. The chance to experience an historic event was special to many people, as over 400 people sent him off in July of 2008. In the years to follow, Orlin's name will go down in history just as his predecessor's name, Delmer Hagen, did.

During the fair in Marshall County was a special time for the staff and board members of the Marshall County Historical Society. During the days of the fair, well over 4,000 people passed through the doors to experience history or a little bit of their roots. Maybe it was to have an ice cream cone or the pancake breakfast on Saturday. The numbers were welcome and the comments made about the museum were heartfelt and very welcome.

During the fair, a traveling exhibit was on display. The display was entitled "Traveling Through Time in Minnesota's Historic Northwest." It was a display of 150 photos featuring the history of this corner of the state. Using historic and current photos from the headwaters of the Mississippi to the Canadian border, from the Red River Valley to the Eastern pine forests, the display shows the changing demographics and diversity of northwest Minnesota.

This display is now available in publication of a book of photos that celebrate the region's past and present. "Traveling Through Time in Minnesota's Historic Northwest" is available for purchase at any of the following participating counties: Beltrami, Clearwater, Kittson, Lake of the Woods, Mahnomen, Marshall, Polk, Pennington, Red Lake and Roseau. Books can be purchased at any of these participating local historical societies or heritage centers or by visiting the group's Web site at www.mnhistoricnw.org.

A special thanks goes out to all who spent a little of their time, talents and money to help keep history alive in Marshall County.

NCTC Art Gallery features "Landscapes of Iraq"

Now showing in the Northland Community and Technical College Fine Arts Gallery in Thief River Falls is an exhibit entitled "Landscapes of Iraq" by NCTC student, Jesse George of Warroad.

The scenic photos were taken while George was serving his tour of duty in Iraq from 2005-2007 with the Charlie Company, 1-194 Armor Unit.

The photos portray the landscapes located between Camp Tallil, which is located in southern Iraq, and Camp Anaconda, which is located in Baghdad or central Iraq.

George is majoring in criminal justice and plans to graduate in May of 2009.

The exhibition will run through Sept. 25. There is no charge for admission, and the gallery is open regular school hours.

SOUPÇON

Sherry LaCoursiere
email: lacours@mncable.net

Last week I got a notice from my church about donating. It said we should think about donating not only money, but also time and talent. One talent listed was to bake pies or bars for the many dinners we have at our church. And it was noted that "Bars with chocolate as an ingredients also sell well!" And that is why today we will have some fairly simple recipes for bars with chocolate. These bars are made with mixes, so they will be super easy for you to whip up for your church dinner donations. You'll love them.

I've made these, not for a church dinner but for my family's dinner. They are very easy to make and bake up beautifully:

COCONUT PECAN BROWNIES

1 (15 ounce) package fudge brownie mix (dry)
1/2 cup cooking oil
1/4 cup water
2 eggs, lightly beaten
1 (15 ounce) can ready made coconut pecan frosting
1 (8 ounce) container sour cream
1/2 cup chopped pecans
1/2 cup miniature chocolate chips

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Grease bottom of 9x13 inch pan.

In large bowl, combine brownie mix, oil, water and eggs. Beat about 50 strokes by hand. Add container of frosting mix and container of sour cream and mix well. Spread batter in greased pan and sprinkle with pecans and chips.

Bake in preheated oven for 42 minutes or until toothpick in center comes out clean. (My brownies baked in less time, so try 38 minutes and see if it is pulling away from sides and tests done.)

Cool completely before cutting.

These will be a favorite and you'll get asked to make them every time:

GERMAN CHOCOLATE CARAMEL LAYER SQUARES

1 (5 ounce) can evaporated milk
1 (14 ounce) package caramels, unwrapped
1 package German chocolate cake mix (dry)
1 cup chopped nuts
1/2 cup soft butter or margarine
1 cup semi-sweet chocolate chips

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Reserve 2 tablespoons of the evaporated milk for the cake mixture. Grease 9x13 inch cake pan.

In medium saucepan, combine caramels with remaining evaporated milk. Cook over low heat, stirring, until caramels are melted and mixture is smooth. Remove from heat.

In large bowl, combine cake mix, nuts, butter and reserved 2 tablespoons of evaporated milk. Mix at low speed until crumbly. Press half of dough into prepared pan, reserving remaining dough for topping.

Bake 8 minutes in preheated oven. Remove from oven and sprinkle with chips. Carefully spread caramel mixture over chips and crumble remaining dough mixture over caramel. Return to oven and bake 15-18 minutes until filling is set. Cool completely before cutting.

I haven't made these yet, but you can bet I will - soon:

BLACK AND WHITE BROWNIES

1 package fudge brownie mix, dry
1/4 cup water
1/2 cup oil
2 eggs
1/2 cup chopped pecans
1 cup semi sweet chocolate chips
2 cups white vanilla chips

Frosting

2 cups powdered sugar
1/4 cup cocoa
3-4 tablespoons hot water
1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 to 1 cup pecan halves

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Grease bottom only of 9x13 inch cake pan.

In large bowl, combine brownie mix, water, oil and eggs. Beat 50 strokes with spoon. Add 1/2 cup pecans, chips and 1 cup of the vanilla chips. Mix well. Spread in prepared pan.

Bake at 350 degrees for 18-34 minutes or until center is set. Remove from oven and immediately sprinkle with remaining 1 cup vanilla chips. Return to oven for 1 minute to soften chips. Spread evenly over brownies with back of a spoon. Cool.

In small bowl, combine all frosting ingredients except pecan halves, beating smooth. Mixture will be thin. Spoon over the white vanilla layer, spreading to cover. Arrange pecan halves over frosting. Cool 1 1/2 hours or until completely cooled. Cut into bars.

These are supposed to be like a famous restaurant's brownies, but I made them my own by changing the chips and nuts around. They are delicious:

BLONDE PECAN BROWNIES

2 cups flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
3/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon soda
1 1/4 sticks butter (10 tablespoons)
2 cups packed brown sugar
2 large eggs, room temperature
2 teaspoons vanilla
3/4 cup chocolate chips
3/4 cup chopped pecans

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Flour and butter a 9x13 inch pan.

Place flour, baking powder, salt and soda in small bowl. Set aside.

Melt butter in larger bowl. Add sugar and mix well. Add eggs and vanilla and mix well. Add flour slowly. Batter will be slightly thick.

Spread in prepared pan. Sprinkle with chocolate chips and pecans. Bake about 20 minutes.

(I prepared my bars a little differently. I place a little more than half of the batter in the pan and sprinkled with some of the chips and nuts. Then I added the second half of the batter and sprinkled with the remaining chips and nuts. You may find it just as easy to mix the chips and nuts into the batter, or also do it the way the recipe states and just put them on top.)

Tri-Valley seeks grants for bus routes

bus routes would be a good idea due to winter weather and also due to the price of gas.

Dr. Anne Temte, president of Northland Community and Technical College, thinks the proposed bus routes could be useful for local residents. "I think it's a good start," said Temte. "I think we'll find out if people are willing to change their behavior." While on her way to meetings in the Twin Cities, Temte saw "a flood of cars" traveling northbound on Highway 59, presumably to travel to jobs at Arctic Cat and Digi-Key. She noted that some individuals may prefer to travel alone, or need to travel in a car in order to pick up their children or to stop at the grocery store. Temte believes more people may be willing to try public transportation if gas prices remain high.

With regard to the college, Temte would like a bus route between Thief River Falls and East Grand Forks, where the college's campuses are located. "We are aware of students going back and forth quite a bit," Temte said. She referred to Thief River Falls students involved in a program at the East Grand Forks campus and East Grand Forks students involved in sports at the Thief River Falls campus. The former group carpools to and from East Grand Forks, and the latter group rides in a vehicle subsidized by student fees.

"I look forward to future conversations with [Tri-Valley]," Temte said.

For the grant application, Tri-Valley worked closely with the Northwest Regional Development Commission. An advisory committee broached the idea of more bus routes to provide workers with rides to their workplaces. Discussions then ensued with the Minnesota Department of Transportation and Tri-Valley.

Through advertisements in the Northern Watch and other area newspapers, Tri-Valley then gauged the public's interest in commuter buses. "We've gotten 50-plus [responses] on the e-mail and probably the same for the phone," said Frisch, who noted many single e-mails featured responses from more than one person. Respondents told Tri-Valley about where they would use the bus service.

Tri-Valley would still like to hear from local residents about their interest in the proposed bus routes. To respond, e-mail your name, the community from/to, and your contact information to commuter@tvoc.org. Local residents may also call 1-866-677-3656 to provide that information.

Saddle Up for St. Jude near Wannaska Sept. 27

A Saddle Up® for St. Jude event will be held on Sept. 27 at 9 a.m. at Bemis Hill Campground near Wannaska. The event will roise funds for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, the premier center for the research and treatment of childhood cancer and other deadly diseases.

This volunteer-based horseback trail riding event will feature live music provided by Freedom's Call, a gospel/bluegross band out of Bemidji, and a baked chicken supper served by Cafe 89 of Wannaska. The trail ride will start at and return to Bemis Hill Campground with both horseback riders and wagons. The trail ride will take two to three hours and cover about five miles. There will be a ride in the morning and afternoon so riders can participate in one or both of the rides.

Riders are asked to collect donations from sponsors based on every mile they ride or a flat donation. Following the afternoon ride, participants will have time to unsaddle and unharness their horses before enjoying a baked chicken supper, which will be served at about 5:30 p.m. for $10 per plate. While eating, Freedom's Call will perform.

Participants are encouroged to bring their family and friends. Free primitive camping is available at Bemis Hill Campground for the weekend. For more information or to participate, contact Darlene Danielson at 218-463-2877 or Mary Cole at 218-463-1810. Last year, over 120 riders, horses and wagons participated to raise $10,075 and to date $30,796.28 has been raised.

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is internationally recognized for its pioneering work in finding cures and saving children with cancer and other catastrophic diseases. Founded by the late entertainer Danny Thomas, and based in Memphis, Tenn., St. Jude freely shares its discoveries with scientific and medical communities around the world. No family ever pays for treatments not covered by insurance, and families without insurance are never asked to pay. St. Jude is financially supported by ALSAC, its fundraising organization, through events such as Saddle Up for St. Jude. For more information, visit www.stjude.org.

The proposed legislation also calls for an increase in the basic formula allowance from $5,124 per adjusted marginal cost pupil unit to $7,500 per adjusted pupil.

Additional compensatory revenue would also be available in the legislation. It provides additional funding to schools that serve students from low socioeconomic backgrounds, expands with all students eligible for free or reduced meals. It expands limited English proficiency revenue, and creates a new component of revenue called declining enrollment revenue to assist schools where enrollment is declining. It also increases funding for the Location Equity Index and modifies sparsity revenue. The legislation also creates innovation revue to encourage research-based practices that improve student academic performance, and creates fund reserves for gifted and talented programs.

If approved, the legislation may have a significant impact on education in Minnesota, which is why it is being described as the "new Minnesota miracle."

There were between 50 and 60 educators and interested citizens in the crowd at the hearing, which was located in the cafeteria of Lincoln High School, Thief River Falls. Several shared input with legislators in attendance that included Rep. Carlos Mariani-Rosa, Rep. Dave Olin, Rep. Denise Dittrich, Rep. Bernie Lieder, and Sen. LeRoy Stumpf.

Superintendent Irv Peterson noted that funding disparities exist under the current and proposed system when it comes to regional centers like Thief River Falls.

Deron Stender, superintendent of the Frazee-Vergas public school system, described the problems faced in his district when a small percentage of voters began a petition to revoke their referendum. Stender asked that the committee to review and change the law that makes it so easy to put the issue back on the ballot.

Barb Kalinoski, chair of the Board of Education in Thief River Falls, said she was happy to see the various funding streams within the legislation, but said she didn't see any funding for technology.

Greiling said attempts had been made to include funding for technology within the legislation, but efforts have failed, so far.

Superintendent George Hanson of Lancaster wondered whether the political reality would allow for the bill to pass.

Greiling explained that the legislation was developed by a bipartisan committee and that the members of the committee were seeking additional bipartisan support for the bill.

The Location Equity Index funding was also discussed. The proposal would increase funding for school districts in counties with above-average cost of living as measured through wage and housing data and set the formula equal to 50 percent of the basic formula allowance times the greater of 1.0 or the county index for that school district.

Sen. Stumpf summarized the issue, stating that all smaller rural schools struggle with providing basic education when larger, generally more urban districts, are not only able to provide basic education but a lot of extra offerings, and pay higher salaries. Smaller districts have to make sacrifices just to provide the basics.

During the meeting, Greiling said they will have to fight hard to get this legislation started this year. "This is a very ambitious goal."

audience of 250,000, including numerous appearances during the 2005-2006 season on Wild 99s' Acoustic Concert Series, and countless fairs and street dances across the Midwest.

The heart of October Road is the powerful combo of drummer Luke Nygaard and bassist Joe Thiele. Laying down incisive grooves and multi-layered rhythms, the two are able to bring a unique approach to the normally stagnant drum/bass roles of country music. Next are the virtuoso stylings of lead guitarist Dave Jopp III, who is more than capable of weaving complex melodies throughout each song. Rounding out the group is lead vocalist/guitarist Shawn Smalley, whose steady vocals and insightful lyrics put the final touches on the solid bass so carefully laid down before him. Their originals singe the senses with brutal honesty about every aspect of life and love.

EDITORIAL OPINIONS

We shouldn't rely on luck to help us through natural disasters

My brother, who lives in Florida, and I exchange gag gifts on occasion. Several years ago I sent him a hat shaped like a bison - its goofy brown and black head bowed over the bill of the cap and its legs dangling over either side. I sent him this wonderful gift one year during the hurricane season, and one was headed his way.

We all know what it's like to face a natural disaster - once you've boarded up the windows and stashed away some food and water, there's not much you can do. You're at the mercy of nature.

Having done everything he could, and feeling somewhat helpless, my brother decided to sit on his porch and watch the storm come in. He needed something to do so he put on his new bison hat and smoked a cigar. That year the hurricane missed his home so the hat became his "lucky buffalo cap." Smoking a cigar is something his wife only permits outside and on rare occasions, so to this day, every time a hurricane heads his way, he puts on his bison hat and pulls out a cigar.

My brother's bison hat and cigar are ready.

When the Flood of '97 swept through the Red River Valley of the North, lives were disrupted. Damage was estimated in the millions of dollars. It wasn't the first disaster this area has experienced, and I doubt that it will be the last. In rebounding from those disasters, we learned a lot. We also learned that there's nothing fair about natural disasters - while no one area of the country is immune, it also seems true that no one area receives the same treatment.

Did it seem strange to you when just about everything was put on hold while we waited to hear what would happen with Hurricane Gustav? I don't remember that happening with the Flood of '97, nor do I remember that happening when Hurricane Katrina wreaked havoc on Louisiana and other southern states. During this recent storm, government officials practically fell over each other in an attempt to make sure everyone affected by the storm was out of harm's way and resources were at their disposal. I suppose it's just a coincidence that this is an election year.

Most area emergency responders test their emergency preparedness. Afterwards they conduct meetings to examine what went wrong and what went right. The purpose of the review after each exercise is to make sure they learned something from the exercise and don't make mistakes when the real thing happens.

We all hope that we learn from our mistakes. We hope that the government has learned from its mistakes and that it also remembers that it's necessary to provide quick and resourceful assistance to all of its citizens, whether they live in Louisiana, Washington or North Dakota, and … regardless of whether it's an election year. We shouldn't be left sitting on our porches wearing buffalo hats and smoking cigars.

Public invited to band ducks at Agassiz Refuge

It's that time of year again when Agassiz National Wildlife Refuge staff begins banding ducks. The public is invited to join in the fun and 'ruffle some feathers' on Saturday, Sept. 20. Participants need to meet at the Refuge headquarters at 5 p.m. If Saturday is rained out or ground conditions are too wet, the alternate date is Tuesday, Sept. 23, at 5:30 p.m.

Duck banding opportunities at the Refuge should be great again in 2008, as the Refuge supported 7,400 pairs of nesting ducks this spring and they produced a good number of ducklings this summer.

Banding ducks is a hands-on experience, as many of you who join us year after year can attest to. Newcomers, you will have an opportunity to learn about the life history of several duck species, baiting, capture, and handling techniques, as well as duck sexing and aging techniques.

More than one million birds are banded in North America every year. Banding provides valuable information on migration routes and breeding and wintering areas of different bird species, as well as helping support hunting regulations, development of and detecting changes in bird populations. Secondarily, the strong waterfowling contingent in northwestern Minnesota also recognizes harvested ducks sporting "jewelry" in the form of metal leg bands as special trophies.

Old clothing or rain gear is recommended if you plan to band or handle birds - banding ducks can be a little messy. Due to concerns of Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza (H5N1) possibly showing up in North America participants will be required to wear provided disposable gloves and eye protection. Pictures and videos can be taken by participants of the banding operation and of their family and friends. All ages are welcome and the activity is free to the public.

Individuals interested in helping Refuge staff band ducks, but who cannot attend the public banding night, are encouraged call the Refuge office to find out other times to help band ducks during September. Keep in mind that most banding occurs on weekdays during the early morning hours.

No pre-registration is required.

The Refuge headquarters is located 11 miles east of Holt, Minnesota on Marshall County Road 7 (290th St. NE). For more information, please call the 218-449-4115, ext. 211 or dial 0 for operator assistance. Office hours are 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Girl Scout registration night Sept. 9

Girl Scout Registration Night will be on Tuesday, Sept. 9 at Redeemer Lutheran Church from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Girls from kindergarten to seniors in high school are encouraged to register for the upcoming 2008-2009 year.

For more information, or if you have any questions, please call Cindy at 681-7094, or Diane at the Girl Scouts-Dakota Horizons office at 800-437-4399.

Northland Steam Threshers Bee on Sept. 13-14

The 44th Annual Northland Steam Threshing Bee will be Sept. 13 and 14 three miles north and five and one-half miles east of Strathcona. Admission remains at $3 per day for adults, and children under 12 are admitted free. There is ample parking for cars or trucks.

The featured tractor will be any International IH unit and anyone is welcome to bring their tractor for display or for the parade, but must have personal liability insurance. The #3 collector button will be an F14 Farmall. A limited number of 1 and 2 collector buttons will be available.

New this year is a trailer that will be used to move individuals with disabilities to and from the parking, around the grounds and out to the horse-powered farming area. The horses and big Case Steamer were big hits last year, so both will be back.

Food will be available at the 4-H building and from several other vendors on the grounds. Various other groups will be serving pop, candy, popcorn and ice cream. Sunday morning, the Lions will serve a pancake breakfast.

Saturday, the show starts with the flag raising and national anthem at 10 a.m. The parades begin at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Demonstrations, a flea market and the Country Store will be operating throughout the day. Saturday evening, a potato dumpling supper will be served by the Grass Lake 4-H Club between 5:30 and 7 p.m. It will be followed with music by the Highway 11 Ramblers.

Sunday morning, the Lions will serve pancakes from 7 to 9 a.m. The flag raising starts at 9 a.m. followed by a church service at 9:30 a.m. Parades will be at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Demonstrations following the parades include threshing, sawing lumber, lath and shingle millwork, gas engines, post peeling machine, flour grinding and horse-drawn equipment farming. All of the demonstrations will be located on the east end of the grounds. In the demonstration building, the ladies will demonstrate baking bread in wood-fired range ovens, weaving rungs, spinning yarn, folk art, making saurkraut and making fry bread, which will be sale.

In addition to the many activities, there are many restored buildings, a mini museum of artifacts and Ed's shed, which has a nice display of old tools and toys, on the grounds.

The Threshers Association is a nonprofit organization dedicated to preservation, restoration, demonstration and display of remnants of pioneer life. All proceeds of the show are used to maintain and improve the grounds and buildings, and members do not receive any compensation. New members are welcome and needed.

Come and enjoy the trip back in history and appreciate the goodness of our lives today. Camping is allowed - self-contained, only. Because of the danger of fire, campfires will not be allowed. There are nearby campgrounds with electricity and facilities. Those campgrounds are located in Middle River, 218-222-3511, Strathcona, 218-781-2242, and Greenbush, 218-782-2116.

"A river of oil"

It would be difficult not to notice that a new pipeline is being dug into the soil in northwest Minnesota. I always feel that a project this large has local historical importance and I wish I knew more about it. This week, I took care of that when I spoke to Bruce Larson at the local headquarters of Enbridge Pipeline, Inc.

The name says a lot; it's "Enbridge Pipeline," not "Enbridge Oil." Enbridge provides transport to 65 percent of the oil refined in the "Chicago land" region but owns not one drop. Enbridge exists to provide crude oil and natural gas to an area that includes northern New York, Illinois and Cushing, Okla. Each day, 1.2 million barrels of oil pass through the Viking pumping station at about four miles per hour, which is about the speed of a walk.

I'm still a little kid watching men and huge machines when it comes to construction; large machinery fascinates me. It doesn't come much larger or any more fascinating than the mammoth topsoil remover that passed through the area a few weeks ago. The machine is based on a D-8 Caterpillar with a rotating track mounted in place of the front blade. The front-mounted track operates below the surface to harrow topsoil from above the existing topsoil to the side of the construction area.

This monster creation was not created by a raft of engineers but rather by a father and son from Canada. The machine takes the place of four conventional D-8 Caterpillars and is one of two that exist in the world.

The pipeline is basically a 20-mile long production line. Men and machine move in lockstep to survey the land above the pipeline, place safety signs, clear the trees or crops that inhabit that area, remove the soil, place the new pipeline, inspect it then return the land to the way they found it-or better. The goal is to completely install seven thousand feet of pipe each day; however, the flat geography has lent itself to progress of up to 11,000 feet on occasion.

All new pipelines are constructed and installed by contractors from across the nation, but each union of new pipe to an existing pumping station is performed by the crew at Enbridge. It's called "hot work." New pipe is quite safe to weld but old pipe will always carry petroleum residue and must be handled carefully; careful seems to be the main goal at Enbridge. Bruce showed me his bookshelf full of policy manuals: the multiple layers of safety seemed almost suffocating. Later, I considered that since my nephew works at Enbridge, all of the consideration for safety is really quite a breath of fresh air to me.

Pipelines have been a part of our area since 1949 when construction of the first 18-inch pipe was completed. Additional pipelines have been installed in 1957, 1969, 1973, 1996, 1998 and the current 20-inch pipe now under construction. Next year, a 36-inch pipeline will be constructed which, along with this year's construction, will transport oil from the tar sands of Alberta, Canada.

When I visited Bruce about the pipeline, he called it a "river of oil." Bruce had great feeling for his employees, stewardship for the ground where the pipeline sits and a historical perspective for the current construction project. The historical perspective may be more than sentiment; you see Bruce's dad, Leonard Larson, worked on that first pipeline in 1948, when the river was just a trickle.

Drug task force makes arrest in Thief River Falls

Sheriff's deputies assigned to the North Star Drug Task Force in northwestern Minnesota executed a search warrant Tuesday, Sept. 2, in Thief River Falls, seized a quantity of methamphetamine and drug paraphernalia, and arrested one individual.

At about 3:12 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 2, deputies executed a search warrant at the residence of Catherine Alcozer, 20, and Alfredo Alcozer, 29, 1516 Highway 1 East, apartment 102 (Northland Village), Thief River Falls. Maagan Abrahamson of Thief River Falls spiked the ball during Tuesday's high school volleyball match against Red Lake County Central. The Prowlers jumped out to a 2-0 lead, but lost the match 3-2.

RLCC wins 3-2 volleyball match...

Mustangs rally for win over Prowlers

Red Lake County Central coach Nancy Bray isn't afraid to match her starting line-up against anybody on the Mustangs' 2008 high school volleyball schedule. However, a lack of depth is a concern. Tuesday that wasn't a problem as the Oklee/Plummer cooperative outlasted host Thief River Falls 3-2 in a two-hour battle that capped off the first day of school for both sides.

It was a come-from-behind effort for the visitors, who lost the first two games before stringing together three straight wins and a hard-fought 23-25, 22-25, 25-19, 26-24, 15-10 victory.

"They got more confident as the match went on," explained Bray. "They were worried about the Thief River Falls blockers at the start. I told them to keep on swinging; if they get blocked, they get blocked. They didn't let up."

The Mustangs' consistently-solid program is headed by a strong group of varsity veterans, but Bray has limited her early-season rotation to just seven players. "We don't have a lot of depth," she acknowledged. "We're going to have to get in top shape."

Tuesday's match served as a conditioning drill for the Mustangs, who more than held their own against the Prowlers' 10-player rotation.

Game 1 was tied at 22-22 before the Prowlers' Brittany Wiseth put down a kill and Brittany Guzek served an ace. The Mustangs' Brianna Spong answered with a kill, but Wiseth finished it with a drive.

Jessie Clark served back-to-back aces to shatter a 21-21 Game 2 tie. A Red Lake County Central ball-handling error and a Wiseth block ended it.

A block by Kayla Pelletier and an ace by Hannah Vettleson opened up a 20-16 Red Lake County Central third game lead and Hannah Vettleson finished play with a put-away.

The Mustangs' comeback continued in Game 4 when they fell behind 24-22 before putting together a run of four straight points.

A Thief River Falls service error helped ignite the the winners, who were on the verge of losing the game and the match when Wiseth's kill made it 24-22. Kruchowski served an ace, Spong scored on a block and the Prowlers hit the ball out of bounds to tie the match at 2-2.

The Mustangs led from start to finish in the Game 5 tie-breaker to 15. Red Lake County Central quickly went up 3-0, 10-5 and 13-7. The Prowlers managed to get within 13-10, but then served long and Spong followed with a hit that rolled off the blocker and out of bounds for the final point.

Wiseth led all hitters with 21 kills. Spong had 13 to lead the Mustangs. Guzek and Mickey Peterson combined for 37 assists, while Red Lake County Central setter Kali Borene had 35 herself.

"We've got things to work on," said Thief River Falls coach Tammy Sparby. "We played okay at the beginning, but toward the end we couldn't get the ball to our middle. They (Mustangs) had trouble stopping Brittany when we did get her the ball."

While the sets might not be perfect, hitters need to make adjustments, too, pointed out Sparby. "The girls need to learn to hit the ball even if its not a perfect pass," she said. "We need to be more aggressive on the broken plays."

It was the only match of the week for the 1-1 Prowlers, who will return to action Thursday, Sept. 11, at home against East Grand Forks Sacred Heart. The win improved the Mustangs to 2-0.

Thief River Falls won the junor varsity match 8-25, 25-11, 15-12. Red Lake County Central took the C squad contest 25-16, 25-19.

Perham runners take two Wadena-Deer Creek titles

Perham swept both team titles Tuesday at the Wadena-Deer Creek Invitational high school cross country meet.

Staples-Motley ran second in both races. Perham girls won by a slim 48-49 margin, while the Perham boys finished with a 28-59 scoring advantage.

Thief River Falls boys ran fifth in an eight-team race. Thief River Falls girls fielded an incomplete team.

It was an encouraging showing, according to Thief River Falls coach Terri Ueland. "I am starting to see the fire in their eyes throughout the race, and it's exciting," she said. "I have some good talent on the boys varsity team. Beezer Skime puts it all out there and gives it his best. Derek Lunde and Ben Beito also showed how tough they are. I can see them improving a lot. They really push each other in practice. It's going to be fun to see how much they continue to improve."

A lack of numbers keeps the Thief River Falls girls out of the team scores, but the Prowlers still have some solid individual performances, according to Ueland. "Emily Jones and Megan Bergland show a lot of talent," she said. "At the junior high, A.J. Mosbeck is very talented and will be moving to the varsity level soon. She runs with the older girls at practice and is ready to move on. Mackenzie Kruta and Alexa Underdahl have improved as well."

Naomi Landecker of Staples-Motley and Keith Schomack of Perham were the individual varsity race winners.

Ueland said she has been impressed with the Prowlers' unity. "What a great team," she said. "They cheer each other on during the races and work to get each other ready for the next race."

Eldon Sparby will join Coaches Hall of Fame

Eldon Sparby was one of the seven inductees introduced Friday who will make up the Minnesota State High School Coaches Association Hall of Fame Class of 2008.

Beginning with the 1971-72 school year, Sparby had a 32-year coaching career at Middle River and with Badger/Greenbush-Middle River when the sports cooperative was formed in 1992-93.

His MSHSCA Hall of Fame selection is based upon his coaching career in both football and boys basketball, but he was mostly recognized in northwestern Minnesota for his many years on the hardcourt. He resigned as the Gators' basketball coach after the 2002-03 season with a 432-278 career record.

Sparby continues to serve as principal and activities director at Greenbush-Middle River High School.

Former Roseau boys hockey coach Gary Hokanson will also be part of the newest Hall of Fame class.

The coaches will be inducted at the annual hall of fame and awards banquet Saturday, Oct. 4, at the Sheraton Minneapolis West. Social hour starts at 5:30 p.m., with the banquet to follow.

Family, friends and former players are welcome to attend. Tickets, priced at $35, may be purchased by contacting the MSHSCA offices at 218-847-6796.

Lee Peterson on UND golf team

Lee Peterson of Thief River Falls has earned a spot on the University of North Dakota men's golf team for the second straight year.

The 2007 Lincoln High School graduate gained a place on the UND roster during a three-day Labor Day weekend try-out.

Tryouts were open to all full-time enrolled UND students with a current USGA handicap index of 5.0 or under.

Extremely high winds made for some tough tryout conditions. Peterson was one of eight participants selected to join the four scholarship golfers on the UND roster.

Coached by Dan Frei, a teaching professional at Kings Walk Golf Course in Grand Forks, the UND squad was scheduled to open a five-meet fall schedule Friday at the Concordia Invitational in Moorhead. The month-long slate ends with the Oct. 10-12 Northern Colorado Invitational.

Tylar Wojciechowski rode Mr. Shine 404 in the 2007 and 2008 World Championship Palomino Show. In 2008, Shine won one World Championship title, two third place finishes, two fourth place finishes and one eighth place finish.

Keith Wojciechowski of Wojo's Horse Training in Greenbush, rode Mr. Shine 404 in the 2007 World Championship Palomino Show. Mr. Shine 404 is owned by Rodney Lund of Plummer. The horse also competed in the 2008 World Championship Palomino Show and collected one World Championship title, two third place finishes, two fourth place finishes and one eighth place finish.

had six months of training on roping and one year of general training, so Lund is very excited about the potential future of this horse.

Although he had great expectations for this horse, Lund said in this business there's always a risk.

Area residents may have seen the horse. In addition to competing at the World Palomino Horse Show in Tulsa, it also competed at several events in Greenbush where it placed second in ranch rodeo, and was the heel horse for a roping team that took second place at the rodeo in Warren.

This past summer, Lund bred the horse with nine outside mares, and 10 of his own mares. The stud fee comes with a live foal guarantee. If the horse continues to show well, its stud fees will probably increase.

While this may be his number one horse right now, Lund said he has another one in training that he expects, might be a champion, too.

If all continues to go well, someday, he said, he might be able to retire from his full-time job at Northern Motors in Thief River Falls where he's the shop manager.

Lund says individuals interested in this business should expect that it will take several years before they see a return on their investment. He also advises them to make sure they study the background and breeding of any horses they plan to invest in because it can make a big difference. Basically, he explained, riders should pick horses suited to their needs and personality.

Lund mentioned he always has horses for sale. At this particular point in time, he has several foals and horses for sale. Maybe, this horse business will allow him to retire.

ACT registration deadline is September 19

The next ACT test will be administered on Oct. 25, 2008. Students who wish to take the college admission and placement exam must register by Sept. 19 – the deadline for having the registration postmarked. Late registrations, with an additional fee, will be accepted until the final postmark deadline of Oct. 3. Students can register online at www.actstudent.org, or pick up registration packets from high school counseling offices.

The cost is $31 for the traditional ACT and $46 for the ACT Plus Writing. Some colleges require or recommend ACT's optional Writing Test score, so students should find out the requirements of prospective colleges before registering for the exam. ACT scores are accepted by all four-year colleges and universities in the United States.

Additional information about registration for those with special needs can be found at www.actstudent.org. Students in need of financial assistance should visit their school counselor for qualification information and to apply for a fee waiver.

ACT's Web site, www.actstudent.org, has helpful information, free sample tests and the opportunity to order inexpensive test preparation materials.

RLF School District seeks operating dollars through proposed referendum levy

Red Lake Falls - "The board of Ind. School District 630 held a special meeting Sept. 3, partially to discuss the upcoming referendum levy."

"Superintendent Joel Young gave a presentation on the proposed referendum.

"The current referendum, which is set at $1,000 per pupil, will run out at the end of this session and will need to be renewed. Once a new one is approved, it will run out in five years."

"Following Young's presentation, the school board decided on a per-pupil amount that it felt was sufficient for the life of the referendum.

"Young proposed a 1.5 percent expenditure increase and per-pupil amounts of $1,300, $1,400 and $1,500.

"The board felt that a 2.25 percent expenditure increase was more appropriate and, based on that number, increased the per-pupil amount to $1,600. Otherwise, even with the $1,500, the district would still be seeing cuts within the referendum's lifetime.

"The $1,600 per-pupil amount for the proposed referendum levy was unanimously approved." - Red Lake Falls Gazette, Sept. 10, 2008, by Destiny Harmoning

Co. Board sets '09 levy at $4.5 million, a 5.31% gain

Warren - "A 2009 county net levy totaling $4,481,859 and including a new social services special levy was set by the Marshall Co. Board of Commissioners at its meeting Sept. 2.

"The County Board called for a Revenue Fund levy of $3,378,424. This will be offset by anticipated 'county program aid' payments from the state totaling $1,203,814 next year, leaving a net levy for the Revenue Fund of $2,174,610. Added to that is $825,000 for the Road and Bridge Fund and $1,315,789 for social services. In addition, a new special levy of $56,000 to help compensate for cuts in federal social services funding was approved. A bonding levy has also been in effect for several years, set at $110,460 for next year, which will be the last year it is needed to pay off the current bonds.

"The Revenue Fund net levy for next year shows a decrease of more than $10,000 from this year. The Road and Bridge Fund net levy shows a $175,000 increase next year, a boost of 27 percent over this year, to support maintenance of the county highway network. The social services basic levy is unchanged from this year, but with the special levy added in, shows an increase of 4.3 percent.

"Next year's total net levy will be an increase of $226,092, or 5.313 percent, over the 2008 net levy." - Warren Sheaf, Sept. 10, 2008

Newcastle disease

Events at Agassiz National Wildlife Refuge are cancelled

The National Wildlife Health Center in Madison, Wis., recently confirmed that a sick American white pelican captured on Agassiz National Wildlife Refuge in Marshall County tested positive for a virulent form of Newcastle disease.

Because Agassiz NWR has encountered a handful of other sick and dead pelicans and the virulent strain of Newcastle disease has been confirmed at no less than seven other lakes in Minnesota this year, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service staff plan to err on the side of caution with respect to public use activities on the refugo this fall. The confirmation of this disease on the refuge will have multiple public use ramifications, including:

- The public duck banding night, which was scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 20, is cancelled;
- The Lost Bay Habitat Drive will be closed until further notice;
- School groups scheduled to assist with the refuge duck banding program will need to reschedule for the fall of 2009; and
- Visitors will not be allowed special access to closed portions of the refuge (i.e., for bird watching, sightseeing) until further notice.

Newcastle disease is caused by viruses that exhibit a wide range of virulence (from mild to severe). Although Newcastle disease viruses are not uncommon in populations of certain bird species, most are the mild strains and are not usually

Humane Society adds exercise yard for pets

by Scott DCamp
Reporter

Rummage sale Saturday in TRF

A considerable cash donation from an anonymous source led to the construction of a two and one-half-acre exercise yard at the Pennington County Humane Society in Thief River Falls.

The exercise yard cost approximately $15,000 to complete, with the majority of the money coming from the same anonymous donor who gave the humane society $30,000 in startup money in the late 1990s and $10,000 to complete the first outdoor exercise yard.

Scott Bentson, president of the Pennington County Humane Society, called the donation a wonderful gift that will keep the dog population happy.

"It's a wonderful thing for the dogs and also for the staff and volunteers who can get them out in a much larger open area, where they can run," Bentson said. He added that volunteers can now come out and have a much more enjoyable experience with the dogs. Dogs can be taken off their leashes and allowed to run.

"For the dogs, it means they can have more fun," Bentson added. "For someone who's interested in adopting a dog, it allows them to see the dog in a more natural setting."

The new exercise yard connects to a concrete-floored kennel that used to serve as the primary exercise yard. It was completed in July by Lincoln High School industrial arts teacher Matt McGlynn. The new exercise yard has many befits for the humane society.

"It allows the dogs more exercise room," said humane society manager Dawn Williamson. "People can interact with the dogs more and during the nicer weather days, the dogs are not stuck indoors.

Williamson said humane society staff and

Brooks builds new town hall

Residents' spirit is inspirational

Blast to Brooks, a community celebration, became a celebration of community pride as it unveiled its new community center.

Residents and visitors to Brooks, population 141, got a close up look at the talk of the town on Saturday, Sept. 6. The new 48- by 120-foot town hall houses the Brooks Community Federal Credit Union, city offices, a city hall, handicapped accessible bathrooms, a kitchen, a storage area, and another room that can be rented by a business or for other functions.

Cost estimates for the building are difficult to arrive at. Some place it at $200,000 and others closer to $250,000.

Ernie Kolling, Brooks mayor, explained that a lot of donations and volunteer work made it possible to build the new town hall. He said every time they asked for volunteers they would start out with a few and end up with 12 or 15.

Everill Mercil of Brooks, said he grew up and lived in Brooks, then moved to Florida only to return - "This snowbird always flies home." said Mercil.

And one of the reasons he returns is the sense of community he finds in this small northwestern Minnesota community. In noting that Brooks has a lot to offer, Mercil pointed to Paradis Inc., Marflex Manufacturing, which makes agricultural sprayers, Brooks Auto Body, Red Lake County Co-op and Detterman's Field Drainage, but residents are, above all, he said, very caring. "I've never seen so many volunteers working together," said Mercil.

"Absolutely, there's a lot of community pride in this building," said Kolling.

The community of Brooks has

SOUPÇON

Sherry LaCoursiere
email: lacours@mncable.net

Today's recipes are from a cookbook from Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church in Reynolds, N.D. I hope you enjoy them.

Make a batch of these buns this weekend. You can use some for eating and some to freeze for later:

BUNS (BREAD MACHINE)

Rose Thompson

1 cup plus 3 tablespoons water (lukewarm)
1 egg
5 tablespoons sugar
2 1/2 teaspoons yeast
1/3 cup salad oil
3 1/2 cups bread flour
1 teaspoon salt

Put ingredients in bread maker pan in order above. Put on "Dough" setting (1 1/2 hours).

When done, make into buns and put on cookie sheets. Let rise 1 1/2 hours, then bake at 350 degrees for 12 minutes on bottom rack and 10 minutes on top rack. (Recipe makes 24 medium buns.)

Dough can also be used to make cinnamon rolls.

To make wheat buns, add 1 cup of wheat flour and 2 1/2 cups of white bread flour.

The weather is getting cooler and it's time for some of those favorite hearty meals:

WILD RICE CHICKEN CASSEROLE

Judy Jahnke

1 cup wild rice
2 cups cooked, diced chicken or turkey
1/2 cup diced onion
1/3 cup diced green pepper
1 can cream of chicken soup
4 cups water
1/2 cup diced celery
1 can cream of mushroom soup
1/2 cup chopped mushrooms

Boil wild rice in 4 cups water for 40 minutes (makes 5 cups of cooked rice). Rinse. Add remaining ingredients and bake 1 hour at 350 degrees.

Judy says this works great in the crock pot and sometimes, when she is in a time crunch, she will use a brand-name box of wild rice, following the directions on box.

We need a nice little salad with this meal and I bet you can find a few of these ingredients in your own garden (or ask your neighbors for some of theirs):

CUCUMBER & TOMATO SALAD

Colleen Bohm

4 ripe medium tomatoes
3 medium cucumbers
1 teaspoon minced onion
1/4 cup white vinegar
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 cup crushed ice or cubes

Cut tomatoes into 3/4 inch cubes and place in serving bowl. Remove part of the peel in lengthwise strips. Cut each cucumber into quarters lengthwise and remove extra coarse seeds. Cut into 3/4 inch cubes.

Add minced onion and combine with all vegetables. Mix remaining ingredients and pour over vegetables. Toss well to dissolve sugar and salt. Allow to stand for 15 minutes or more to marinate. Serve chilled (with a slotted spoon). This salad will keep well up to 2 days.

An easy-to-fix coffee cake is just the thing for dessert:

LAYERED COFFEE CAKE

Kathy Wigestrand

Cake

4 eggs, well beaten
1/2 cup shortening
2 cups sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1 cup milk

Filling

1 cup brown sugar
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup chopped nuts

Beat eggs well. Add remaining ingredients.

Mix filling ingredients together. Layer cake mixture and filling in greased and floured 9x13 inch cake pan. Top with filling. Bake about 40 minutes at 350 degrees.

Peaches and nectarines are good right now. You might like to try this dessert:

PSEUDO PEACH KUCHEN

Luella Schumacher

3/4 cup cold butter or margarine
1 (18 ounce) package yellow cake mix
2 egg yolks
2 cups (16 ounces total) sour cream
1 (29 ounce) can sliced peaches (or 1 quart jar)
1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon

In medium bowl, cut butter into dry cake mix until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Pat into greased 9x13 inch pan.

In another bowl, beat egg yolks. Add sour cream and mix well.

Drain peaches and set aside 6-8 slices for garnish. Cut remaining peaches into 1 inch pieces, and then stir into sour cream mixture. Spread over crust and sprinkle with cinnamon. Bake at 350 degrees for 25-30 minutes or until edges begin to dry and filling is set.

Lasseter reminds producers of Tuesday's waiver deadline

Teresa Lasseter, administrator of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Farm Service Agency, reminds farmers and ranchers of an important upcoming deadline for disaster assistance programs.

Tuesday, Sept. 16 is the deadline to pay the "buy-in" fee for 2008 crops, including grazing lands. Affected parties include farmers and ranchers who are eligible for disaster assistance under certain new Supplemental Agricultural Disaster Assistance programs for losses caused by natural disasters in calendar year 2008, but who are not fully covered by crop insurance or the Noninsured Crop Disaster Assistance Program (NAP).

"If your crops or land are not insured, I urge you to take advantage of this one-time opportunity," said Lasseter. "If you miss this deadline, you will be ineligible for these disaster assistance programs for your 2008 crops."

The 2008 Farm Bill (the Food, Conservation, and Energy Act of 2008) authorized five new Supplemental Agricultural Disaster Assistance programs: the Supplemental Revenue Assistance Payment (SURE) program; Livestock Forage Disaster Program (LFP); Tree Assistance Program (TAP); Livestock Indemnity Program (LIP); and the Emergency Assistance for Livestock, Honey bees and Farm-raised Fish (ELAP) program. The "buy-in" waiver applies to SURE, TAP, LFP and ELAP for 2008 crop production and livestock losses.

To be eligible under the 2008 Farm Bill for disaster assistance under SURE, ELAP and TAP, producers must have enrolled in crop insurance or NAP for all crops in all counties in which they have an interest, including grazing and hayland. To be eligible for disaster assistance for LFP, producers need only have crop insurance or NAP coverage for the specific grazing land for which assistance is being requested.

Since the 2008 Farm Bill was enacted after the crop insurance and NAP application periods had closed, producers who did not buy coverage couldn't comply with this requirement. However, the 2008 Farm Bill provides authority for a waiver for 2008 that allows producers to pay a fee to be eligible for the new disaster assistance.

The crop insurance and NAP coverage requirements will be waived in 2008 for producers who did not obtain crop insurance or NAP coverage by the applicable sales closing date. That waiver may be given if the producer files an application for a waiver and pays a "buy-in" fee in an amount equal to the 2008 applicable NAP coverage or catastrophic risk protection plan fee for the crop or grazing lands.

In July, USDA announced the "buy-in" waiver deadline and application process. Producers who do not pay the fee by Tuesday's deadline will not be eligible for disaster assistance under the Supplemental Agricultural Disaster Assistance programs.

Lasseter also reminded producers that the payment of the applicable fee does not provide them with crop insurance or NAP indemnity payment for losses; it only makes them eligible to apply for assistance under the Supplemental Agricultural Disaster Assistance programs.

For more information on the "buy-in" waiver and applicable fee, contact your local FSA County Office before Tuesday's deadline.

Public invited to attend Education Fair at NCTC

Northland Community and Technical College – Thief River Falls campus will host the 2008 Minnesota Education Fair on Tuesday, Sept. 16, from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. in the college gymnasium. The NCTC College Fair is one of the largest college fairs in the state.

College Fairs provide students with an opportunity to visit with colleges, universities and technical colleges and armed services at one convenient location. Last year, representatives from 63 colleges and universities from Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, Wisconsin, and Manitoba participated and over 800 students from area high schools were in attendance.

Structured like a trade show, participants are free to browse the various displays and speak with the schools, colleges, and universities in attendance. The public is invited to attend.

NCTC's College Fair is sponsored by the Minnesota Association for College Admission Counseling (MACAC), the same group that hosts the successful National College Fair each fall in Minneapolis.

Sanitation Department Reminder

We are reminding City Sanitation Department customers of the requirements that brush or branches, not exceeding 5 feet in length, are to be placed in small tied bundles adjacent to the regular garbage pickup site for Thursday or Friday removal by the brush truck.

This service is provided to allow residents the opportunity to dispose of small branches downed from wind storms or minor pruning operations on developed residential property.

Disposal of large amounts of branches from downed trees on private property, major pruning operations or removed hedges is the independent responsibility and cost of the property owner.

The Sanitation Department is also requesting that customers not place their tied City garbage bags out until the morning of scheduled pickup. This will reduce the opportunity for birds or stray animals to scatter your garbage.

Thanks for your assistance in keeping our City clean and allowing us to continue to provide cost effective sanitation services.

Pausing to remember

This week, we paused to remember 9-11, the day terrorists attacked the United States killing nearly 3,000 people. It set our economy on its ear and set this country on a new path like few other events have ever done before. On this anniversary, we reflect on that terrible event and what it meant to this country. Personally, seven years is not long enough. The wound still smarts as a sharp cut does a few days after the injury. Many more years from now we may remember Sept. 11 as the dawning of a new era. I say this because at this time, we may not fully comprehend all of the changes that came about because of that event.

On that day, Americans finally realized that they are vulnerable to events taking place halfway around the globe. In the past, we were largely isolated from turmoil in other countries. Today, we realize that the world is a much smaller, and some would say, more dangerous place for a freedom-loving people.

From that event, we learned a lot about ourselves and this country. From the tragedy, Americans discovered that they needed to pay attention to foreign policy and its impact on peoples, we rediscovered our sense of patriotism, and an appreciation for our freedom.

On this anniversary, we remember those who died, those who worked hard to save lives and this country, and those who are our watchdogs. We also remember that this event unified this country like none other.

The wounds still smart, so the lessons are fresh. Yes, we learned a lot from this event, and there is learning yet to be gained. But, I hope above all else, that we remember these lessons tomorrow.

Regional summit to identify economic vision for NW Minnesota

Men and women with a common interest in the future success of northwest Minnesota will gather Sept. 15 in Thief River Falls. These key decision makers, named the Regional Economic Alliance, will develop a collective vision for the economy of northwest Minnesota.

This vision will be used to guide the decision makers in planning for the future of their own businesses, organizations and communities. It also will be used to align resources across the region in pursuit of common economic goals.

Beginning in the fall of 2007, the Minnesota Department of Employment and Economic Development (DEED) issued a request for proposals to convene local interest groups to prepare regional economic development plans.

Ingenuity Frontier, which is a collaborative project working to increase the pool of manufacturing and applied engineering talent and innovation in northwestern Minnesota, consists of partners Bemidji State University, Headwaters Regional Development Commission, DEED, Northland Community and Technical College and the Northwest Minnesota Foundation. With NMF as the lead, they submitted a successful proposal on behalf of northwest Minnesota.

The active partners going forward in the grant project include the core team of Ingenuity Frontier, joined by the University of Minnesota, Crookston, and the Center for Research and Innovation at BSU.

The central action of the project is a regional summit attended by some of the principal stakeholders in northwest Minnesota's economic future. Participants were recruited from all sectors, both public and private, including: manufacturing, healthcare, banking, energy, tribal government, higher education, K-12 schools, economic and workforce development, and philanthropy.

During the Sept. 15 Regional Summit, the Alliance will be guided by Jim Krile through a structured planning process. Krile is well known around the state as the designer and retired director of the Blandin Community Leadership Program.

The work of the Alliance will be to develop strong working relationships and a sense of identity as the Regional Economic Alliance; to create shared meaning about and agreement on the major elements to be included in a vision for the region's economy; producing a list of potential ways to track progress on achieving the vision; and identifying and prioritizing critical drivers and barriers to achieving the vision.

The members of the alliance are: Steve Muzzy, controller, Central Boiler Inc.; Vic Carder, vice president of human resources, Marvin Windows & Doors; Bob Hager, CEO, Border State Bank; Patricia Wangler, CEO, First Care Medical Services; Erma Vizenor, Chairwoman, White Earth Reservation Tribal Council; Charles Casey, chancellor, University of Minnesota Crookston; Anne Temte, president, Northland Community and Technical College; Jon Quistgaard, president, Bemidji State University and Northwest Technical College; Murray Turner, executive director, Pine-to-Prairie Cooperative Center; Leon Heath, executive director, Northwest Regional Development Commission; Cliff Tweedale, executive director, Headwaters Regional Development Commission; Dan Wenner, executive director, Rural Minnesota CEP; Rodger Couette, executive director, Northwest Private Industry Council; Nancy Vyskocil, president, Northwest Minnesota Foundation; Debra Boardman, president/CEO, RiverView Health; Lauren Brorby, CEO, Red River Valley Cooperative Power Association; Brent Gish, superintendent, Red Lake Schools; Gary Johnson, COO, Paul Bunyan Telephone Cooperative; Floyd "Buck" Jourdain, chairman, Red Lake Band of Ojibwe Indians; Arlen Kangas, president, Midwest Minnesota Community Development Corporation; Don McElroy, commissioner, Minnesota Department of Employment and Economic Development; Mike St. Onge, president, Alerus Financial Grand Forks; and, Rick Trontvet, vice president of human resources, Digi-Key.

Participants will come back together for a second session in December and again at a later date to review the results of the planning process. Their vision will be shared with a wider audience through media and other means, including a regional conference to be held next spring.

"A letter to Dave"

Dear Dave,

I just came in from feeding hay. That may sound funny considering I try to keep the cattle on pasture as many days as possible, but it was quite enjoyable. I bought Dad's Farmall tractor this summer and today was its real debut. I was impressed with how strong it was and how much the loader could lift; the grapple bucket can hold a huge amount of hay but the loader easily hoisted it into the bale rings. I guess it shouldn't come as a surprise as that tractor did the lion's share of the "bull work" around our family dairy farm. It would probably be a little faster with my newer Belarus tractor, but it would not be as fun. I like to feed hay in early fall as that is when the pasture is sending every nutrient it can to its roots in preparation for winter. After the first light frost, the grass hardens up and has more dry matter, yet it is still very digestible. The hay I feed today will make the pasture that much healthier next spring.

I recently did a really silly thing. I told our sister, (sweet, insane) Debbie, that even though I work nights, I always try and wake up for phone calls during the day. I figure most people work days, so I try and be flexible in communicating with them. This statement was meant to alleviate her embarrassment at waking me up with a phone call a few months ago, but she has taken it as an invitation to throw discretion to the wind and call whenever the impulse presents itself. To be fair, Debbie's calls are always about her interest in our family and with the best of intentions. Recently, she woke me just prior to a little blessed R.E.M. sleep to ask about our trip to South Dakota. I told her that I would call her later after I'd enjoyed a second hour of sleep. You know what? I am going to call her and describe our trip in great detail, I think maybe 2 a.m. will be a perfect time.

I want to tell you about our recent trip to the Black Hills of South Dakota. Mother Walseth, Teresa, Lisa and I left last Tuesday for our yearly trip. I drove most of the time and bravely led us through the high elevations of the Black Hills. We saw Mount Rushmore, which was beautiful, and toured the museum at its base which kept me enthralled. The museum had displays of the tools used on Mount Rushmore and interviews with the men who built it. We also visited the Crazy Horse monument, which will not be finished for many generations. The scale of this monument is quite grand and was eclipsed only by the price of admission - $27. It seemed a little pricey especially when compared to admission at Mount Rushmore, which was $10. We visited many antique stores and came home with a reasonable amount of useless items. We also ate at Bob's Diner in Belle Fourche, S.D. The Diner opened in 1930 and is still in its same basic form. It is well taken care of and took care of us very well at dinner last Wednesday. We also drove around Deadwood for a bit but didn't stop to feed any of the parking meters. It was a nice trip and the company was outstanding, as always. We started plans for 2009's trip on the way home but nothing for sure as of yet.

Tell everyone hi, also Happy Anniversary to you and Mary.

Grant

Marshall-Beltrami SWCD seeks public input

The Marshall-Beltrami Soil and Water Conservation District seeks input from local landowners and operators as to the future direction of the district.

Over its 58 years, the Marshall-Beltrami SWCD's role has changed due to local needs and state-mandated programs. Its purpose continues to be to provide assistance in planning, applying and providing education on best soil and water management practices and sound land use decisions.

As the Marshall-Beltrami SWCD faces the future, it needs to hear from the people that it is here to serve. It would like to know:

- Is it currently meeting your natural resource concerns?
- Are there programs or services not currently offered that you would like to see?
- Are there other agricultural issues that it should address? Or forestry? Or wildlife?
- Would it be a concern to you if there was no longer an SWCD office in the Grygla area?
- Could your soil and water resources concerns be handled from another location?

Local landowners and operators may respond to the questions by calling any of the following Marshall-Beltrami SWCD Board members: Wally Byklum – 218-294-6352, Milton Anderson – 218-425-7573, Orvis Byklum – 218-294-6252 or Sheldon Peterson 218-294-6176. They may also contact the Marshall-Beltrami SWCD Office at 218-294-6144; 218-294-6182 (fax); 231 E. State St., Grygla, MN 56727 (north end of Motel 89); or chs1@gvtel.com. The Marshall-Beltrami SWCD would like to hear from local landowners and operators – whether they have good, bad or indifferent feelings.

The Marshall-Beltrami SWCD continues to seek people to serve on its board. Contact the Marshall-Beltrami SWCD Office for additional information.

More to Love now has more to offer women

Women's clothing store More to Love in Thief River Falls will soon have more to love about it. Deb Dahlen, owner, said last week that a recent story in The Times helped convince her to proceed with her plans to add all sizes of ladies' clothing to her store. Dahlen said the idea has always been there, but she's had so much to do since opening the store that she hadn't proceeded with her plans.

Recently, a story about businesses in downtown Thief River Falls and the need for more stores appeared in the Thief River Falls Times. In response, Dahlen said that several of her suppliers offer smaller sizes and she can order anything from them. She also is beginning to place orders and plans to have all sizes in stock in the spring.

More to Love is located on Third Street in downtown Thief River Falls.

Local students named to NCTC dean's list

Northland Community and Technical College has announced its dean's list for summer semester 2008. Local students named to the dean's list include Cassie Cota, Red Lake Falls; Nicole Johnson, Karlstad; and Erin Woods, Thief River Falls.

Students must have at least 12 earned credits as of the last day of the semester and a semester grade point average of 3.5 to 3.74 must be achieved to be eligible for the NCTC dean's list.

Cathy Erickson Band to appear on "Big Joe's Polka Show"

The Cathy Erickson Band will appear on an upcoming episode of the "Big Joe Polka Show." The show airs Wednesday, Sept. 17 at 6 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 18 at 8 a.m. and Saturday, Sept. 20 at 9 p.m. The show airs on RFD-TV.

In July, the band traveled to Medina to tape its appearance on the show. The band is currently in its 33rd year. It was formerly known as The Alley Cats and later as Cathy and the Alley Cats.

"We average 30,000 miles a year just playing," said Erickson, a rural Middle River resident.

The band features Erickson on accordion and vocals; her daughter Mary Jo Sturman of Grand Forks, N.D., on alto saxophone and vocals; and Ron Sherack of Tabor on drums. (Sherack didn't appear on the show.) Erickson's son Andy Erickson of Garfield occasionally joins the group to play drums. He played drums during the band's appearance on the show. Jerry Kochmann of Mahnomen joins the group as a trumpet player for polka masses. Kochmann performed with the band during its appearance. Cathy Erickson's 10-year-old granddaughter McKayla Erickson of Thief River Falls also appeared with the band. She was the band's featured guest, and she sang a song.

■ Northern Freeze volleyball is off on right foot

Despite graduating seven seniors from last year's 29-5 Section 8A championship team, Northern Freeze has hardly missed a beat in the early portion of the 2008 high school volleyball schedule.

The fourth year Marshall County Central/Tri-County cooperative saw its record climb to 9-1 with back-to-back 3-0 victories over Warren-Alvarado-Oslo Monday and Red Lake Falls Tuesday.

Both matches were played in Newfolden. The Ponies fell 25-12, 25-8, 25-17 and the Eagles lost 25-12, 25-15, 25-19.

"I'm happy with the way we're playing," said Northern Freeze coach Missy Thompson. "There's always something to work on, but right now, they're all doing a nice job."

MacKinzie Magner had 11 kills and Chelsey Davidson served nine aces in the win over Warren-Alvardo-Oslo.

"We played a pretty good match," offered Thompson. "We had a lot of ace serves, which was nice to see since we had been struggling with our serves."

Magner had a 14-kill night against Red Lake Falls.

"We made some changes, and it seemed to work pretty well," pointed out Thompson. "Our communication wasn't up to par – we let some balls hit the floor that we should have picked up – but I think we've got everybody in the right spots now."

The lone loss on the Freeze record came at the hands of Climax/Fisher during the Sept. 6 Ada-Borup Invitational.

Raiders beat Northland 3-1

A slow start for defending national champion Central Lakes ended Wednesday when the Raiders beat Northland 3-1 in a Minnesota College Athletic Conference volleyball match at Brainerd.

In 17 seasons under head coach Jane Peterson, Central Lakes has won 436 matches, three national titles and four third place trophies at the national tournament. But the Raiders were winless when they took the court against Northland.

It was a golden opportunity for the Pioneers, who stepped off the bus with a 9-4 overall record and a 2-0 MCAC Northern Division mark, to cement their status as a serious title contender.

Instead, the Raiders snapped a season-opening six-match losing streak by beating Northland 25-13, 25-16, 23-25, 25-21.

The Pioneers had an early 4-0 edge in Game 2. They led from start to finish for a match-extending Game 3 victory.

Northland was within 21-20 in the fourth game but couldn't come up with the points at the end that could have evened the match.

Gators notch first volleyball win

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River picked up its first win of the 2008 high school volleyball season Monday when the Gators swept visiting Stephen-Argyle 25-15, 25-23, 25-7.

The winners were in control, pointed out Gators coach Stacy Dahl, when they were hitting hard and serving aces that led to the scoreboard spreads in Games 1 and 3.

But there was a mid-match breakdown, according to Dahl. "Passing to the setter was a problem, which led to fewer offensive attacks in Game 2," she said. "In practice, we emphasize passing in game-like situations, so there is no excuse for passing errors."

The Gators lost their first two

Cassie Gunderson (15) and Meagan Abrahamson (14) went up together on defense for Thief River Falls in Thursday's high school volleyball match against East Grand Forks Sacred Heart. The Prowlers beat the Eagles 3-0.

Prowlers sweep Eagles 3-0

Cassie Gunderson (11), Brittany Wiseth (10) and Meagan Abrahamson (6) combined for 27 kills Thursday to lead Thief River Falls past visiting East Grand Forks Sacred Heart 3-0 in high school volleyball.

Jessie Clark also figured prominently into the scoring by serving seven aces in the 25-15, 25-21, 25-11 sweep that improved the Prowlers' record to 2-1.

It wasn't a smooth start for either side. A 12-6 Thief River Falls Game 1 lead included five aces and four service errors by the Prowlers. Sacred Heart was within 14-10 but lost ground down the stretch. Abrahamson ended it on a kill.

The Prowlers found themselves trailing 16-13 in Game 2 before catching the Eagles at 17-17 on a Mariah Torgerson block and finishing off the visitors with a free-ball put-back by Gunderson.

"It's been nine days since we've played, and we have two-three players in different positions," said Thief River Falls coach Tammy Sparby, in explaining her team's sporadic troubles.

But the pieces meshed in the third game when the Prowlers turned a 2-2 tie into a 7-2 lead on a kill by Wiseth that slammed into the back corner. An ace by Haley Teie made it 15-6, a Sacred Heart service error produced a 20-7 spread and a Wiseth kill completed the sweep.

One of the position changes moved Gunderson from outside hitter to middle hitter, and she warmed to the change in a hurry, according to Sparby. "Cassie did a nice job in the middle," she said. "Her athleticism and jumping ability will take some of the pressure off Brittany (Wiseth) and Hayley (Teie)."

Sacred Heart won a close junior varsity match 26-24, 19-25, 16-14. The loss dropped the Prowlers' JV to 1-2.

Hunting season under way

Grouse, rabbit, squirrel and partridge seasons open Sept. 13, offering Minnesotans the chance to discover the state's vast amounts of land open to public hunting, according to the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources.

"Small game season is a forgotten pleasure," said Dennis Simon, DNR wildlife section chief. "It doesn't take a large investment of time and money or much hunting expertise to get out and find a few squirrels and rabbits."

Simon noted many small game populations are relatively strong year-in, year-out. "Minnesota is consistently one of the top ruffed-grouse harvest states in the nation. What better place to introduce someone new to this type of hunting?" asked Simon.

Basic requirements include a blaze orange-colored article of clothing above the waist, a small caliber rifle or shotgun and a valid hunting license and firearms safety training.

"Finding a place to hunt is the most difficult obstacle for many people," Simon said. "But many people don't know that Minnesota offers hunting in its 1.2-million-acre Wildlife Management Area system as well as state, county and national forests."

Rams edge Wolverines in three close contests

Three close games all went in Roseau's favor Thursday as the Rams posted a 25-20, 25-19, 25-19 high school volleyball win over Goodridge/Grygla-Gatzke.

"In the first two games, we stayed with the Rams, and in the last game we were down by a lot and had a good comeback that came up short," reported Wolverines coach Jean Schulz.

Goodridge/Grygla-Gatzke is 1-9, but Schulz saw some bright spots. "The girls served very well," she said. "We need to attack the ball more."

Mathaw Wold, a Lincoln High School graduate and junior studying agriculture and biosystems engineering at North Dakota State University accepted a $10,000 scholarship check from retired astronaut and Astronaut Scholarship Association Chairman Al Wordan Thursday. (Submitted photo)

LHS grad receives $10,000 scholarship from Astronaut Scholarship Foundation

Apollo 15 astronaut Al Worden presented North Dakota State University junior and Lincoln High School graduate Matthew Wold with a $10,000 scholarship from the Astronaut Scholarship Foundation during a public presentation and ceremony, Thursday, Sept. 11 in the Plains Room of the Memorial Union on the NDSU campus.

The Astronaut Scholarship is the largest monetary award given in the United States to science and engineering undergraduate students based solely on merit. Nineteen of these prestigious awards are disbursed each year through the ASF to worthy college students majoring in a science or engineering field. These well-rounded students exhibit exceptional performance, initiative and creativity in their field, as well as intellectual daring and a genuine desire to positively change the world around them, both in and outside the classroom.

"As an explorer and engineer, I am pleased to be presenting Matthew with this scholarship," said Worden, who chairs the ASF. "Matthew is a bright, up-and-coming forerunner in the field of agricultural and biosystems engineering, and I am honored to pass this award on to him so that he will be able to continue the United States' great tradition of excellence in the science and engineering fields."

Wold is a junior at NDSU majoring in agricultural and biosystems engineering, focusing his research on cellulosic ethanol. Wold, the son of Tom and Kaylynn Wold of Thief River Falls, attributes his choice of major to growing up on the family farm.

The immediate and real-world problems with equipment on the farm sparked his curiosity and thirst for knowledge of effective and efficient machinery design. Through the university, he is working on a system that will be used to test pretreatment methods for producing biochemical ethanol from biomass. In a separate project, Wold is part of a team designing a tractor for use in developing nations, which will improve agricultural productivity and quality of life in these areas of the world.

The award ceremony coincided with a presentation by Worden on his out-of-this-world travels and how hard work made it possible for him to be one of only 24 men to have traveled to the moon.

"NDSU is delighted to welcome astronaut Al Worden to campus. He is a true hero of this country's space program," said NDSU President Joseph A. Chapman. "Through its scholarship program, the Astronaut Scholarship Foundation provides outstanding opportunities for deserving students who will help the United States continue as the leader in science, technology and engineering."

Worden served as Command Module pilot on the 1971 Apollo 15 mission, during which he orbited the moon with crewmates Dave Scott and Jim Irwin. During his "lonesome" period in the command module, Worden photographed 25 percent of the lunar surface with two special cameras mounted outside the ship. On the homeward journey, Worden took the farthest-out space walk, moving along handrails on the outside of his spaceship to retrieve film cassettes from the two moon-mapping cameras. He was inducted to the U.S. Astronaut Hall of Fame in 1997 and has chaired the ASF since 2005.

The Astronaut Scholarship Foundation is a nonprofit organization established in 1984 by the six surviving members of America's original Mercury astronauts. Its goal is to aid the United States in retaining its world leadership in science and technology by providing scholarships for college students who exhibit motivation, imagination and exceptional performance in the science or engineering field of their major. ASF funds 19 $10,000 scholarships annually and has awarded nearly $2.5 million in scholarships nationwide. For more details, log onto www.astronautscholarship.org or call 321-455-7012.

Humane society to continue rummage sale fundraiser

The Eighth Annual Pennington County Humane Society Rummage Sale will be held Saturday, Sept. 13 at the Thief River Falls Curling Club. The rummage sale will be open from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

More lodging available at "Kitty Haven"

Dogs aren't the only animals that are benefitting from the generosity of others at the Pennington County Humane Society. The humane society's 30-foot by 40-foot cat shelter, affectionately known as "Kitty Haven," will soon have an additional 360 square feet for the humane society's maximum of 50 cats to prowl.

Chad Johnson, the humane society's chief engineer, recently designed and began construction on the addition. Once completed, it will essentially be a screened-in three season porch.

"Hopefully we have less crabby kitties since they won't be stuck inside," Williamson said.

Microchipping clinic planned for Sept. 26-27

One of the safest and most effective means of pet identification is now more affordable than ever. Effective immediately, the Pennington County Humane Society is offering complete microchip installation and registration for $20. That is a bargain, considering that nationwide, the average cost of microchipping is between $25 and $40.

For the first time ever, the Pennington County Humane Society is offering a microchipping clinic. The two-day clinic begins on Friday Sept. 26, from 2 to 7 p.m. and concludes Sept. 27 from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

No appointments are necessary during the clinic, but dogs are required to be leashed. In addition to the $20 microchipping cost, pet owners can have their pet licensed through the city of Thief River Falls. The licensing cost is $5 for pets that have been spayed or neutered; and $10 for pets that are intact.

not had a permanent place for its city hall for many years Kolling said the city had been renting space from the Red Lake County Cooperative. There is a community hall in downtown Brooks, but the city hasn't used it for meetings in years.

Many point out that the community also built its new town hall without grant money, raising taxes or going into debt.

Volunteers weren't the only people working on this project. The project was divided into five major stages of development. North Country Lumber of McIntosh won the materials bid. Anderson Construction of Red Lake Falls completed all of the framing. Sparkey Electric of Red Lake Falls did the wiring. Dave Fnldet of McIntosh poured the concrete slab. The plumbing was done by Jason and Chad's Plumbing and Heating out of McIntosh.

Saturday, the community came together to celebrate the 37th annual Blast to Brooks, but it also came together to celebrate the pride residents have for this community.

Newcastle disease confirmed

associated with disease. Conversely, the virulent (severe) form of Newcastle disease can be highly infectious to domestic poultry and can cause high mortality rates in unvaccinated birds.

Outbreaks of Newcastle disease are rare in the United States in wild birds, with the exception of outbreaks in double-crested cormorants, American white pelicans, and gulls in several Midwestern states and Canadian provinces during 1975, 1990, 1992, 1995 and 1999. Although waterfowl and other bird species are known to carry some of the non-virulent strains of Newcastle viruses, mortality during outbreaks in the United States has generally been limited to pelicans, gulls and cormorants.

Transmission of this disease is generally from direct contact with bodily secretions and/or aerosols. It can also be transmitted by contaminated boots, clothing or equipment.

Aside from the potentially devastating effects of Newcastle disease on domestic poultry, the disease has minimal public health significance. Some individuals working in direct contact with infected birds may develop mild eye or respiratory infections.

As with other disease considerations concerning wild gamebirds (e.g., botulism, avian influenza, West Nile virus), hunters are simply encouraged to use common sense practices when handling, cleaning and cooking birds they have shot. These include wearing protective gloves when cleaning game, washing hands thoroughly after handling game and thoroughly cooking all wild meat.

Anyone who encounters sick or dead waterbirds should contact Agassiz NWR or their local Minnesota Department of Natural Resources personnel as soon as possible. If you have recently come in contact with birds dead from unknown causes, it is recommended that you quarantine yourself from susceptible birds, such as pet birds, backyard and commercial poultry flocks, and captive birds at zoos, for a minimum of five days.

If you desire more information or have questions on the above situation at Agassiz NWR, call the refuge headquarters at 218-449-4115.

City Council says no to grant application

Fosston - "The Fosston City Council has put the brakes on its involvement in a multi-city housing rehabilitation grant application. The decision was made during its regular meeting Sept. 8 to the disappointment of the city of Crookston and the Mentor-based Northwest Minnesota Multi-County Housing and Redevelopment Authority.

"The application was for $500,000 in grant monies from the Small Cities Development Program, which is through the Minnesota Department of Employment and Economic Development. If approved, it would have provided funds to rehabilitate four housing units in Fosston and 15 in Crookston.

"According to HRA Executive Director Lee Meier, the program is geared toward regional development and would most likely be approved if more than one community was on the application. Fosston was contacted since it has worked quite extensively with the Mentor-based HRA in the past.

"A letter of support was submitted by Mayor Jim Offerdahl at the end of August. That letter invited Meier to make a presentation to the City Council about the application, and it indicated that the application would be considered.

"However, that support was pulled Sept. 8 after it was revealed that the Mentor-based HRA had leveraged funds for the grant. In its last session, the Minnesota Legislature approved a measure that gave the housing entity taxing power to levy up to 25 percent in the counties it served. The move is controversial since the HRA is not a publicly elected body.

"In July, the Mentor-based HRA approved a levy for 2009 that would have taken $250,000 to leverage funds for the grant. The tax money would have come from Polk, Red Lake, Kittson, Marshall, Pennington and Roseau counties." - The 13 Towns of Fosston, Sept. 16, 2008, by Dan Kindall

Warren City Council sets '09 levy at $300,000, up 5.1 percent over '08

Worren - "Property owners in Warren will see an increase in the city tax levy of about 5 percent as a result of City Council action Sept. 9, setting the 2009 general levy at $300,000. Coincidentally, that is expected to provide for a $302,489 increase in the city's reserve at the end of 2009. In a recent external auditor's report, the city was cautioned that it should beef up its too-thin general fund reserve.

"The levy amount was to have been certified to the county auditor by Sept. 15. When the city finalizes its 2009 budget numbers, probably in December, the levy amount can be reduced by the council, depending upon the circumstances at that time, but it cannot be increased above the certified levy of $300,000.

"The levy increase approved last week is $14,604 over the levy last year, an increase of nearly 5.12 percent. The city also has an economic development levy, set at $7,000 for next year, which is up only $260. Combined, the city levies increase 5.1 percent for next year." - Warren Sheaf, Sept 17, 2008.

Over 900 attend college fair at NCTC - TRF

Northland Community and Technical College in Thief River Falls was host to the 2008 Minnesota Education Fair on Tuesday, Sept. 16. The NCTC College Fair is one of the largest college fairs in the state.

In attendance were second-year transfer students and over 925 students from area high schools, including Crookston, Kittson Central, Goodridge, Greenbush-Middle River, Marshall County Central, Red Lake County Central, Warren-Alvarado-Oslo, Win-E-Mac, Badger, Grygla, Lancaster, Waubun, Tri-County, Red Lake Falls, Roseau, Mahnomen, Red Lake and Thief River Falls.

"College Fairs provide students with an opportunity to visit with colleges, universities and technical colleges and armed services at one convenient location," said Director of Enrollment Management Eugene Klinke.

NCTC has hosted the College Fair for over 20 years, and, according to NCTC Admissions Representative and College Fair Site Chair Nicki Carlson, the event is essential for students critiquing colleges and determining their interest in returning to school.

"The College Fair gives students the opportunity to learn more about education and job opportunities in the area. Students can meet with individuals to answer their questions and make the first step toward continuing their education," said

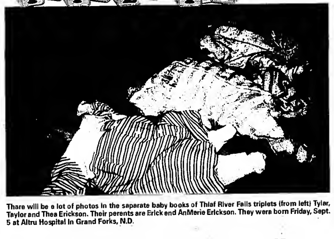
TRIPLE T'S in TRF



There will be a lot of photos in the separate baby books of Thief River Falls triplets (from left) Tyler, Taylor and Thea Erickson. Their parents are Erick and AnMarie Erickson. They were born Friday, Sept. 5 at Altru Hospital in Grand Forks, N.D.

Meet the three T's

Tyler, Taylor and Thea will do a lot of celebrating together. They'll celebrate their baptisms, confirmations and high school graduations together. They're triplets.

On Friday, Sept. 5, the Thief River Falls residents made their grand entrance at Altru Hospital in Grand Forks, N.D. Tyler and Taylor were officially born at 1:48 p.m. Tyler checked things out mere seconds before his brother. Then is the lone girl of the group and the youngest of the triplets, officially entering the world one minute after her brothers.

"They've been angels, and I would never ever take it away or take it back," said their mom, AnMarie Erickson.

It was in the middle of January that AnMarie and her husband, Erick, found out that triplets may be in their future. Given AnMarie's past history, AnMarie's doctor wanted to be sure that there wasn't a tubal pregnancy. On that day, AnMarie went in for an ultrasound by herself.

Two embryos were found. It was believed that there was a third embryo, but it wasn't a sure thing. "I was utterly in shock. I honestly didn't know what to think. I wondered, 'How am I going to take care of three?'" AnMarie recalled.

AnMarie got over her initial shock, or at least some of it, before exiting MeritCare Thief River Falls Southeast Clinic. And she couldn't wait to share the news with her husband. "I was on the phone as soon as I left the clinic," she said. Erick was surprised but excited. He called his mom a short time later to share the news.

William Saetre, Thief River Falls and Warren native, returns from his home in Germany to perform with the Greater Grand Forks Symphony for a gala performance of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony on Saturday night, Sept. 27, at the Chester Fritz Auditorium in Grand Forks, N.D.

"I am so very excited to return again to sing for family and friends in the region ... " said Saetre, who is known simply as Billy to many, "... and to sing such beautiful music in a great concert hall is a thrill." In addition to being one of four soloists in the Beethoven symphony, Billy is singing the famous duet from Bizet's "The Pearl Fishers" with Minneapolis baritone, Michael P. Schmidt.

Billy most recently appeared in the area directing and starring in the Thief River Falls Community Theatre's sold out production of "Anything Goes" this past summer.

"Beethoven's Ninth symphony is the most influential music written in the past 180 years," said Greater Grand Forks Symphony board president and Thief River Falls resident, Philip McKenzie. "It's the orchestra's 100th anniversary concert, so we wanted to perform something that everyone will enjoy and remember. The Ode to Joy in the final movement is something all of us have heard."

There will be a 200 voice chorus joining the orchestra and soloists including several singers from Thief River Falls who have been prepared by Vanessa Martell, choral director of Northland Community and Technical College.

The region has several members playing in the orchestra as well. Kari Lindemoen is a violist living in Warren. Musicians from Thief River Falls who are performing in the 65-piece symphony include Kristin Buckley, flute, Derek Druse, viola, Allison Scott, violin, and Philip McKenzie, oboe.

"The orchestra provides many benefits to the region. Many of our music teachers improve their own skills in the orchestra and they pass that talent on to their students. It helps us recruit professionals from urban areas to the region, as musicians see many of the activities they enjoyed in a big city are available to

Basketball court completed at RLCC

The new outdoor basketball court at Red Lake County Central Elementary school in Plummer is finished and in use. Students at the school are excited to be bouncing basketballs and shooting hoops.

The basketball court was a joint community/school project. The Plummer Lions Club donated $7,000 for the cement pad with Vettleson Construction doing the work. The school purchased one basketball hoop, and Red River Grain/Kevin Yaggie matched that with a donation to cover the second basketball hoop. Each hoop cost in excess of $2,000. The school purchased sod for around the court. The sod was delivered from Brekke sod near Clearbrook by Joe McMullen and McMullen Auctioneers. Volunteers Mike Greenwald, Barry Rewertz and Dan Brustad assisted in the laying of the sod.

"We couldn't be more pleased with this project," said Randy Pederson, principal at the school. "With today's tough economic times, there was no way the district

It's a matter of politics

by April Scheinoha

Jodie Torkelson doesn't like to draw attention to herself. After creating a stare-worthy hat, she recently got more attention than she bargained for.

"It's extremely ugly, but I thought it was fun. It was very Minnesotan," said the Thief River Falls resident, who made more than 20 pins to feature Minnesota companies, sports teams and political candidates. She then placed the pins on her black floppy-eared hat.

"When I put it on, people just laughed and laughed," Torkelson said. She wore the hat one time and drew more attention than she wanted. For the remainder of the week, she was hatless.

Torkelson created the hat for the Democratic National Convention, which she attended Aug. 25-28 in Denver. She was one of several local residents who attended one of the major political parties' conventions this year. Torkelson served as a delegate. Working as a volunteer, Lancaster resident Kathy Bernstrom attended the Republican National Convention, which was held Sept. 1-4 in St. Paul. Capt. Dick Wittenberg, who works out of the Minnesota State Patrol's Thief River Falls District Office, worked in security for the latter convention. A future article may feature Wittenberg's experiences there.

Bernstrom and Torkelson have varying levels of experience with national political conventions. This year's Republican National Convention was Bernstrom's first national political convention. She has attended other Republican Party conventions – county, district and state conventions – but she had never attended a national convention until this month. She jumped at the chance to volunteer at this year's Republican National Convention. A day after finding out about the opportunity, she applied to be a volunteer. She took vacation time from her job at Mattracks in Karlstad to work as a volunteer usher, checking people's credentials and helping

Microchipping Clinic
SEPT. 26-27TH, 2008

One of the safest and most effective means of pet identification is now more affordable than ever. Effective immediately the Pennington County Humane Society is offering complete microchip installation and registration for $20. That is a bargain, considering that nationwide, the average cost of microchipping is between $25 and $40.

For the first time ever the Pennington County Humane Society is offering a microchipping clinic. The two-day clinic begins on Friday, Sept. 26, from 2 to 7 p.m. and concludes Saturday, Sept. 27 from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Shelter on Hwy 59.

No appointments are necessary during the clinic, but dogs are required to be leashed and cats must be in a carrier. In addition to the $20 microchipping cost, pet owners can have their pet licensed through the city of Thief River Falls. The licensing cost is $5 for pets that have been spayed or neutered, and $10 for pets that are intact.

SOUPÇON

Sherry LaCoursiere

I am constantly cutting recipes out of magazines and newspapers. Today I'm going to give you some of those recipes. I haven't gotten around to trying some of them, but they saund too good to pass up. Maybe you can try them for me and let me know what you think.

This recipe is from a 1997 Country Living magazine article on "Quick Cakes." It is a lot like my favorite "Crazy Cake," except that it has peppermint in it. I have some peppermint chocolate chips that might make an interesting topping for the cake and I might try that. I plan to make my cake in a loaf pan, maybe a 7x11 one:

MINT CHOCOLATE CAKE

1 1/2 cups flour
1 cup sugar
3 tablespoons cocoa
1 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
5 tablespoons butter, melted
1 tablespoon white vinegar
1 teaspoon peppermint extract
1 cup cold water
1 cup semisweet minichips
1/2 cup finely chopped walnuts

Heat oven to 375 degrees.

Into 9 inch spring form pan, sift flour, cocoa, soda and salt. Make 3 holes in pan with finger and pour butter in one hole, vinegar into another, and peppermint into the third. Pour water over all and stir with a fork until well combined.

Bake cake 30-40 minutes or until cake tester in center comes out clean. Immediately sprinkle chocolate chips over and bake 2-3 minutes longer, just until chips melt (touch with spatula because sometimes the chips keep their shape even though they are completely melted).

Loosen cake edges and remove rim of pan. Spread chips evenly over top and sides of cake. Gently pat walnuts on side of cake and place on serving plate.

Nutritional Info (for entire cake): Pratein: 8 g, fat: 27 g, carb: 76 g, fiber: 3 g, sodium, 319 mg, chol, 26 mg, calories 541.

This is called a "deli-style" soup, "simple but yummy." It came from Allrecipes, submitted by Shelly A. I plan to use some of my veggies and herbs from the garden and maybe add some hamburger to it too:

OLD FASHIONED VEGETABLE SOUP

3 tablespoons butter
1 onion, diced
2 large carrots, diced
3 stalks celery, diced
1 (28 ounce) can whole peeled tomatoes, chopped and juice
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon dried parsley.
3 tablespoons soy sauce
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon paprika
2 quarts beef broth

In large pot over medium heat, melt butter. Cook onion, carrots and celery until onion is translucent. Stir in tomatoes with juice, salt, pepper, parsley, soy sauce, Worcestershire and paprika. Pour in brath.

Bring to a boil, then reduce heat and simmer 30 minutes, until vegetables are tender and flavors are blended.

I have no idea where this little recipe came from. Maybe somebody sent it to me. But with the cooler days here and there and the leaves starting to turn color, a hot cider drink would hit the spot (and it's good cold, too):

HOT MULLED CIDER

6 cups cider
1 stick cinnamon
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon ginger
12 whole cloves
6 whole allspice berries (or 1/4 teaspoon)

Combine all ingredients and bring to a boil. Simmer 5 minutes. Remove whole spices if refrigerating.

TWO-BEAN SALAD WITH ORIENTAL DRESSING

8 ounces (about 1 1/2 cups) fresh green beans, trimmed (or 1 [10 ounce] package frozen whole green beans)
8 ounces (about 1 1/2 cups) fresh wax beans, trimmed (or 1 [10 ounce] package frozen whole wax beans)
3 tablespoons soy sauce
1 tablespoon rice (or white) vinegar
1 tablespoon sesame seeds
2 teaspoons oriental sesame oil
1/2 teaspoon sugar
1/8 teaspoon red pepper flakes (optional)

Have a large bowl of ice water ready. Bring 2 inches of water to a boil in a large pot. Add both kinds of beans and return to a boil. Cover and cook 2-3 minutes until crisp-tender. Drain and immediately immerse in ice water.

Whisk remaining ingredients. Drain beans well and add to dressing. Toss to mix. Cover and marinate at least 2 hours, tossing occasionally. (Recipe serves 6, about 1 cup each.

Nutritional Info (per 1 cup serving): 40 calories, 2 g pratein, 6 g carb, 3 g fat, 0 mg chol, 665 mg sodium.

Nima Mostafi to share personal story at Bethel Lutheran Church Sept. 24

Sometimes life leads us down paths that we are not even capable of envisioning until it unfolds.

Such is the case with Nima Mostofi, head of the lab department at LifeCare Medical Center, also a husband, father of two teenage children, currently living on a quiet street in Roseau. Area residents are invited to hear the story of his life journey at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 24 at Bethel Lutheran Church in Greenbush. You will find that his story is anything but quiet.

Born in northern Iran, Nima left his homeland in 1979 for .... "anywhere safe," he says. He fled Iran to save his life. Initially, he ended up in India. Eventually, he ended up in Roseau. How did he get fram there to here? From 1979 to 2008? How did his experiences color his life view? What did he hope for? What gave him hope? What became of his family that did not leave Iran?

That's the story Nima will share at the 7 p.m. program next Wednesday. His is a fascinating personal account of how 'keeping that tiny flame of hope alive' within him, buoyed by faith, he was able to continue on, and build his life in a safe place.

Members of Bethel and the community are invited to hear Nima's story and ask him questions. As always, refreshments will be served after the program; guests are free to leave before the BLCW business meeting that will follow.

Neil Bursheim to perform at Grace Lutheran Church

Neil Bursheim of McIntosh will be in concert at Grace Lutheran Church in Erskine on Sunday, Sept. 28, beginning at 4 p.m. Accompanied by his mother, Merideth Bursheim, Neil will play several old Scandinavian hymns on his violin. There will be an opportunity for those who attend to sing some of their favorites as well. Following the concert, a lunch of Scandinavian treats will be served. A freewill offering will be accepted with proceeds going to the Grace Organ Fund.

Roseau Friends of the Library to host patio picnic supper

New members are welcome to join as either active or associate members. Current members are encouraged to bring a friend (or two or three) who wish to join this busy award-winning non-profit organization. In case of inclement weather, the celebration will move into the City Center. The menu will include hot dogs, bar-b-ques, baked beans, chips and cookies. The meal will be served by the library staff and volunteers.

The Roseau Area Friends of the Library Board of Directors will meet at 4:15 p.m. on Monday, September 29, following meetings of the Grant Writing Committee at 3 and 3:30 p.m. Three grant projects are being considered.

Charitable gaming has value in MN

Initially, there was a lot of hand-wringing when charitable gambling was proposed and then approved. Most objections focused on gambling's destructive impact on families and the economy. There should be no doubt now that such an addiction can be very destructive. When profits from gaming grew, however, the state took its share and liked the idea so much that it then became a competitor.

Charitable gaming is still big business ... in spite of all the competition. In 2007, charitable gaming's net profits in Minnesota exceeded $103 million, and it generated nearly $47.5 million in taxes. Gaming organizations now say these revenues, which create jobs and support charitable organizations and benefit local people, are in jeopardy.

This next year, the Legislature is expected to discuss charitable gambling. The statewide smoking ban, burdensome state taxes, increasing expenses and the demands of state regulation are having a significantly negative impact on the industry in Minnesota. That doesn't bode well for the future of charitable gambling, the many organizations that operate charitable gambling or the people and organizations that benefit most from charitable gaming revenue.

We hope that the Legislature will continue to support efforts to assist those afflicted by gaming's negative impact. The study, however, presents an opportunity for the Legislature to provide some relief for organizations that conduct charitable gambling operations in our community, and the people and organizations that benefit most from these efforts.

Agassiz NWR to offer furbearer trapping opportunities

Furbearer trapping opportunities are available at Agassiz National Wildlife Refuge from Oct. 25, 2008, through Feb. 28, 2009; however, the raccoon and red fox season will go through March 15, 2009, and the beaver and striped skunk season will go through April 30, 2009.

A total of four trapping units will be awarded to qualified trappers through a sealed bid system. Under this system, applicants make a sealed monetary bid on one or all units. Only one unit will be awarded to each trapper. All successful bids require full payment no later than Friday, Oct. 24, 2008. Minimum bids are $40 per unit. Applicants interested in bidding are not to include payment with their bid.

Applicants must have appropriate state trapping and small game licenses, and a minimum of two seasons of trapping experience. This information must be on the bid sheet form, which requires that both licenses must be purchased before the bid is submitted. Permittees (successful bidders) are allowed one helper who can help trap only when accompanying the permittee on the refuge. Permittees are required to trap predator mammals for at least two trapping nights between Oct. 25 and Thursday morning, Nov. 6. On the day before and during the firearms deer season, Nov. 7-16, trappers will be allowed to drive only on roads open to deer hunters. Trapping isn't allowed in the two closed deer hunting areas during this time period.

Inspection of the trapping units is allowed and encouraged between the hours of 8 a.m. and 3 p.m. Monday, Sept. 29 through Tuesday, Oct. 7, excluding Saturday and Sunday. Sealed bids must be hand-delivered or postmarked no later than 4 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 7. Application forms, refuge regulations and refuge maps showing unit locations and other pertinent information, are available at refuge headquarters. Successful applicants will be notified by Friday, Oct. 17. All successful applicants will be required to discuss the trapping program with Wildlife Refuge Specialist Gary Tischer prior to Oct. 25.

Water levels are low and variable in refuge pools. Water levels in several pools are scheduled to change during the fall and early winter. Prescribed burns have been completed in several of the units with more burns scheduled prior to and during the trapping season.

Species open to trapping include mink, raccoon, striped skunk, red fox, muskrat, beaver and otter. Two otter per trapper will be permitted during the otter trapping season. Otter and beaver trapping will be restricted in several areas. All other wildlife species are protected.

New this year is the opening of the refuge to additional hunting opportunities starting the day after the regular firearm deer hunting season on Monday, Nov. 17. Archery deer season will go through Dec. 31, 2008, and the ruffed grouse season will go through Jan. 4, 2009. The muzzleloader deer season will go from Nov. 29 through Dec. 14, 2008. Trappers need to adhere to appropriate hunter orange clothing requirements during the muzzleloader and ruffed grouse seasons. Trappers will be allowed to travel all refuge roads during these seasons. During these hunting seasons, all hunters will only be able to access the refuge by walking from Marshall County Road 7, adjacent township roads, adjacent state wildlife management areas or adjacent private lands.

Mother pleads guilty to keeping her dead daughter's body

A Grand Forks, N.D., woman pled guilty Wednesday in Grand Forks County District Court to charges leveled against her after authorities found her toddler's dead body in St. Hilaire.

Jody Lynn Weaver pled guilty to the four counts – two felony counts of abuse or neglect of a child, and one count each of willful disturbance of a dead body and failure to report a death, according to the court's database. Sentencing has been scheduled for Oct. 31.

The charges stemmed from a Feb. 12, 2007, report from Weaver's boyfriend Clarence Roger Smith to the Pennington County Sheriff's Office in Minnesota. On Feb. 12, 2007, Smith and Jody Weaver loaded Destiny Weaver's body into a plastic tote. The tote was then placed into the trunk of a vehicle that Smith drove from North Dakota to Minnesota. Jody Weaver followed Smith, a Grygla resident, in another vehicle. En route, Smith called the Pennington County Sheriff's Office. Deputies met Smith and Jody Weaver at Kruse In in St. Hilaire, where the child's body was surrendered.

Weaver and Smith were both charged in Grand Forks. Smith was sentenced Aug. 11, 2008. Weaver was originally scheduled to go to trial Sept. 23, 2008. Both sides reached an agreement before Weaver's case went to trial.

The cause of 2-year-old Destiny Weaver's death hasn't been determined. The court database listed Jan. 28, 2007, as the offense date for the charges of abuse or neglect of a child. Jody Weaver allowed her dead daughter's body to be in her apartment for about two weeks while two of her other children were present.

In an interview in July 2007, Assistant Grand Forks County State's Attorney M. Jason McCarthy indicated that a cause of death couldn't be determined. In February 2007, Jody Weaver told Grand Forks police that Destiny Weaver had flu-like symptoms before her death.

Rydell NWR seeks historical photos/journals

Rydell National Wildlife Refuge, located in Woodside Township near Erskine, is conducting an oral history project on the refuge.

The project is being funded through a Preserve America grant via the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation. The purpose of the grant is to collect information and memories about the landscape history of the refuge and surrounding area (particularly the townships of Woodside, Grove Park, Badger and Knute). Any photographs, newspaper articles, letters or journals that talk about the landscape of eastern Polk County or how people utilized and interacted with the natural environment would be greatly appreciated. Examples may include:

- Early settlement of eastern Polk County and, in particular, Woodside, Grove Park, Badger and Knute townships;
- Farming;
- Logging;
- Building of homes/businesses;
- Building of roads;
- Hunting/fishing/trapping;
- Common plants or wildlife;
- Rare plants or wildlife; and
- Overall impressions of the landscape (prairies, woodlands, lakes, wetlands, vistas, etc.) and how it has changed.

Items loaned to the refuge will be scanned or duplicated, and returned to the owners. The refuge would also be interested in hearing from anyone who possesses artifacts of historical life (old hunting/trapping equipment, farming equipment, etc.) or who would be interested in being interviewed about their memories of the area around the refuge or stories told to them by parents and/or grandparents.

Contact the Refuge at 1-800-841-0172 (locally 687-2229), extension 3, or stop by the refuge, located between Mentor and Erskine. The refuge is about two-and-a-half miles south of U.S. Highway 2 on Polk County Road 210. Office hours are generally 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays through Fridays. The refuge appreciates this help to preserve the memories and history of this special place.

Mixed Blood Theatre to Perform "Minnecanos" at Northland College

The Mixed Blood Theatre from Minneapolis will be performing Minnecanos on Sept. 26, at noon in the theater at the Thief River Falls campus. The public is welcome to attend.

Minnecanos is a buoyant celebration of Chicano cultural history, embracing four generations and the entire 20th Century. It was written for Mixed Blood by Thomas Benitez and Joe Minjares, a successful Twin Cities restaurateur (Pepito's in south Minneapolis) before turning his talents to theatre.

Minnecanos spans four generations and the entire 20th Century in its spirited illumination of Mexican American history. It begins at the Minneapolis home Diego Morales has owned for over 40 years. Encouraged by the bemused ghost of his loving wife, Herlinda, the old man uses the contents of an ancient trunk to ignite his great-granddaughter's interest in their rich cultural heritage.

The songs in Minnecanos, like the play itself, are based largely on Mexican traditions, particularly the traditions of the corrido. The literal translation of the word is "song." Culturally, however, corrido has a much richer tradition. Corridos are special songs that tell a story - sometimes fictional, sometimes historical - very passionately. The performance is free of charge.

Central Boiler donation will assist in recovery for flood victims

Central Boiler has responded to the Midwestern floods that have affected seven states with a donation of over $40,000 to various charities to assist in the relief and recovery efforts.

The flood relief donation was based on the hours employees worked during a four-week period in June. Central Boiler donated $1 for every regular hour worked by each employee and $1.50 for every overtime hour worked.

"Basing the contribution on the employees' hours worked allows them to play a part of the recovery efforts," said Dennis Brazier, CEO and owner.

The company's efforts also inspired employees to make donations to the flood efforts on their own behalf. Central Boiler has a network of over 400 dealers, with 32 of these dealers located in states that have been affected by the floods.

"Our thoughts and prayers go out to the people who have suffered from these historic floods," said Terri Brazier, Central Boiler owner.

them here. Orchestra members also act as a "back-up band" to national performing artists including the Trans-Siberian Orchestra, Mannheim Steamroller, and Michael W. Smith," said McKenzie.

Joining Saetre and Schmidt, will be North Dakota natives Korliss Uecker, soprano, and Tammy Hensrud, mezzo-soprano. Both now live in New York and have international singing careers. Conducting will be James Hannon, music director of the orchestra, who has just arrived from Japan where he lives.

The program opens by looking back 100 years to the orchestra's first season with the Intermezzo from Mendelssohn's Midsummer Night's Dream. The male soloists are next with the Bizet. They are followed by the Uecker and Hensrud, who will sing the famous duet from Dellbes Lakme. The Beethoven will follow intermission.

McKenzie relates, "In 2000 I heard the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra play the Beethoven 9 for its final concert with music director, Hugh Wolff. Walking out of the concert I overheard a husband, probably not a regular symphony-goer, quietly say to his wife, 'Super Duper.' He had it exactly right. I have a feeling that our concert next Saturday will be super duper."

Tickets are available at Kezar's Music in Thief River Falls or by calling the Chester Fritz Auditorium at 701-777-5151 or by going online to www.ggfso.org.

Pioneers repeat 3-0 win vs. Rainy River

■ Northland volleyball team is 13-6 heading into showdown with Hibbing

Rainy River made its second visit of the season to Thief River Falls Thursday and suffered the same fate as before – a 3-0 volleyball loss at the hands of Northland Community and Technical College.

The Voyageurs were here Aug. 27 for a nonconference match. This setback had a little more sting to it since the 25-10, 25-17, 25-18 contest was a Minnesota College Athletic Conference Northern Division counter.

Northland boosted its overall record to 13-6 and hiked its MCAC mark to 3-1 heading into a home match today (Saturday) against Hibbing. The two teams are the early-season Northern Division leaders.

It's homecoming weekend for the Pioneers, so the volleyball start time vs. Hibbing was moved up from noon to 11 a.m. in an effort to give people an opportunity to catch the Northland football game that afternoon against Ridgewater at Lowell T. Swenson Field, where kickoff is scheduled for 1:30 p.m.

Following the Hibbing match, Northland will take on Itasca, another Northern Division contender, Wednesay at 6:30 p.m. in Grand Rapids.

Prowlers run strong races

Strong runs were turned in by both the Thief River Falls boys and girls Tuesday at the Bagley/Fosston Invitational high school cross country meet.

Led by sophomore Beezer Skime, who ran fourth, the Thief River Falls boys finished fourth in a 14-team field.

Freshman Megan Bergland's 11th place run paced the Thief River Falls girls, who were seventh in a field of 12.

"We had a very exciting day," said Thief River Falls coach Terri Ueland. "I could say something nice about each and every one of my runners. This was a big meet, and they did a good job."

Skime and Bergland ran well, but the most impressive performance for the Prowlers, according to Ueland, was a 49-second drop from his previous race for junior Mike Dyrdal.

Team titles went to the Bemidji boys and Park Rapids Area girls.

Individual winners were Erik Truedson of Bemidji and Lydia Lutz from Park Rapids Area.

The Prowlers will run at East Grand Forks Thursday, Sept. 25, before hosting their annual Thief River Falls Invitational Monday, Sept. 29. The boys and girls varsity, junior varsity and junior high races at the Thief River Golf Club begin at 4:15 p.m.

Deer Hunters meeting is scheduled for Thursday

Monthly meeting for the Thief River Falls Chapter of the Minnesota Deer Hunters Association will be held Thursday, Sept. 25, at 7:30 p.m. at the Eagles Club.

Northwestern Minnesota special youth antlerless deer hunt set Oct. 18-19

Any hunter age 12 to 14 with a Firearms Safety Certificate and valid Minnesota firearms deer license is eligible to participate in the northwest Minnesota Special Youth Antlerless Deer Season Oct. 18-19.

Counties included in the special youth season include Kittson, Lake of the Woods, Marshall, Pennington and Roseau. Youth can hunt on public as well as private lands with the permission of the landowners. The special hunt is located in Zones 100 and 200, but youth with a 2008 Minnesota firearms license from any zone may participate.

There is no application or lottery process for the season and no limit on the number of participants, although only one antlerless deer may be taken per hunter during this season. Participants may use one bonus permit, but the one-deer limit remains. Any youth participating in this hunt may still participate in the regular firearms deer season, but harvested deer count against the annual bag limit.

An adult mentor age 18 or older must accompany the youth hunter at all times during the hunt. The accompanying adult may not hunt, and party hunting is not allowed. Harvested deer must be tagged by the individual who took them.

The blaze-orange requirements apply to all hunters and trappers and all adult mentors of youth hunters in areas open to youth firearms deer hunting during this hunt.

Minnesota Bugle Days to celebrated Sept. 26-28 at Lake Bronson State Park

Second annual Minnesota Bugle Days, celebrating the state's wild elk population, will be held at Lake Bronson State Park Sept. 26-28.

"Many Minnesotans don't realize there are wild elk right here, in their own backyard," explained Pete Harrison, assistant park manager. "This is an incredible opportunity to see and hear these magnificent animals in their native Minnesota habitat." Elk enthusiasts from across the country will gather to explore the field and share stories around a campfire. There will be elk bugling and viewing, guided tours by Minnesota Department of Natural Resources Area Wildlife Manager Donovan Pietruszewski, and a steak fry and movies at night.

Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation is organizing and co-sponsoring the event along with the DNR. Space is limited and reservations are recommended. RSVP to Ralph Cinfio at 1-866-632-0493. Campsites are still available in the park. To reserve a site, call (866)-85PARKS.

The park is located two miles east of the town of Lake Bronson and approximately 50 miles northwest of Thief River Falls. For more information call the park office at 218-754-2200.

A five-yard face mask penalty was called on Park Rapids Area defensive back Dylan Welsh when he reached out in an attempt to pull down Thief River Falls running back Tyler Aendal in a Sept. 12 high school football game at Lowell T. Swenson Field. Aandel had a 20-carry, 249-yard rushing night as the Prowlers edged the Panthers 14-13.

Bemidji is 6-1 tennis winner vs. TRF girls

Bemidji was a 6-1 winner over visiting Thief River Falls Thursday in girls high school tennis.

It was the third straight loss for the Prowlers, who watched their dual record slip to 4-4.

"Bemidji is a very good team," said Thief River Falls coach Corey Thorson. "They were missing their No. 3 singles and still swept us in singles. That shows how tough they are."

The Prowlers did become just the second team to pick up a point against the unbeaten Lumberjacks in eight dual meets this fall when Katie Rook-Zoe Pietras-Swanton won at No. 2 doubles.

"I thought our singles battled with them, even if the scores don't necessarily show it," noted Thorson.

DNR is observing Youth Waterfowl Day, Take a Kid Hunting Weekend

Extensive research about youth participation in hunting has been conducted in recent years, and the results are in. Young people become hunters because adults take them hunting, and the earlier that kids start hunting the more likely they are to hunt for the rest of their lives.

The Minnesota Department of Natural Resources is offering several special opportunities to make taking a young person hunting a little easier.

Take a Kid Hunting Weekend: Adult residents who go small game hunting with a youth under age 16 on Sept. 20-21 can do so without a license. Squirrels, rabbits, grouse and doves provide opportunities for an enjoyable hunt throughout the state. Resident youth under age 16 do not need a Small Game license, and kids under age 12 can hunt small game without a Firearms Safety Certificate when a legal guardian accompanies them.

Sept. 20 is Youth Waterfowl Day. Kids under age 16 may hunt waterfowl in Minnesota on this day, prior to the opening of the regular waterfowl season. An adult must accompany youth under age 14, but may not hunt.

Northwest Minnesota Special Youth Antlerless Deer Season: A special season for youth 12-14 years old and their non-hunting adult parent or guardian is scheduled for Oct. 18-19. Lands within Kittson, Lake of the Woods, Marshall, Pennington and Roseau counties are open for this hunt.

Together with the Minnesota Chapters of Pheasants Forever, the DNR is encouraging pheasant hunters to take a kid pheasant hunting the weekend of Oct. 25-26.

For more information about the upcoming hunting season and hunting regulations, consult the 2008 Hunting Regulations Handbook.

Rural Reflections

People we met

Last week, I wrote a little about our trip to South Dakota in a letter to my brother, David. This week, I want to tell you a bit more about our trip.

Our trips are built around avoiding people, to an extent. We always leave after Labor Day as most people have accomplished their summer vacation by that time. The funny thing about this trip was that although we timed it to avoid people and crowds, it was the people who made the trip really nice.

My fellow travelers were the best: Teresa Hibbert, Jeanette Walseth, Lisa and I. It's a nice balance as Teresa and I are pretty good listeners and Lisa and Jeanette employ the music of their own voices quite handily. We are all quite supportive of each other plus we love continental breakfasts (nothing tastes better than free food), so we are pretty fair part-time gypsies.

The first stop of our trip was to see Lisa's cousin Larry Wold and his wife, Ann. Larry used to work for an airline but took his family from a life led quickly in the Twin Cities to become a taxidermist in Armour, S.D. His clientele followed him to Armour and a quick stop at his shop revealed that this loyalty was born of high-quality work. Armour was supposed to be a railhead for cattle at one time and required a few very beautiful homes for the expected executives. The railhead never arrived and neither did the executives. Larry and Ann own one of those homes, purchased with money but owned through hard restoration. I had never seen their home or truly met them before, but I was impressed by both.

Just outside of Mount Rushmore, we stopped at one of several antique stores. The owner was an older man with long, white hair and a very unique personality; he was a bit odd and quit speaking only to breath. He recited his philosophies on women, teenagers, and antiques; these were just the tip of the iceberg of his expertise. He was friendly and hugged my mother in-law so long that even the antique shelves became a little uncomfortable. When he asked me to join him to see his "museum out back," I felt certain I was doomed to become sausage but went anyway (I was on vacation, right?). It actually was very nice and he was quite kind, but we left with few purchases as his prices reflected the pride he had in the items for sale.

Evenings during our trip were spent at the motel, seated on the tailgate of the pickup, drinking a few beers and eating candy-coated popcorn. The popcorn was an odd choice, and despite the fact we all felt it was a poor snack to go with beer, ate it regularly. During the week, we had observed a young man come and go every day and had tried to guess his purpose for staying here by himself. Our nightly gatherings must have convinced him that we were friendly, so he came over to introduce himself. Joe was 21 years old and a native of Wisconsin. He had stayed at this same motel since February while building railroad bridges. Joe was tall and raw-boned. He said when he began building bridges he was very overweight but building wooden railroad bridges was a work-out without equal. He and I had much to talk about as he'd grown up milking cows and loved rural life. Nothing attracts a crowd like a crowd, and I would guess one-third of that hotel, including the owners, filtered by and took a seat on the tailgate before the night was done.

South Dakota is beautiful, and I highly recommend it. If you do go, make sure you meet the people. Talk to everyone, be willing to meet new people, even if they make you fear for your life, and make sure you bring along a bag of candy-coated popcorn to pass while you sit on the tailgate.

Experience Works recruits mature workers

Sept. 21-27 is National Employ Older Workers Week – a perfect time for people 55 and older who need extra income to consider getting the training they need to get a job.

In Minnesota, Experience Works, the country's largest provider of mature-worker training and employment, is currently recruiting unemployed individuals 55 and older with limited income who want to learn new skills, gain job experience and ultimately work full- or part-time in their local communities. Through the Senior Community Service Employment Program, Experience Works collaborates with nonprofit organizations and community service agencies to provide paid work experience, training and job placement services to seniors in local communities.

"People are never too old to learn new skills and continue contributing to society," said Jean Bennett, Experience Works regional director for the five-state area of Minnesota, South Dakota, North Dakota, Montana and Wyoming. "Experience Works offers essential services to seniors at a time of growing need in this country. Experience Works has examples of hundreds of seniors who have started new careers in their 60s, 70s and even 80s. More than 26,000 seniors with economic challenges have found employment through Experience Works services in the past five years."

National Employ Older Workers Week promotes employment opportunities and acknowledges the special contributions of older Americans nationwide. The week is also an opportunity to recognize the employers of older workers who establish age-friendly work environments by training, recruiting and retaining qualified older workers.

For more information about Experience Works and its local services, call Pat Fixter at (218) 681-7579 or 1-800-450-5627.

Oklee area residents urged to lock their car doors at night

The Red Lake County Sheriff's Office urges Oklee area residents to make sure they lock their car doors at night. This notice stems from a rash of thefts that have occurred in Oklee since Sept. 12.

Approximately 25 vehicles have been entered, and thieves have taken various items from residents' vehicles. The thefts range from small amounts of change and sunglasses to large quantities of tools. Two firearms have also been reported stolen.

The sheriff's office is investigating these reports. If anyone has any information that may helpful to the investigation, they are asked to call (218) 253-2996.

FSA reminds farmers of DCP deadline

Producers have until Sept. 30, 2008, to sign up for the 2008 Direct and Countercyclical Payment Program (DCP). Anyone who has a risk in and a share of program crop bases must initiate the DCP contract by Sept. 30.

Producers will then have until Oct. 15, 2008, to obtain signatures for all producers with shares greater than zero. If a producer with a share greater than zero has not signed by Oct. 15, that contract is not timely filed and cannot be acted upon or approved. Since the county offices will not be able to approve contracts after the Oct. 15 deadline, they ask all producers to submit all leases and signatures as soon as possible prior to Oct. 15.

Producers can complete their 2008 DCP contract at any U.S. Department of Agriculture Farm Service Agency County Office. Sign-up can also be completed online by logging onto www.fsa.usda.gov, selecting online services, selecting eDCP and then clicking on "Access eDCP Service." Producers can choose payment options, assign crop shares, and sign and submit contracts from any computer with Internet access.

FSA computes DCP payments using base acres and payment yields established for each farm. Eligible producers receive direct payments at rates established by statute regardless of market prices. For 2008, eligible producers may request to receive an advance payment of 22 percent of the direct payment for each commodity base associated with the farm. FSA will issue advance direct payments as soon as practical after enrollment. Final direct payments will be issued after Oct. 1, 2008. Countercyclical payments vary depending on market prices and are issued only when the effective price for a commodity is below its target price (which takes into account the direct payment rate, market price and loan rate).

For all eligibility requirements or additional information, contact your local FSA County Office.
